

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Events Along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and Around the Borough—Picked up by the Intelli-gencer Reporter.

The work of painting the roof of the reading lounge of Shawnee furnace No. 2 has just been finished, the wall on which it rests having been made two feet higher. The furnace has also been raised to a height of eighteen feet and a new 30 inch blast pipe will soon be put in place.

Thomas Fairer & Son's new boiler works are fast becoming one of the prominent works of town. Though so recently put into operation they are now crowded with work and are doing a large number of orders. It works like these which add to the business of a town.

Summer Recreation. The society of Gutter Snipes held a meeting on Wednesday, and decided to leave for Rehoboth, N. J., on their annual excursion, on the 16th of July. Prof. John Warren will act as their caterer during their trip. Last year the party did not leave this town until the latter part of August, and were, in consequence, nearly devoured by the mosquitoes, which then infest the Jersey sands.

A large crowd of people attended the Trinity returned fair and festival in Old Fellow's hall last evening, and a great number of more or less successful attempts by the holders of the entertainment. It continues to night and to-morrow night.

A tight game of baseball was played on the river shore last evening between two picked nines. At the end of the seventh inning Captain Hamaker's nine had two scores and Captain Paine's one, and at the end of the eighth inning the score stood 10 to 10 in favor of the latter nine.

Salern Lutheran picnic in Heise's woods yesterday was largely attended. It was a delightful affair throughout. The Rev. R. W. Hupperts, wife and daughter, left yesterday for a visit to Reading.

The Shawnees will hold their annual dancing picnic in Heise's woods to-morrow.

A baby carriage with its occupant, a baby of Mr. John Kennel, fell down the cellarway of Bachelder's store yesterday afternoon. One of the clerks of the establishment fortunately happened to be at the foot of the stairway and caught the precocious burden before it had sustained any injury.

Mr. Harry C. Young is now engaged with a force of workmen in repairing the house of George Hambricht, of Lancaster, most of the paper being of the finest design.

Sol Morris, colored, was committed to jail to await his trial at next evening by Justice Grier, for assaulting an aged white man named Michael Clarkin yesterday afternoon.

Mr. John Williams has taken a partner for life—Miss Susan Strawbridge, one of Columbia's best and school teachers.

A meeting of councils was held last evening for the transaction of special business. The much needed new crossing over Lewis street, at Biecher's corner, has at last been built. The contractor has received a notice to proceed with having the water plugs opened on that.

The river is falling again—Canal boating is heavy.

THE SAVED HEART ACADEMY. Interesting Essay—The Vocal and Instrumental Music Instruction of Pre-Adolescents.

The tenth annual commencement of the Sacred Heart academy took place in Fullen opera house this morning. There were a fair attendance of all patrons of the school, including the following named reverend clergy: Father Kaul, of St. Anthony's, who conducted the services; Father Grotzinger, of St. Joseph's; Father Foin, of Philadelphia; Father F. Foster, of Lebanon; Father Scheld, of Philadelphia; Father Hoover, of New Freedom.

Bishop Shanahan was expected to be present, but a telegram announced his inability to attend. There were no floral decorations, and the young ladies of the school were all prettily but plainly dressed in white, presenting a marked and favorable contrast with the gaudy, over-dressed graduates of some other schools.

RAILROAD WRECK. Two Locomotives Badly Damaged. About one o'clock this afternoon there was a collision at Dillerville, at the point at which the Reading railroad crosses the Pennsylvania railroad. The north bound train on the Reading road and the Chicago limited express on the Pennsylvania reached the crossing at the same time, and the limited engine struck the Reading a terrible blow throwing it from the track, upsetting and badly breaking it.

Trains on both roads at this crossing are governed by the Pennsylvania railroad and since the time of the accident, was in charge of Hugh Boyd. The engineer of the Reading train says he was running on schedule time, and the white signal was given him to go ahead, when the limited mail came thundering along and struck him.

A broken axle on a car of the extra freight train east, drawn by engine No. 597, caused a local blockade on the south track west of Rohrerstown at 5:15 a. m., to-day. No one was hurt.

Prize King Chant. John Lovering having written to the "Spring Times" that he wants to back an unknown to spar with soft gloves for the light-weight championship and $200 a side within twenty five miles of Lancaster, Marquis of Queensbury rules to govern, and the contest to be decided on points and endurance.

The fourth member of the Carr family died of smallpox yesterday and was buried last night; this morning another child, making the fifth in all from this one bereaved family, came to its death from the same terrible scourge.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Western Market company yesterday afternoon, Philip Dinkler, the lowest bidder, withdrew his bid for the erection of the new market house having discovered a mistake in his calculations; and as there seemed to be some uncertainty as to whether Daniel McLaughlin's or J. Adam Burger's bid was next lowest the matter was left to the building committee to decide and award the contract to the lowest bidder.

Charles Brimmer, the portrait and crayon artist, suffered a stroke of paralysis at his lodgings, corner West King and Prince streets, about midnight Thursday. He is entirely deprived of the use of his right arm and leg, his brain is affected, his voice is gone and his attending physicians are very apprehensive of fatal results.

A vacancy filled. Isaac King, of Maytown, was appointed school director of East Donegal township, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Mr. Hostetter from the district.

Religious. Rev. J. V. Eckert will preach in Bethesda church, Martine township, next Sunday, June 24, at 3 o'clock p. m.

As Good as New. A gentleman lately remarked when looking over some garments that had been renovated by Ralph Simon, the London clothing renovator. Now it there is one thing that Ralph possesses in abundance it is modesty; the same holds him from saying his work is as good as new, but it is no less true that you can have it all the difference. The London Clothing Renovator, No. 168 North Duke street.

Special Notice.—Miss Josephine M. Mr. Harry H. Luckenbach, the agent for the celebrated Wilcox & White organ company, has put in his handsome store, No. 15 East King street, one of the most complete stocks of pianos and organs ever introduced into our city. His immense stock consists of the following pianos: Knabe, of Baltimore; Me. Phill, of Boston; Vose & Sons, Boston; Hallett & Davis, Boston; and Grovenstein & Payer, New York. Mr. L. has also in different styles of organs on hand, ranging in price from $25 upwards. Call at his rooms and examine his stock, and be convinced of the merits of the Wilcox & White organs. SECOND EDITION.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 23, 1893. AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS. TO-DAY'S NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE. Happenings in Various Parts of the South.—Judge Carter Vacates His Office of the Usurages Against Him.

NASHVILLE, June 22.—Judge John E. Garner in a telegram from Jackson says: "The charge that he tried to bribe witnesses to swear falsely in the Hopkins Noyes case is infamously false in all its length and breadth, and that his vindication will be emphatic, thorough and complete."

AUSTIN, June 22.—The fifty members of the Texas Legislature, indicted some time ago for taking bribes, have all settled their cases without a trial by the payment of fines and costs.

LITTLE ROCK, June 22.—Stevens, who last summer murdered State Auditor Flesher, has been captured near Vermilion, La., and brought back for trial.

CHICAGO, June 22.—At Kensington sixteen miles south of Chicago the discovery was made yesterday of a horrible murder. Edward Verunler, a laborer beat his wife. Fearing that her husband intended to murder her she dragged herself to the nearest neighbors and raised the alarm.

ATHENS, June 22.—Placards have been posted in different parts of the city by anarchists, which threaten to destroy the royal palace and the ancient monuments by means of explosives.

PULLMAN, Ill., June 22.—There were 15 entries for the singles all race here to day and three heats were rowed to decide which should enter the final heat, the first and second in each heat to row in the final one.

SOUTH CHICAGO, Ill., June 22.—A terrific explosion occurred this morning at blast furnace No. 5, in the North Chicago rolling mill. The blast furnace was blown scattered in every direction. Two men were horribly burned and will die. Fifteen men were more or less severely burned.

HARRISBURG, June 22.—In the Senate to-day Mr. Tamm's comprehensive appropriation bill passed second reading, without debate. It gives the Republicans 17 and the Democrats 11 districts.

TRENTON, N. J., June 22.—A dispatch from Bloomsburg, N. J., states that a large quantity of dynamite, belonging to the West End Iron company exploded at that place this morning. Considerable damage was done but nobody was injured as the mine was just quit work.

COLUMBIA, June 22.—The Democratic state convention excluded its labor at 1:15 o'clock this morning. David B. Page was elected chairman of the state central committee and Gilbert H. Barger, chairman of the executive committee.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—For the Middle Atlantic states, fair and slightly warmer weather, light variable winds, stationary or slight rise in barometer.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FRIDAY—PARTLY CLOUDY; SLIGHT CHANGE IN TEMPERATURE. Strangers passing through Philadelphia are cordially invited to make our store a sort of tarrying place. Hand-bags and parcels may be left here under check with the same freedom as at one's hotel and with the same convenience without incurring any obligation of any sort.

We do not keep a hotel exactly; not over night at any rate; but we do provide a free resting-place for all strangers; and take the chance of benefit accruing to us through the spreading of information about our business.

Indeed, we regard the presence of strangers itself as a benefit; for no one will ever see so novel a spectacle as the store presents without a desire to know something of the singular trade that fills it.

The accidental and peculiar novelty of the place brings a great deal of attention to our business; but, if there were nothing better than idiosyncrasy here, our trade would scarcely profit by the attention of passers-by. What is it, then, that constitutes the real permanent attractiveness of the place?

There are other large stores here and elsewhere; excellent ones, where excellent goods are kept. What is it that adds thousands to our daily throng, and a million to our trade every year? Ask the people of our city. Ask those of your own village, a thousand miles away it may be, who may happen to have learned the way to us by mail.

If we were to put in a few words what constitutes the real attraction here, we should say that we make a business of looking after the interests of our customers. Others do the same to a generous extent. It is said of us every day that we go beyond reason in looking after the interests of our customers. We don't mean to go beyond reason; but, when people say that we do go beyond reason, they thereby prove that we are foremost in liberal dealing.

What constitutes the spectacle here is the multitude; the trade; the provision to meet it that has grown up with the trade; the facilities for hastening the necessary delays in transactions; the provisions for the comfort of our own people, of buyers and of visitors; the seeming forgetfulness of costs; prodigality of benefits.

JOHN WANAMAKER. Our Millinery Stock is large and complete. It pretty well fills the southeast corner of the main floor. Straw Hats and Bonnets for ladies, misses and children are in profusion. All the leading colors are before you, including the "crushed berries," now on the topmost wave of popular favor.

The 17-cent counter is still piled high with desirable shapes. Milan Hats, in black and colors, 50 cents; made to sell for $1.00 to $1.25.

In the Floral display our 25 cent Corsage Bouquet seems to be the magnet. Tips and Plumes, in no end of colors, kinds and prices.

Ribbons are in every shade and all widths, from lute strings to broadest sashes. In variety, this stock is unexcelled, if indeed equaled, in this city. The crowds at the counters show the prices satisfy.

JOHN WANAMAKER. Lawn Games are in order—childish and popular with the children, big and little. Tennis, Base, and Foot-ball, Hoops, Quoits, Cricket, Archery, old-time Croquet and the new rival, Lawn Pool. This consists in stakes in lieu of arches and a ball poised on each stake, to be dislodged by a driven ball that strikes it. You'll like it. On the artificial lawn in this department there are tents, seats, hammocks, swings and usually something else of the kind.
