AMONG THE ISLANDS.

Dreaming we sailed one summer's day,
One day so long ago,
Dreaming as only idlers may
In summer noontide's glow,
Dreaming as only light hearts can
Before the weight of years
Has fettered mirth with cruel ban
And freighted life with tears.

Sailing 'mid islands green and fair
On broad St. Lawrence tide,
Where worldly thought and worldly care
All entrance are denied—
Nothing but nature still and sweet,
Nature beyond compare,
The shining water 'neath our feet,
Around, the summer air.

White clouds move slowly o'er the blue,
White shadows lie below;
They stir not at our gliding through,
So lazily we go.
The fisher's craft with sails unfurled
Drifts with us down the tide,
While ships from out the busy world
Far in the offing ride.

The isles are green, so richly green
With leaf of birch and pine,
The lordly oak and forest queen
Their graceful limbs entwine.
The slender catkins, brown and tall,
Nod us a welcome near;
No sound save gurgling ripples fall
Upon the tranced ear.

The fisher's hut beside the shore
Seems sleeping with the tide;
No shadows through the open door
Across the threshold glide.
With dreamy drift we slowly steal,
Heedless of passing time;
We hear the ripples on our keel,
Singing their low sweet rhyme.

That low sweet music echoes yet,
Those islands green and fair,
That summer day we ne'er forget,
Its balmy, blissful air.
Relentless time has swept us down
Life's ocean broad and deep,
But later fortune's smile or frown
Ne'er bids that memory sleep.

TERROR IN CHICAGO

Wild Steers Raging Through the Streets—A Woman and Child Killed.

At Chicago 110 wild Texan steers broke from the driving corral Tuesday evening and created the greatest stampede and excitement known in the stock yard region for many years. After a concerted rush for two blocks the herd broke and scattered in all directions. A lot of sixty took possession of Wentworth avenue and cleared the street of everything living or movable. At this point George Sweeney, a genuine Texan cowboy, in charge of the herd, put in an appearance, mounted on a herder mustang and armed with a Winchester rifle. Sweeney dashed after the Wenworth avenue section and killed nine of the animals in rapid succession. He followed another section down Thirtieth street, killing fourteen, and when he reached South Park avenue he put an end to those remaining there. Sweeny took another turn, taking a sort of skirmish detour, followed by hundreds of men and boys, armed with weapons of every conceivable sort, ranging from a Bridgeport sand bag and billy to an old army revolver, and the stag hunt was fully and fairly inaugurated. The neighborhood of Fourteenth street and Stewart avenue was wild with excitement. Five maddened animals bore down on Mrs. Mary Mulholland, of 420 Rebecca street, and trampled her to death. The body was removed to the home of a married daughter on Fourteenth street. Another dash of the steers carried them to Maggie Carney, aged 10 years, on her way home from a Stewart avenue store with a pail of milk and a loaf of bread in her hands. The child stopped, transfixed with terror, and the steer trampled on her, inflicting injuries which caused her death in the morning. One of the animals was slain by a street car driver, but the others escaped. At the corner of Blue Island and Centre avenues a steer weighing 1,200 pounds was killed by a laborer with a crowbar. Scarcely had the beast fallen when a remarkable scene ensued. Twenty or thirty men and women crowded around and began to fight for the carcass. It was skinned in patches, and while the body was yet quivering the meat was cut off in hunks and the chunks were carried off amid triumphant shouts and laughter. In less than fifteen minutes after the crowbar struck the animal nothing but the skeleton and the entrails remained. An old woman returned and secured the heart and liver. The sight was disgusting and the hungry people were repulsive in their blood-begrimed faces and clothing. Of the one hundred and ten steers in the herd when it broke forty three were killed or lost and the remainder secured after a night of hunting by the stockyard men. One ingenious fellow was determined to catch his game alive and actually succeeded in securing a steer with a rope and tying it fast to the dock at Mason street in the South Fork.

SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP WILD CHERRY" cures the most severe coughs and colds, acts directly on the lungs, throat and chest, purifies the blood, and for bronchial, asthma, all pulmonary affections of long standing, it is the best remedy ever discovered. Boats, Bicycles and Hay Fever.

Nature has resolved that all the people are not to enjoy themselves at once. With the opening of the season of outdoor sports comes the time of trouble for the poor victims of Hay Fever. For them flowers have no odor, and the summer little or no beauty. To snuff-neeze and wipe their weeping eyes for three or four successive months—this is their pitiable portion. Whether this form of catarrh is called hay fever, hay cold, rose cold or rose fever, makes no difference; they suffer just the same. There is no help in sea voyages, there is no help in high mountain air. These only lighten the pocket and leave the disease unabated. But there is a positive cure in Ely's Cream Balm. We could cram these columns with grateful letters of the rescued. Try it and join them. If you continue to suffer it is because you neglect a remedy as sure as it is cheap and pleasant. je11-2wd&w

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters meets the requirements of the rational medical philosophy which at present prevails. It is a perfectly pure vegetable remedy, embracing the three important properties of a preventive, a tonic and an alterative. It fortifies the body against disease, invigorates and revitalizes the torpid stomach and liver, and effects a salutary change in the entire system.

NEVER FAILS.

SAMARITAN NERVINE.

"YOU CLAIM TOO MUCH for SAMARITAN NERVINE," says a skeptic. "How can one medicine be a specific for EPILEPSY, DYSPEPSIA, ALCOHOLISM, OPIUM EATING, RHEUMATISM, SPERMATORRHŒ, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS and fifty other complaints?" We claim it a specific, simply because the virus of all diseases arises from the blood. Its Nervine, Resolvent, Alterative, and Laxative properties meet all the conditions herein referred to. It's known world wide as

THE GREAT

Nerve Conqueror.

It quiets and composes the patient—not by the introduction of opiates and drastic cathartics, but by the restoration of activity to the stomach and nervous system, whereby the brain is relieved of morbid fancies, which are created by the causes above referred to.

To clergymen, Lawyers, Literary Men, Merchants, Bankers, Ladies, and all those whose sedentary employment causes nervous prostration, irregularities of the blood, stomach, bowels or kidneys, or who require a nerve tonic, appetizer or stimulant, SAMARITAN NERVINE is invaluable. Thousands proclaim it the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system. $1.50. Sold by all Druggists. The DR. S. A. RICHMOND MED. CO., Proprietors, St. Joseph, Mo.

WINDOW SCREENS.

We have made Wire Window Screens for the past four years, but there was always a serious objection: we could not get them up quick enough nor cheap enough. We have, however, overcome that, with our Patent Screen Frame, which enables us to fit up a Screen complete in from twenty to thirty minutes, and much lower in price. The Frames are made in Poplar and Walnut, and the sizes run from twenty three inches high up to thirty-five inches, and in width from thirty-eight inches down to 26 inches. Our Screens are put in the windows that you need not remove them in opening or closing the window or shutter. We have Landscape, Figured and Plain Wires, 26 in., 28 in., 30 in., 32 in., 34 in., and 36 in. A liberal discount to the trade,
