Death of Mrs James Cunningham.

The Harrisburg Patriot, of this morning contains the following notice of the death of Mrs. Mary Allen Cunringham. Both she and her husband have many relations and friends in Lancester, who will be greatly shocked and grieved to hear of her death.

"The wife of James Canningham, Mary Ailen, who was the only daughter of J. E. Allen, of this city, died at a late hour Sunday night after an illness of about one week at her parents' residence. She was young in years ; had only been married about a year, and her death occurring as it did has caused much sympathetic teeling among all who were in the least acquaicted with her. She was a well educated lady, of a pleasing disposition, made hosts of friends, and an earnest worker in the Pine street Presbyterian church of this city. Directly after her day. marriage she went to the home of her husband at Chihuahua, Mexico, but came home on a visit a few months ago. Her husband reached here on Monday last and has been constantly by her side. Her funeral will take place to day, and will be very largely attended."

Some New Cases Reported.

Mrs. Boneash, a white woman, living at 410 North street, is reported to be down with the varioloid. Two children and a boarder, who were in the same house have ing, and caught over three hundred fine been removed to safer quarters.

At No. 332 North street, it is reported that a German, named Henry Heinrich, is down with the smallpox in a lower room while his stepmother is suffering from the same discase in an upper room. The cases have been reported to Dr. Fitzpatrick, health commissioner, who reports that Heinrich has the smallpox and the woman erysipelas. The boy Marion who lived at Mrs. Raymond's, East Orange street, and who was taken to the hospital after her death, has row the confluent smallpox. A little girl named Sides, residing with her grandfather, F. A Albright, No. 337 West King street, opposite Carr's, is down with the smallpex.

A child at Alexander St. Clairs, 433 High stree', has had the smallpox for fourteen days but was not reported until last night.

There are rumors of one or more new cases in the Eighth ward, and also in the Sixth ward, near the park.

We were in error yesterday in stating that Joe Hinder was discharged from jai after having been cured of smallpox. He did not suffer from that disease ; he was in for drunken and disorderly conduct, discharged on expiration of sentence ; got drunk again, and is again in jail.

The board of health held a meeting last night at which the draft of an ordinance increasing their poweer was read. It will be presented for adoption at an early meeting of city conneils.

Singular Accident.

On Saturday evening about 7 o'clock Jno. Helman, of Lexington, this county, met with a singular and painful accident. He had in his hand a small stiff switch or whip, the little end of which he placed in his car. As he was passing out of John II.
