TUESDAY FVENING, JUNE 26, 1883,

AN AMERICAN ABROAD. Holding the Fort in a Foreign Saloon, A few weeks ago an American student who had but recently arrived in Heidelberg strayed into one of the teer halls of an evening and ordered a glass of beer He drank that, and then ordered a second and a third He noticed that the students who were grouped about the different tables had stopped drinking, and all had their eyes directed toward him, as if he was an intruder. When he called for his fourth glass one of the students came forward and told him to leave the hall. He was told by the American that he was aware that Germany was not decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, in as inuch as it will cure a common or Chronic Cough in one-halt the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, and show more cases of Consumption cured than all others. It will cure where they fall, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child and we guarantee what we say. Price, 10c., 50c. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore, Chest or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen street. was aware that Germany was not a free country, but that beer halls were free and he should stay. The German told him if he did not leave at once he would be put out. He was requested to 'try it on.' When the student went back for reenforcements the students quickly gathered up an armful of the thick, heavy earthen beer mug plates that were on several of the tables near, and barricated himself behind a heavy oak table in the corner of the hall. He also collected all the beer mugs and glasses that were not in use, and that he could speedily lay his hands on, then he drew around him two or three chairs to be ready for an emergency. It is said that for a minute or two he worked very lively. When eight or ten of the students rushed forward to carry out their threats there was a lively fight, which lasted for about ten minutes. The charge was met by volley after volley of plates, beer mugs and glasses, every one of which hit its mark and did its work. Two or three of the students jumped on the table and attempted to take the American by force of arms, but were laid out hors du combat by the oaken chairs, which proved admirable weapons of defense. The battle waxed warmer every moment. Fresh recruits took the places of the wounded as fast as they fell back for repairs The plates, mugs and glasses soon gave out and the barricade was demolished. Then the plucky American met his assailants face to face, with the odds fearfully against him. But he still maintained his ground and remained master of the situation. Fortu nately he was a scientific boxer, and when the students made another rush upon him they were met with what were to them new and unexpected weapons. Blows played out right and left from his shoulders with such lightning rapidity among the opposing forces that soon several were lying on the floor, and the others with-

Indianapolis Review. Two young ladies of Terre Haute were returning from California. The parlor car was crowded with passengers. At a a small station a woman in showy attire entered the car and demanded a whole section. It was not to be had, and the conductor, brakeman, porter and cook, who seemed to be impressed with the new passenger's importance, were all painfully exercised to know where to put her. The cause of all this commo tion was very blonde, very large, very richly clothed and very swell. When it seemed impossible to get her a whole section, or even half of one, she turned to the young ladies and said: "Will you consent to take the upper berth of your rection and let me have the lower?"

"Sorry we can't oblige you," replied one of the pink cheeked fairies; really we prefer to keep the lower berth

Then the big blonde straightened her self up, threw ineffable coatempt and im portance into her pale eyes and said 'Perhaps you don't know who I am?'

"No, we don't," replied the Terre Haute girl, in a tone of serene indifference. "I will tell you," said the woman of silk and jewels. "I am Mrs. Colone Duulevy Wickersham" (Danlevy Wick easham is known all along that end of the read as the bonanza man-bushels of money, so much that he needs nothing
