CHRISTIAN UNION.

A PLEA FOR NON-SECTARIANISM.

Four Protestant Denominations Enough—The Reformation of the 19th Century.

—A Plea for Church Union.

In the current number of the Reformed Church Quarterly, Rev. C. Z. Weiser, D. D., has an article on Christian Union, which he opens with d'Arbigny's sentiment: "The union of all true Christians—this is the Reformation of the 19th century," and concludes as follows: "However strong the bonds and fetters of sectarianism may be, passion has ever proven able to snap them as quickly as a scythe the wheat. Why should not charity, then, be able to remove the mountains which stand in the way of Christian union? True, religion allied with prejudice forms an adamantine chain; but it is gratifying to know that many souls, good and true, possess religion without the alloy. And such spirits who realize a pure and unalloyed mind of Christ are the hope for a universal church?"

An intelligent, successful, aged and religious merchant of Philadelphia, one of the members of the Reformed Church, Protestantism could and ought to be reduced down to four principal denominations—Episcopal, Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist. In this, he maintained, all complexions of the Reformed Church, might sink into their several fundamental colors. We reproduce his original idea, not so much for the purpose of endorsing his orthodoxy, but merely to prove that there is some thinking done on the subject of Christian Union by intelligent laymen. We verily believe that the Christian Unity, were an opportunity afforded to voice itself, would vote to change the ecclesiastical archipelago into some four great continents, and that a Reformed man, an Episcopal rector, who received his training at Yale and has developed into a learned and well informed divine, by years of diligent and conscientious study, once spoke spontaneously in the privacy of calling a convocation of all adherents of the various denominations, who believe in the objective elements of Christianity, in an educational religion, sacramental, and a liturgical cultus. He then closed, in this way, the hope of opening the door to a household, under which many might be enfolded from all the flocks now scattered over the Christian plain; whilst a counter flocking might be expected, on the part of those who consider themselves as a distinct and separate people. And to show his willingness to concede his full part towards such a confederation, he spoke of his readiness to accept the Heidelberg extension as a common basis of doctrine. He spoke solely of himself, and with there we consider the pan utopian or not, the spirit of the man betrays a restlessness and dissatisfaction under the dual sect system which seems to us absolutely refreshing. And the same sentiment found ready echo from the lips of a saint and venerable Lutheran clergyman—a Lutheran of Lutheran. He alluded to his confession; his readiness to sacrifice the name of Lutheran even, and to adopt the original Protestant title Evangelical.

To be sure, it will be said, that these men are not of the inner ranks of theologians. Hold! They are. And were they not, we have yet to learn that the series of old had ever proven themselves as a friendly competitor on the way towards fraternity. We may hesitatingly expect the trumpet call to emanate from the pulpit, rather than from the cloister or the lecture hall. Hence a more frequent association of pastors, a walking together, a frequent interchange of views which are common, could not but prove the occasion to an abandonment of ways that are peculiar and things that are vain. The locks would follow and obey the voice of the Silesian—rather than the voice of their own learning; to the contrary notwithstanding.

When the various denominations marshal their convocations, conferences, synods and synods in annual seasons, one is vividly reminded of the Bassano has, each body speaking in proceedings before the world as boldly and independent as though it were the only organization in existence. Even an exchange of delegates is done away with, lest by such a friendly opportunity of meeting, might be afforded to the uninitiated to think a centripetal tendency had set in, which would eventually unite all into one. As it is written, "the Jews and the Samaritans had no communication." But after an adjournment, all set about praying for the conversion of Pagans, Mahomedans and Jews, and the housing of all Christians in one fold of the one Shepherd. That the ministers from heaven should be able to endure such contradictions against themselves is simply marvellous. It is possible for some to see a beauty in the "variations" of Protestantism; but surely there is none whatever to be discerned in its contradictions. Caesar continues to flout his banner before our eyes, and the Reformed church endorses its reverse Re Uio Plures. But this is only another continuation of the assertion, that "the children of this world are wise" than the children of light. On the hand and liberal platform of some well-meaning gospel, as it is expressed in the primitive creed, all Protestant Christians could happily and comfortably stand together, and be known as Antioch under the name of Christians.

THE TRADE DOLLAR WAR.
A Panic Among Holders in New York—Brokers' Offices Besieged by Sellers. New York dispatch to the Times. The war on the trade dollar continues vigorously. It is difficult to pass them anywhere. It was reported to-day that the city government had been passing off trade dollars in quantities on the laborers. At the city paymaster's office it was said that the bureau of city revenues and markets had received trade dollars, which had been paid out to employees of the city government until Monday last, when objection was made to them. Since then the paymaster had neither received nor paid out any more of them. The city government was buying trade dollars to-day at from 85 to 90 cents a coin. The higher price was paid by the uptown brokers, who quickly dropped the price as soon as they learned that the Wall Street dealers were not offering more than 87. The dealers outside of the street were overwhelmed with settlers. Several Wall Street bullion brokers bought large quantities of the coins at 87, but many dealers refuse to pay more than 85 cents, the price at which the silver can be profitably sold for smelting purposes. A good many were offered at the sub-treasury, where the sellers were informed that the only way the government could receive them was at a bullion at the assay office. It is understood that the brokers who buy them largely do so with the expectation that the government will redeem them. It is rumored in the street that the present raid against the coin has been inspired by a syndicate that has undertaken a speculation in them, based upon the belief that the government will redeem them at par. It is estimated that there are not over $5,000,000 of the trade dollar in the country.

The Grave of Francis Scott Key.
W. W. Corcoran, the banker and philanthropist, has received a letter from a resident of Frederick, Md., asking if he could not give his aid and mine to a movement for the erection of a statue, or other enduring memorial, to Francis Scott Key, author of the "Star Spangled Banner." The writer says the grave of Key occupies a neglected spot in the cemetery at Fredericktown, and is in a sadly neglected condition, being nearly hid by noxious weeds and overgrown bushes. Nothing but a headstone twenty four inches high and twenty inches broad marks the poet's resting place. The bones of his wife and child lay beside him.

A Church Difference.
The vestry of the Ascension (Ritualistic) church, of Chicago, last evening adopted a letter prepared by a committee addressed to Bishop McLean, upon the misunderstanding existing between the bishop and the rector, Rev. Father Ritchie. It professes fealty to the church and bishop, but asserts that the ritual of the church of the Ascension is in strict accordance with the latest action of the church and child of the bishop, if he thinks otherwise, for failing to visit the church and instruct the parish as to its errors. It is believed that this letter is one step toward an open rupture between the parish and the diocese.

MEDICAL.

CUTICURA.

Skin Diseases.

Fifteen Years of Suffering—Body Covered with Humors—Bad Twelve Doctors—Paid Out $500—No Cure—No Hope. I will now state that I made a miraculous cure of one of the worst cases of skin disease known. The patient is a man forty years old; his disease was a severe form of eczema, and nearly his whole body presented a frightful appearance, but the attending physician, after twelve different physicians, who prescribed the best remedies known to the profession, such as iodine, potassium, arsenic, and other sublimate, sarsaparilla, etc. Had paid $600 for medical treatment, with but little relief. I prevailed upon him to use CUTICURA. He did so, and was completely cured. The skin on his head, face, and many other parts of his body, which presented a most loathsome appearance, is now as soft and smooth as an infant's, and no scar or trace of the disease left behind. He has now been cured twelve months. Reported by H. BROWN, Esq., Barnwell, S. C. Reference, Dr. H. BASS, Charleston, S. C.

Helpless for Eight Years—Unable to Walk for One Year—Got About on Hands and Knees—A Wonderful Cure. I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms and hands; I was unable to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies, and none did the least good. The doctors said my case was incurable. Some physicians tried to walk on the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely cured. I can walk, and I think you must be heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me, and find out for themselves. WILL M. DONALD, No. 242 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

The Outbreak Treatment, for the cure of Skin, Scalp and Blood Diseases, consists in the internal use of CUTICURA RESOLVER, the new Blood Purifier, and the external use of CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, the Great Skin Cures. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents. CUTICURA SHAVING SOAP, 15 cents. Sold by all druggists.

BENSON'S CAPSINE PAIN'S PLASTER'S

HOME COMFORT

After a Rainy Ride a Country Physician Tells What He Thinks of Some People.

"I wish to gracious some people would learn when they need a doctor and when they don't," exclaimed Doctor E., "as he entered his house in a cosy little village in the interior of the State of New York, after a tedious night ride of many miles. "I have been down among the mount tins to see a man, who the messenger said, was very sick and not likely to live 'til morning, unless he had immediate help; and found him suffering from a rather sharp attack of colic, which his family might have relieved in ten minutes, if they had a grain of sense and two or three simple remedies in the house. But no; they remain ignorant as pigs, and when at the least ache or pain takes them, send for a doctor, whether they ever pay him or not."

"Why, Doctor, what kind of simple remedies, as you call them, do you expect people to keep in the house?" asked his wife, as she poured him a cup of hot tea.

"In this case," answered the Doctor, "if they had only put a BENSON'S CAPSINE PAIN'S PLASTER on the man's stomach, he would have been all right in an hour, and saved me a dreary ride."

In all ordinary complaints it cures at once. All diseases are eliminated from the system by what may be roughly called extraction, or by a union of the two processes. Benson's Plaster promotes both. It lutes the torpid organs to act, and sends its healing, soothing influence through the myriad pores of the skin. All other plasters obliged the patient to wait. They give him hope for to-morrow. Benson's plaster give him help to-day. Which is better do you think? Buy the CAPSINE and keep it in the house. Price 25 cents.
