The firemen were promptly on the ground and succeeded in saving the property from destruction, although great damage was done to the large stock of flour and grain on hand by the water. The fire occurred on the third floor, and is believed to have been caused by the hot journal of some shafting. The owners of the establishment are at present unable to estimate

The Trade Dollar, Nearly every business place in town refuses to take the trade dollar. The First and Columbia national banks refuse to take them at any discount, and E. K. Smith & Co.'s bank will only pay 85 cents for them, and reluctantly take them at that rate. L. W. May and Mr. Bachenheimer are among the very few business men who will take them at their par value. Much excitement has been created by the depreciation in value of these

RAILEGAD ACCIDENT, M. V. II. Keller Loses a Log

Gen. L'eintzleman post, G A. R, No. 300, organized in January, at Manhoim, has been holding for some days past, and will continue for a few days to come to hold an encampment and festival in Kauffman's park, at Manheim, the object being partly to raise money to pay the expenses they have been at in organizing the post, and partly as a matter of recreation. They have more than a dozen large bazaar, where visitors may find all kinds small admission fee is charged all visitors, except old soldiers, who are admitted free and furnished gratis with a plate of army bean soup. The encampment has been quite a success, and many citizens and comrades from several neighboring points have paid the camp a visit. The Heintz clman post is composed of live material, and though it is the youngest in the county, it is better uniformed and equipped than any of the older ones.

Yesterday M. V. B. Keller, a clerk in the county recorder's office, accompanied by several other members of George II. Thomas post 84, G. A. R., went on the railroad excursion from this city to visit the encampment. After speading a few hours very pleasantly with their comrades at the camp, the Lancaster party started for the railroad station, about 5 o'clock to return home. Seeing the train for Reading moving away from the station, Mr. Keller mistook it for the Lancaster train, and ran at full speed to get aboard it. He siezed the hand rail of the car and tried to jump upon the steps, but in doing so was thrown heavily to the ground with his right leg across the rail. Instantly the car wheels passed over it crushing the flesh and bones of the foot and ankle to a jelly. He was taken in charge by his comrades, and Dr. Duniap was summoned. The doctor seeing that amputation would be necessary, ordered the patient to be laid upon a settee, placed in the car and taken ome. Dr. Daulap accompanied him to Lancaster, and after he had reached his home in East Vine street the leg was amputated a few inches below the knee by Drs. Dunlap and M. L. Herr.

Mr. Keller has been doubly unfortunate. Just twenty one years ago, when serving as a soldier in the First Pounsylvania Re serves, he was shot through the right elbow at the battle of the New Market Cross roads, by which he was crippled for life, the elbow joint and the bones for some distance above and below it having been cut out by the surgeons, thus saving the use of the hand, but render ing the arm limber and comparatively helpless. After being shot Mr. Keller was taken prisoner and remained in Libby prison from July to September 1862. His many friends in this city sincerely sympa thize with him in this later misfortune.

Interesting addresses were made 11 to 5. The game was well played by Rev. [Geo. W. Seilhamer, H. C. Moore, throughout, only four errors being made by the Seniors and six by the Juniors. enough to beat the Fishers our boys will play them, the winning club to take all the gate receipts. If that will not make the game interesting enough the York club and their friends are prepared to offer additional inducements to the win ners of a game. Of course if the Ironsides cannot win in a game with the Duncannon club it will not be worth while for the York club to trifle with them, and the latter will challenge the Fishers, in which case some of our junior clubs will accommodate the Ironsides." THE TRADE DOLLAR.

The Opposition to it Reaches Lancaster The panic, started in New York a few days ago, relative to the trade dollar, reached Lancaster on Saturday and caused considerable excitement among all classes of people. Almost everyone agreed that it was a shame that the United States of America should lend its name and its motto, and issue from its mints a coin purporting to be a dollar, and which, nevertheless, did not possess the merit of being a legal tender. And almost everyone declared that it was supremely ridiculous that a silver coin weighing 420 grains, 900 fine, should be worth only 85 cents, while another silver coin issued from the same mint, weighing only 4121 grains, 900 fine, should be a legal tender for 100 cents. The general impression appeared to be that the scare was got up by speculators in New York for the purpose of fleecing the banks, and that after they have been sufficiently shorn, the praises of the trade dollar will be loudly sung and the sharks will unload them upon the public at par. A few of our tradesmen refused to take them on Saturday at par, but they were very generally received for their face value. Some of the banks, however, gave their customers notice that they would not hereafter receive or issue them. This morning they received from their regular customers at par all the trade dollars they took in on Saturday, but will not receive those taken in since Saturday night. The Farmers, the County and the First national bank will hold all they have on hand until the storm blows over, or until relief is given by Coogress. They advise their tion. They have more than a dozen large customers, who can do so, to hold on to tents exceeded, one of which is used as a the trade dollar rather than suffer a shave. The Fulton bank, which received and issued use or ornament there offered for sale. A the trade dollar at par up to Saturday, will, until further notice, receive them at 85 cents. The private bankers will, for the present, receive them on deposit at 85 cents and pay them out at 85 to those who have deposited them or will buy and sell them at 85 cents. Reed, McGrann & Co.

> took them at par to day. The refusal of the banks to take them at par has had the effect generally to cause a repudiation of them to day by dealers throughout the city, but Givler & Co., and others advertise in our columns that they will receive the trade dollar at par for goods. Some other large houses refuse to take them for the present at more than 85 cents. The county officers refuse to take them at all for fees. Many of the saloons, cab drivers, railroad offices, postal authorities, etc., refuse them.

> On Saturday the city police and the fire department were paid their month's salaries almost exclusively in trade dollars. To-day they are cursing the city treasurer for giving them 85 cent pieces for $1.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY. Interesting Exercises at Neffsville.

The second anniversary of the Neffsville Union Sunday school took place yesterday afternoon. The church in which the celebration was held was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreen, and crowded to overflowing with children and adults. The exercises opened with the singing of the "Beautiful Valley of Eden' by the school, with organ accompaniment by Prof. F. W. Haas and cornet accom paniment by Mr. Halbach. The 103d psalm was read by Dr. E. H. Witmer, superintendent of the school, and a prayer was offered by Rev. G. W. Seilhamer, of the Bethel, this city. Superintendent Wittner read the second annual report of the school, from which it appears that the officers of the school are ten in number, five males and five females. There are eighteen teachers, ten males and eight females; one hundred and sixty-three scholars, of whom seventy-seven are males and eighty six females. The average attendance during the past year was one hundred and sixteen, and the number of visitors during the year, two thousand eight hundred and nivety-fonr. There was one death during the year. Twenty members of the school were present every Sunday, and as a reward for their attendance each was presented with a Bible. The amount of money received was $227.21; the balance in the treasury, 13.74.

At the conclusion of the superintend ent's report there was more music school. Interesting addresses were made and D. S. Bursk, all of this city. The vocal and instrumental music was excellent throughout, and afforded much gratification to all present.

Following are the names of members present during the year ending June, 883 : Annie Hoffman, Annie Widmyer, Lizzie Wagaman, Mrs. Widmyer, Barbara Burkhard, Clara Hess, Annio Reidenbaugh, Annie Amer, Samuel Widmyer. Albert Gruber, Harry Gloss, Phares Geltz, Samuel Roth, Samuel Shaub, Willio Gloss, John Roth, Geo. Wagaman, Willie Shaeffer, Harry M. Illyas.

THE PRISON. Meeting of Inspectors To-day,

The prison inspectors held their regular monthly meeting this morning in the law office of Charles Sproul esq., their solici tor. A number of bills were presented and approved. A gentleman from Pittsburgh, who represents a pump firm there, was before the board and proposed to dig a well and put up pumping apparatus at the prison for $300, and for $500 he would put up one that he would insure. No action was taken in the matter. The commutation of the sentence of Joseph Groff was disallowed. Groff was sentenced in April, 1879, to five years impris onment for burglary, and if the commutation was allowed his term would be up July 24 next. Groff was a member of the gang who broke jail last year. He was recaptured and will now have to serve his

President Gowen Asks for the Vacation of TRENTON, N. J., July 2.-President Gowen, of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company made application in the United States circuit court to-day for the vacation of the injunction of Saturday last granted on the application Wm. R. Dinsmore, of New York city, to restrain the Central railroad company from paying over further money to the Philadelphia & Reading company. Pending the final hearing on a rule to show cause why the lease of the former by the latter company should not be annulled, Mr. Gowen called attention to the relentless struggle waged between the Pennsylvania and Central roads for the past two years and Gowen, of the Philadelphia & Read Central roads for the past two years, and charged that "the present injunction was asked merely to cripple the Reading company's finances and for stock gambling purposes." He said "all the money on hand was required to discharge the interest and rentals due to day, and if the injunction stands it might result in great washed. injunction stands it might result in great damage to widows, employes and other poor people merely to satisfy a miserable clique of stock gamblers." Mr. Gowen stated that, if necessary, security would be given that the revenue of the Central railroad should be used only for actual People's Passenger. expenses until the rule to show cause is argued. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MUNDAY-PAIR AND WARNER.

"But he's so awfully particular. Very agreeable, and all that, but if things ain't just so, you'll not hide it from him. He knows what's what, you may be sure. I don't mind having company, but I want them to take things as they come. I'm always afraid of these particular folks; you can't take things easy.

"Well, I do declare! I don't like folks at my table who don't know a doughy biscuit from one light as a snowflake! People who eat what you give them, as though food was just meant to fill up and clothes only to keep one warm. The nicest thing a good housekeeper can make are wasted on such people. They don't know what's what. They 'don't like to give trouble' and 'want to see you take it easy.' Just as if one hadn't any pride! Pshaw! I've no patience with 'em! No, no; I dote on particular people." They were both housekeepers, of two sorts, as you have seen. Moral: We take pride in trying to be good housekeepers. Our house is large, as you know, but not larger, than the hospitality we cordially extend to you, our guests, who honor us with your presence. We bring out the best our storerooms afford, gathered from the choicest markets of the world, and ask you to the "spread." Naught is too good to offer you, naught is accounted a trouble. "Particular" people are particularly invited; we "dole on them," they are our best friends. They keep us wide awake and up to the mark! Don't you think we all take pride in hearing you say: "We wanted it just so, and after a deal of trouble were just suited here." The harder to please you are, the better pleased we are to please you.

JOHN WANAMAKER. We touched on "bargains" a day or two ago, but did not say they were just shaking out the straw from some novelties in the China Department, you must try not fail to see. You remember the rich cut-glass-say an ice cream dish, for instance, in Russian cutting. You'll remember it well if you carelessly break one, as a friend did, an had to replace it—only $23.00! Here is a copy of the same and very handsome for $1.25. Fruit, Berry Dishes, &c., as well. Breakages don't ruffle the temper half so much at that price.

An Adjustable Plated Handle will hold a berry dish of any size; much safe and readier in passing than grasping the dish's edge, 75 cents.

Another novelty are the Canary-colored Glass Dishes for fruit, &c. Beautiful and very low, 50 cents each. Leaves to match, for cream and berries, only$1.25.
