HOW TO PREACH.

Small Illustrations to be used in the Pulpit.

An address judgment is beginning to appear in reference to the use of incident or story in the sermon, and as action and reaction are equal we may expect as much hostility to it in the incoming fashion of preaching as has been shown to it that going out.

The style of preaching at any time is shaped by a few heads of the profession. They become, both because of intellect and position, the models for the imitation of the young. This is inevitable.

The illustrative method of preaching has prevailed largely in the last quarter of a century. The great preachers have not argued as much and as closely as those in the last age. The modern preacher's work has rather been to throw light on dim truths, or to magnify the truth in them.

Hence more attention has been given to deepening impressions and rendering them more effectively their teachings. The men of this age have conceived their mission to be that of harvesting, and while this is esteemed as the end to be attained, it is not to be attained by the use of incident in the pulpit.

There is but one "skin cure" which can be relied on, and that is Dr. Benson's, and its name is a earnest of its worth. It is not a patent medicine, but the result of his own experience and practice, and is a sure cure for the special diseases for which it is offered. It takes the skin soft and white and smooth, removing tan and freckles, and is the best toilet preparation in the world. It is elegantly put up, two bottles in one package, consisting of both internal and external treatment. Simple in its combination, pure and free from all poisons, it may be relied upon by all those who wish to have perfect health and freedom from all skin diseases of whatever nature, whether they are: Eczema, Tetter, Itch, Scald Head, Ringworm, Pimples, or tender feelings on any part of the body. Price, One Dollar per package. All druggists have it for sale.

A Revolution in the treatment of nervous diseases is now taking place. Dr. C. W. Benson, of Baltimore, many years ago discovered a sure remedy in his Colery and Chamomile Pills which have not a wonderful sale and success. They can be relied on to permanently cure sick and nervous headache, neuralgia, dyspepsia, sleepless and all nervous diseases. All druggists keep them. Price, 50 cents per box. Two boxes for $1.00, free by mail on receipt of price. Dr. C. W. Benson, Baltimore, Md.

C. N. Crittendon, of New York, is a well-known agent for Dr. C. W. Benson's Pills, and is located at 163-165 N. 2nd St.

There will be some advantages in the change. The domestic style will require less labor. Ornamentation for effect is expensive, and ton can work on Domic models to one on the elaborate Corinthian; and to a certain class of minds, hearts and tastes the severe style will be more effective.

To the young thoughtless and ignorant the beauty of icebergs in moonlight would be as convincing. The want of variety will be felt, as a means of drawing attention and impression.

Besides, this style has had but a limited hold on the mind and emotions of men. A diamond is known by its crystalline structure, its proportions and its brilliancy; but the final test of the genuineness of a diamond is its coldness. It is too transparent to get warm. The style of dress in the transmission of human thought which will ever be most potent in the pulpit must produce heat, quicker pulsations and warmer blood. The great classic orators did not spurn the fable and story when it served their purpose. Demosthenes and Cicero drew from their quick and most telling effects through their use.

The reaction was now indicated above is easily explained and has been expected by those who are fond of forecasting the future. The illustrative style has been abused—it has been fostered in a hot house and has become a scandal. The sermon, with not a few, has been a stringing together of the irrelevant, the improbable and the untrue. The odor of the dead has been perceptible in the pot of ornament, and the disease has been perceptibly made manifest for the sale of the story. The illustration has been the foundation and head of the error, and the impressions left have been only from the story. These had not strength enough to take into the soul a single truth or the faintest truth. This thing is doomed, and the sooner it is buried, the better. That the illustrative method will give way to the logical and logical method, now placed in some quarters, in the interests of what is called pure and elegant diction, fit for the pulpit, is nonsense. We might as well taboo the tropics. Whatever convinces the minds of men and turns their hearts to God is fit for the pulpit and is classic enough for God's favor and "will stand the test of no man call common or unclear."

THE PROFESSION A UNIT.

Mr. C. H. DRAKER, of No. 23 1/2 Main Street, Worcester, Mass., volunteers the following:

"Having occasion recently to use a remedy for kidney disease, I applied to Dr. J. E. Rote, and requested him to furnish me the best kidney medicine that he knew of, and he handed me a bottle of Hunt's Remedy, stating that it was the best he had seen, and he had sold many bottles of it to his customers in Worcester, and they all speak of it in the highest terms, and praise it as always reliable. I took the bottle home and commenced taking it, and find that it does the work effectually; and I am pleased to recommend to all who have kidney or liver disease the use of Hunt's Remedy, the sure cure."

April 11, 1883.

WE ALL SAY SO.

Mr. GEORGE W. HAZARD, No. 167 Front Street, Worcester, Mass., has just sent us the following directly to the point:

"Being afflicted with ailments to which all humanity is subject sooner or later, I read carefully the advertisement regarding the remarkable curative powers of Hunt's Remedy, and as it seemed to apply to my own case exactly, I purchased a bottle of the medicine at January's drug store in this city, and having used it with most beneficial results in my own case, my wife and son also commenced its use, and it has most decidedly improved their health, and we shall continue its use in our family under such favorable results."

DRUGGIST'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. GEORGE W. HAZARD, druggist, 129 and 131 Congress Street, Troy, N. Y., writes April 7, 1883:

"I am constantly selling Hunt's Remedy for diseases of the kidney, liver, bladder, and urinary organs, to my trade and friends, and find that it gives general satisfaction to all who use it."

J. E. ROTE, druggist, 127 and 129 North Queen Street.

HUNT'S REMEDY FOR SALE AT H. H. COCHRAN'S DRUG STORE, 127 and 129 North Queen Street.

"My Grandfather's Sock."

Was once a very popular song, but like many other sentimental songs, it has worn out. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will wear out. It will wear out all aches, sprains, and pains, and every ill that afflicts a human being. For sale by H. H. Cochran, druggist, 127 and 129 North Queen Street.

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen of this vicinity known to every one as a most influential citizen and a Christian minister of the M. E. Church, this morning stopped in our store to say: "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Shulz's Consumption Cure. It is giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of Lung Disease, such as nothing else has done."
