the pain is tell under the Shoulder-blade, mis-taken for Rheumatism; general loss of appe-tile. Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considera-ble loss of memory, accompanied with a pain-ful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an at-tendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin ex-ists; spirits are low and despondent, and although satisfied that exercise would be ben-eficial, yet one can hardly summon up forti-tude to try it—in fact distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after ceata has shown the Liver to have been ex-tensively deranged. Philadelphia. This is an age of questioning. Man seems to be possessed with a spirit of questioning and the interrogation point is abroad ; nothing is exempt from the question from the Christian religion to the story of the hatchet. Nothing now escapes the observance of man as he asks about everything. The child is an exag-gerated interrogation point. He then spoke of his success at co-education of the sexes, which 17 years ago was cried down, and which was now so thoroughly suc cessful, and the Millersville school has emonstrated that co-education is the only thorough plan of the acquisition of knowledge. He wished to infuse into the school a desire to noble attainments. But it needed more than mere book knowledge, and he has ever endeavored to create and sustain social and religious principles in the school. In religious instruction the character and life of the great teacher were observed, and in all his efforts as teacher was the desire to establish honorable and noble standing in the scholars. During the past 17 years the aggregate number of students amounts to over 13,000, of whom 6,000 were teachers, over 100 have been teachbeen or are county or city superintendents, over 20 are practicing physicians, about 115 are lawyers, and many more expect to be, 15 preachers, and 7 or 8 are missionaries
