UN BARBARY CUAST.

The Dail Season for the Lawyers. The idle season has fallen upon Barbary Coast. Such as the lawyers' offices as have not been vacated by their tenants are oc-cupied by briefless and clientless barristers whose sole occupation is driving the flies from their bald heads. While they—the lawyers—shift their chairs with the advance of the sun, the old ones en-tertain the younger members of the bar with reminiscences of the earlier generation of counsellors. One of the stories, related this morning at an informal meeting of the bar association, told of a former professional and political leader of the Lancaster bar who became involved in an altercation with the sheriff and was knocked down by that official in open court. Associate Justice Lightner, who was on the bench, as soon as the row began cried out to all present with judicial impartiality for "fair play down there." President Judge Franklin, who was presiding, recognizing his duty to maintain the dignity of the court, and also the delicacy of his responsibility in punishing the offenders, called out to know whether or not court had adjourned when this occurrence began;" and, nem con., decided that the court had adjourned and therefore no cognizance of it need be taken by the tribunal.

Bausman & Burns are the agents, and they are issuing p dieles much more rapidly than they . id last year.

RESCUED FROM DEATH The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WEDNESDAY-FAIR AND SLIGHTLY

Children's chairs in bent wood have been removed to roomier quarters with the rest of the Southwestern road at 2 o'clock this Bohemian stock in the northeast corner. Is it any exaggeration to say the display of summer seats and baby carriages in this section now covers half an acre? Surely a thousand of our audidience this morning could rest here in the lawn settees, rustic seats, wicker chairs, hammock chairs, folding chairs and-but we started to tell you of Bohemian bent wood seats, the latest novelty in this restful kind of goods. They are unique, beautiful and strong—strangely strong as you'll easily see. People open their eyes wide with surprise when told these are only "samples." A gentleman ordered several dozen, but he'll have to wait. We cabled yesterday for 200 more of the same pattern. The towel racksyou'll admire for the graceful serpentine curves of the ends, rising from the floor and returning to Lower floor, northeast corner.

The Palmetto Lawn Tennis are pitched here in this angle we're talking about. Must we tell you it's fun to get under a tent with the green, cool carpet under you? Don't think it's dignified, eh? Here, take a seat under this Wall Tent. It's the kind we used to see our attorney general use, year after year, on the side lawn of Howland's at Long Branch.

Small Tent, 7 feet high, 7 feet square, $7.00. Adult's Tent, 10 feet high, 10 feet square, $10.00. Wedge, or A tent, $10.00. Wall Tent, $20.00. Wall Tent, with Fly, $27.50.

Tents supplied to camping parties and camp-meetings of Senor Dominguez, among any size—yes, let it stand—give us the size of your meeting and we'll make the tent the right "size." But this don't mean

And on the same lawn here are the automatic swings, just outside the tent door. If the tents hurt your dignity, the swings would break it all up. You might put it to vote with the children "To swing or not to swing?" There's no climbing and "putting up." They have their own frame work. Garden Swings, 7 feet high, $ 9 00. Garden Swings, 10 feet high, 12,60 Garden Swings, 2 feet high, 15 00. Lower floor, northeast corner. JOHN WANAMAKER.

Remnants of Linen will be cleared off of our counters this morning. They are perfect goods, the overplus in filling a large order requiring 1,100 yards of sheeting. They are of different grades and from a yard to six yards each and 2 to 23/4 yards wide. We should say about 300 pieces in the lot; not more.

Besides the all-silk and wool robes which the ladies are taking off from our shelves every day at the drop from $6 to $4.50 we will only name here at reductions: A Frenct all-wool melange, pinhead stripe and eneck effects, in old gold and blue, a bronze hue, 42 taches wide, from 75 to 50 cents. A Go samer, pinhead check, in a variety of shades, 42 inches wide, from 75 to 50 cents.

As the name implies, this is very light, serviceable in color, and we think, but can't promise, is unaffected by saline moisture. Real midsummer stuff for suitings.

Gentlemen know the furnishing stock from our own factory is always good (yes, that's strong, but not too strong), but some- , times 'tis better that good, and three new styles of make in suspenders claim this distinction to-day. One is in the Princeton colors and the others are in delicate contrasts of buff and blue, &c.; all two colors only and with strong silk ends in front and a new pivotal arrangement. Price, $1.00.

A lot of Black Surah Silks came in recently, and we sell them to-day, same quality as we have sold in 231/2-inch widths; we now can sell 26 inches wide for a dollar a yard. A most pleasing costume is the Surah Silk for summer wear. Silk counter, from Thirteenth street, second
