

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Events Along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and Around the Borough Picked up by the Intelligence Reporter.

Anna Parker, colored woman, was made the object of an attempted murder on Saturday night about 9 o'clock. She was walking on 5th street with several other colored women...

Mr. John Walker, the top man at the St. Charles furnace, was overcome with heat from the furnace on Saturday about 11 a. m. He was discovered in an insensible condition by one of the furnace men.

Mr. Edwin A. Snyder, of Pennsylvania railroad crew No. 41, was struck on the head by a piece of lumber which protruded from a lumber car of a passing train...

Mr. Harry Gibert was struck by two stones thrown by some unknown person, while walking on 3rd street last night.

Mr. Will Shuman, a former Columbian but now of Philadelphia, was in town on Saturday. The Misses Myra and Mattie Conard, of Philadelphia, are the guests of their sister Mrs. James Perrotte, on Third street.

The 21 brigade, N. G. P., to which company C. is attached, will camp at Williamsport between August 20 and 27, leaving this place on the morning of the 20th.

A steer had its back broken on Saturday evening by falling over the side of a hill in front of the toll gate on the Maricetta turnpike.

The United Brethren picnic will be held at Lititz on Tuesday, July 17, the Trinity Reform and S. S. John's on Wednesday, July 18 and the E. E. Lutheran on Thursday, July 19.

The Riverside baseball club and a pick-up nine from the Susquehanna rolling mill employees had a match game on Saturday afternoon.

The Public School No. 27, Ladies' Home Commission, meets tonight. The lodge will hold a dancing picnic in Hise's wood's next Saturday.

A little son of Mr. Wm. Conners was nearly run over by a double decker car front street on Saturday evening.

Frank Mitchell was sent to the county jail by Supt. Frank this morning for a violation of the license law.

The Pennsylvania railroad pay car was late today.

Dr. Fitzpatrick the health officer, announces ten new cases of smallpox and varioloid to day as follows: Gertrude Decker, infant, aged 11 months, 522 West Chestnut street, nearly pock, light case.

Mary Cloney, 343 East Clinton street, aged 4 years, light case of varioloid.

Lucey Hulsper, 36 West Strawberry street, aged 15 years, light case of smallpox.

Mrs. Mary Gast, 420 1/2 Manor street, smallpox, light.

Theodore Strabir, aged 14 years; Chas. Strabir, aged 7 years, and Lizzie Strabir, aged 10 years, all residing at 342 Strawberry street, smallpox, one or two on a partly developed. Will be sent to the hospital.

Irene Hart, aged 11 years, 31 West Strawberry street, smallpox.

Lizzie Wender, aged 12 years, residing at 467 Manor street, varioloid.

Sylvester Martin, aged 4 years, residing at 247 West Strawberry street, and 1 pock.

All the above premises have been quarantined and the floors have been plastered with lime. Last evening one of the red flags were pulled down, but the health commissioner promptly replaced them.

There have been 70 cases of smallpox and varioloid since the epidemic broke out on August 1st. Of this number 17 originated in the jail, 2 in the hospital and 53 in different parts of the city.

None of the whole number there were 12 deaths; 25 patients recovered, and 25 are still in the hospital and showing a very fair chance that they will recover, there being only three cases that are regarded as serious.

Neither councils nor the county commissioners have as yet taken any effective means to prevent the spread of the disease, and our authorities, except our prison keeper, council and commissioner, are doing their duty in the first place we would have had no smallpox in Lancaster today.

Some of our business men complain that the newspapers, by giving publicity to the facts in the case of the epidemic, injure their business, as people from the country are kept out of town from fear of the contagion. This may be so, but the owners and printers should remember that it is the business of the newspapers to tell the truth about matters proper for public information.

Go and See Them. Six 'night blooming cereus' will open this evening at Major C. M. Howell's.

MISS BARTON MADE MRS. TUNISON.

Her Watchful Aunt Got Rid of at the Very Last Possible Moment.

The elopement of B. C. Tunison, a young lawyer of Jersey City, with Miss Belle Barton of York, Pa., was made public yesterday. Mr. Tunison is the eldest son of the Rev. Mr. Tunison, for many years the presiding officer of the Jersey City district of the Methodist church.

Mr. John Walker, the top man at the St. Charles furnace, was overcome with heat from the furnace on Saturday about 11 a. m. He was discovered in an insensible condition by one of the furnace men.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MONDAY—FAIR AND COOLE.

To those who are familiar with the appointments of our department for Ladies' Suits nothing need be said. Strangers ought to know, however, that they will find the upper floor of one our Chestnut street buildings quite devoted to the convenience of lady visitors, comprising drawing and robing rooms, and especially the mirror room, three sides of which reflect the entire figure from every point and afford all that can be desired in "fitting" or "trying on".

The adjoining floors contain in glass cases the made-up dresses in so varied sizes that, at the most, only a trifling adjustment may be needed to insure a satisfactory result in the fitting.

A leading material for summer wear and for all occasions is in Nun's Velling, either in or out of mourning, complete, $25. A better article, $30 and $24. A full line of Cashmere, a more expensive material, the dress complete, $10 and $23. Black Silk Dresses, well-trimmed, $25, $23, $40, $45 and $50.

We noticed a couple of figured Silk Gowns on hand, reduced just one-half; new

SUMMER SILK DRESS. Silk-trimmed, new goods, either in or out of mourning, $10, $15 and $20. A small lot of plain Silks in colors, $4. A very pretty Dress set for this summer and lavender street

A few imported silks in velvet trimming, $35. A line of medium fabrics for summer or fall, $10 and $15. Oxford Waists, in blue, gray and garnet, a light woolen fabric, $5 and $12. Same with basque, $9 and $12. A line of better quality, in light weight, $15 and $25.

A LINE OF WA-H-H GOODS EMBRACES: White Dresses, in three pieces, easy laundered, $15.00. Higher grades, 60 up. Same, three pieces, trimmed with embroid. $10.00 to $15.00. Colored Satens, in three pieces, plain, reduced to $7.50.

Figured, also three pieces, $6. Colored Seersucker $10, $15 and $18. Black and White Zephyr Cloth Dresses reduced from $7 to $4.

Ready-made Dresses in stock, for the promenade, receptions, opera, weddings, equestrian parties and all occasions usual to a lady in society. 1201 Chestnut street, second floor.

JOHN WANAMAKER. White Skirts for summer wear are on the Chestnut street ground floor. The stock is quite complete.

Many ladies, whose time and inclination permit, will select their material and have it made up. This can be done either under the skilled training of our own people or under their own supervision at home.

The Silk Department, that seems to rank in Dress Goods, is organized with very remarkable care. We have a resident buyer in Paris of long experience. The large quantities of Silk that we have controlled in block during the past few months, and that so many ladies have pronounced "so half-price" is an earnest of what our future will be in Silks.

We recommend at present

A Surah Silk, in shades and black, a 30. Same in black, $1. Same in red, $1.00
