KESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that

We beg to ask for it the attention of our read with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital.

While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprises d gratification, I commenced to feel that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

Personal. Mr. J. A. Meyers, wife, and son James, and Mr. Alrred Bruner, left to-day for a two weeks' trip to Halifax, Nova Scotia.— Mr. L. W. Richards, from near Chester, and Mr. Robert Deau, of Boston, are now on visits to their homes here.—Dr. T. W. Kay will leave on Tuesday a week for Syria, where he will occupy the position of physician to a Presbyterian hospital. His friends here will give him a farewell dancing picnic in Heise's woods on Thursday.

The Misses Myra and Mattie Conard returned home to Philadelphia ou Saturday after a week's visit here to their sister, Mrs. James Perrottet.-Mr. Ed. Booth, of Philadelphia, spent the Sabbath at his old home here.

Notes Around Town. A pool of stagnant water at the corner of 7th and Chestnut streets has remained undisturbed for several weeks past. That disease breeding hole should be immedi-

A large number of persons followed the remains of the late Charles H. Deau to the grave yesterday. In line were about 100 Odd Fellows, members of the Columbia and Wrightsville lodges, and 60 P. R R. roundhouse employes.

During a fight on Saturday evening, at the corner of Perry and Third streets, one of the combatants was struck on the head with a stone and knocked down. War rants for their arrest are out. Two Lancaster teams brought a party of visitors to town yesterday. On their return trip one of the animals fell dead at Mountville. Mr. Joshua Sourbeer, residing near town, lost 30 per cent. of his wheat crop by the army worm's ravages. Important orders will be presented before company C to night. A good at tendance is desirable.

Saturday evening's rain prevented much promenading. Usually a great deal of this goes on upon that evening On the Kiver.

Four catamarans passed through here vesterday en route for the Chesapeake bay. The occupants started in them from Williamsport last Tuesday a week. - There was but little travel over the river bridge yesterday. The weather was too warm for much walking.—Navigation on the Tidewater canal has again been interrupted by a "washout" on the long level. Hasoball.

Quicksteps of town, and the Vigils of Newtown, on Saturday afternoon, was in terrupted by the rain which began about 3:30 p. m. Each club had played two innings and the score stood 3 to 2 in favor of the Vigils. The game will be repeated on Saturday a week. The Vigils play a Marietta club next Saturday Religious. The Curch of God picnic will be held in ifeise's woods on August 2. A refreshment stand will provide catables for those not caring to take lunch along with them. Rev. Geo. W. Ely, paster of the Presbyterian church, will leave here on a trip for his health on August 1. Extensive repairs will be made on the church during his absence. Firemen's Practice.

A practice exercise of the Pennsylvania rancoad roundbouse fire brigade was held on Saturday A la ge bontire was kindled near the roundhouse, the signal for the men to take their proper stations given, and in 1 minute and 25 seconds a stream of water was playing on the flames Quick

DEPICATORY EXERCISES.

Ephrata Union Sunday School Chapel. The dedication of this chapel took place on Sunday morning. The dedicatory ser mon was preached by Rev. J. A. Peters. paster of the Firs: Reformed church, Laneaster, from John iv, 28-24 after which the dedication services were read by Rev. J. V. Eckert, of this city, in which the chapel was set apart for the cause of religious work in the Sunday school and the worship of the Almighty God. The Sunday school was hold at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when exercises appropriate to the special occasion were held and address es delivered by Mr. Seibert, of Sinking Springs, Rev. Mr. Saylor, of Lincoln, and Rev. Mr. Peters of Lancaster. In the evening Rev. J. V. Eckert preached from the text, Luke xvii, 20 21.

This Union Sunday school is under the superintendency of Dr. D. Rhine Hertz and is in a prosperous condition. The prin and cause which led to the erection of this chapel was the desire on the part of the Lutheran congregation to have an exclu sively congregational Sunday school in their church, where such a school had been held since the erection of the church many years ago. This move on the part of the Lutheran congregation to change the Union school to a congregational school caused controversy and division, and the friends of the Union school were compall ed to go out and erect this chapel in which to hold their Sunday school. The chapel is also, by charter, under the control of five trustees who are elected by the members of the Sunday school association to which the chapel belongs. According to the charter and by-laws ministers of all Protestant denominations are granted the right to hold occasional services, but no one is permitted to hold regular services from the beginning to the end of the year, nor to organize congregations. The chapel is merely designed for Sunday school purposes, and occasional religious services, and moral and educational lectures. For these purposes and no other it was set apart, and hence the village of Ephrata has three Sunday schools, one Union, one Lutherau, and one United Brethren, which give the children ample accommodations and the families a choice of Sunday schools

Corner-Stone Laying.

The corner-stone of the Bishop Sybert's memorial of the Evangelical association of Manheim, will be laid on Sunday, July 29. Rev. Solomon Neitz, of Reading a famous pulpit orator and author of the book, "Bishop Sybert's Works and Life," will officiate, and will be assisted by other eminent divines. SMALLPOX.

The Disease Rapidly Abating The Ephrata Review makes the unfounded statement that the smallpox " is spreading to the business portions of the city, from which it will be carried and distributed more extensively than ever, and will find its way to the country if persons visiting the city are not judic-

Now the truth of the matter is there has not been a new case reported since last Wednesday, and there has not been a death for the past twenty three days, except one in the hospital. Instead of the disease "spreading to the central part of the city,"there has not been at any time a single case within three squares of the centre of the city. Of the four principal W. Hayes Grier was chosen a member of streets leading into the city there has those that were in the jail at the extreme east end of East King; and at the present time there is not a case on either of the: streets, and not more than one or two severe cases anywhere in the city. The disease is rapidly dying out, and under the active efforts of the board of health will very soon entirely disappear.

Beecher's Bad Head. For two months in the year Henry Ward Beecher can't preach. In August and September he takes his vacation and endures the onset of the hay fever. And it is so he says, something terrible and tremendous. A man with hay fever isn't accountable for his ac tions. He is merely a wild beast-frantic with snuffing, succeing and headache. His eyes are red and so is his nose. Every nerve in his skull thrills with distress and his head is a tountain of tears. He lives only to fly from seaside to mountain-top in search of relief. And yet, whether we call this form of Catarrh hay tever, rose-lever, hay-cold or rose cold, Ely's Cream Balm will cure it. This re medy is simple, pleasant and casy of applica tion. Belle Harris is a heroine and martyr is the eyes of the Mormons. She is confined in the penitentiary near Salt Lake City, where she is daily visited by men and women high in the church, who continually exhort her to hold firm, and not betray her Saviour into the hands of the Gentiles. In the Mormon belief, a woman's husband is her only Saviour, and she cannot be raised after death except through him. Belle's case is a test one under the Edmunds law. Several years ago a saint named Clarence Merrill took her for his third wife She has born two children, whose pater nity has never been questioned. Merrill is being prosecuted for polygamy. Belle Harris was summoned as a witness. Were you ever married ? She refused to answer questions as to her marriage. Consequent ly she was adjudged guilty of contempt of court and sentenced to pay a fine of $25, also to be imprisoned until she should become a tractable witness.

TWELVE CROSSEVED CHILDREN. The Bleed-Curding Revenue of a Yanke-Peddler Spen on Innecest Wife. Old Charlie Robinson was a very peouiar man. He was small in stature and he followed the road" as a peddler. He was afflicted with cross eyes and a nervous affection that kept his head constantly bobing to and fro. He also possessed needed fuel to keep the fire going. His host, warm hearted old Colonel Rich, said since the strike.

At Chicago a meeting of the brotherhood was held in the afternoon which was largely attended. They claim to have 1,000 if the stove more wood, and thus to feed the stove more wood, and thus
to feed the stove more wood, and thus to feed the stove more wood, and thus that duty. It was an old fashioned wood stove, and when Robinson touched it off came the door from its hinges and it fell to his feet. In an instant he said :

As I came here to night to see a girl Whom I love, and shall love evermore there he found a friend who housed him, until the next morning. Among those he was accustomed to visit on his trips was the cousin above alluded to 100 km. The strips was the cousin above alluded to 100 km. The the cousin above alluded to. This relative was an exception in that he was the only was an exception in that he was the only one who would persistently make fun of Robinson's cross eyes and attempt to mimic his other peculiar antics. It was, of course, done in good part, and no one ever showed the least anger because of it. Not even the unfortunate peddler would admit that he felt the sting deeply, but he did.

The cousin who did this was a bachelor, The cousin who did this was a bachelor, The cousin who did this was a bachelor, Lake & Shore. The cousin who did this was a bachelor, living near Dublin, in Fairfield county. One day it was announced that he was going to take unto himself a wife from the many olive branches of old Simon Lockwood, of Mianus. The wedding ceremony took place in the old church on Horseneck hills and Robinson happened to come along to the merry making which followed at the bridegroom's house. As usual he stayed. His cousin's wife was a buxom lass, as all the Lockwoods are, and Robinson patiently awaited the time when he would be presented to ber. Finally the introduction took place with living near Dublin, in Fairfield county. At Suez the quarantine against arrivals from infected and suspected ports has been renewed.

buxom lass, as all the Lockwoods are, and Robinson patiently awaited the time when he would be presented to ber. Finally the introduction took place with all due solemnity. It was expected by every one that the pedler would produce a verse or two that would do him credit and shos and killed Saul Stewart. Some time please the bride. Imagine then, the asago Keys was compelled to mair / Stewart's tonishment of the bride and the whole "I congratulate you upon your marriage for him to discuss the matter and a quarrel but I hope you'll have thirteen children

This speech astounded the household. Its effect passed off, however, and noth diciously "plagued Robinson about his a desperate affray with Charley Hinson, a eyes." He was not superstitious, but sti l he could not get over the fact that the untunate pedler's had something to do with the deformed eyes of his babe. Year after year rolled by, and each one brought a cross-eyed child, until the man became a misanthrope and the mother broken hearted. Thirteen came and no more, and twelve were cross eyed.

Who is Responsible.

Y. Y Sun. The man who, more than anybody else, s responsible for the drunkenness that lisgraces the army and pavy of the United States is R. B. Hayes, of Fremout, Ohio. He made conviction and punishment for drunkenness a farce by reinstating the convicted officers as fast as they were dismissed from the services. This is the man who, while in the white house, never drank wine at his own expense.

John Smith in Trouble. That particular John Smith who lives at Cherry, Pa., is very rich, prominent in local politics and for fifteen years has been a justice of the peace. He is now further distinguished from other John Smiths by paying a $500 fine and going to the peni tentiary one year under a conviction of perjury. He became very fond of litiga-tion and in one suit swore too freely in his own behalf.
