THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 26, 1883.

OUR OWN.

If I had known in the morning,
How wearily all the day
The words unkind
Would trouble my mind
I said when you went away,
I had been more careful, darling,
Nor given you needless pain,
But we vex "our own"
With look and tone,
We may never take back again.

For though in the quiet evening
You may give us the kiss of peace
Yet it might be
That never for me
The pain of the heart should cease.
How many go forth in the morning
That never come back at night
And hearts have broken
For harsh words spoken,
That sorrow can ne'er set right.

We have careful thoughts for the stranger,
And smiles for the sometime guest,
But oft for "our own"
The bitter tone,
Though we love "our own" the best.
Ah! lips with curse impatient!
Ah! brow with that look of scorn!
'Twere a cruel fate,
Were the night too late,
To undo the work of the morn.

Blunders of the Green Hands

Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette.

"Telegraphic blunders are the rule up stairs now," said a brotherhood man to a Commercial Gazette reporter. "In fact, there is scarcely a message sent out that is not bulled. Here are blunders that have been made by the 'plugs' up stairs. For 'Eclipse' baseball club one of the men received it E. C. Lippe B. B. club. Another one got a message reading 'Ella has come. Spencer's menagerie.' This was addressed to a business man and referred to a niece. He could not imagine what his niece was going to do with a menagerie. Judge his surprise when he learned that the message should have read: 'Ella has cerebro spinal meningitis.' A wife received a message from her spouse, who was away, reading, 'I will be hog to-morrow.' This startling information caused her a great deal of uneasiness until she ascertained that it should have read, 'I will be home to morrow.' This blunder was made by writing the telegraphic letters m and e and making them g. The telegraphic letters are two dashes — — for m and a for the letter e; when run together thus — — they make the letter g. For J. B. Lippincott & Co., they got it J. B. Lipp, Scott and & Co., and E. L. Bacon & Bolt Co., ought to have read Elba Iron & Bolt Co. The word co operative was received 'Cooper alive,' and for 'first day of races' one of the artists got 'Frost Boy won race.' 'Send me three cow cars,' should have been 'Send me three coal cars.' 'Send me check for Dr. Patch' should have been 'Send me check for dispatch.' Mr. J. Gitt and pie ought to have been J. Gillespie. 'Send me half a dozen pair plain stove buttons' puzzled a local jeweler until he found out that sleeve buttons were wanted by a country correspondent. 'Graphic Branch of Knights of Labor' should have read 'Telegraphic Branch,' etc. A message relating to kinds of glass, and reading 'S. P. one of M. P.,' was received 'Spone ofmn,' and was signed 'M. S. C. Lapp,' instead of 'M. S. Clapp.' The crowning bull was the following. The original dispatch read: 'The lumbermen of this section are skidding their logs preparatory to hauling them to their mills," and when it had passed through the hands of one of the receiving operators up stairs it read: 'The lumbermen in this section are skinning their dogs preparatory to hauling them to their meals."'

Our Oil Lights the World.

This is a part of Dr. P. P. Newman's speech before the Saturday night club:

"When in the valley of the Euphrates, I met a caravan of 300 camels loaded with foreign merchandise, and chief among the articles was American petroleum. It had crossed seas, crossed the Lebanon, crossed the Tigris, and was descending that ancient valley, the cradle of our race. And, gentlemen, to night American petroleum lights up the traditional Garden of Eden, the ruins of Babylon, the mosques of Bagdad, the city of 'A thousand and One Nights.' It shines upon the exhumed palace of Sennacherib, and the tomb of Jonah in Nineveh, upon the birthplaces of Job and Abraham. It illuminates the Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem, the Church of the Ascension on the Mount of Olives. It burns around the pyramids of Egypt, on the plains of ancient Troy, on the Acropolis of Athens, and is the chief source of illumination in cottage and palace on the banks of the Bosphorus and Golden Horn. America is the light of the world"

THE greatest contagion destroyer ever nown is Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. It prevents Small Pox.

A Very Old Man.

John Funk, of Springfield, Ohio, writes, "I was tramped upon by a horse, and for a year the pain through my hips was so bad I could not rise on my feet. Thomas' Eclectric Oil helped me beyond description. It will do wonders for those who suffer from colds." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

Let the facts be known. Let us understand that a boil, or an ulcer, or a carbuncle, or any eruption or blemish of the skin is sure to wear away and disappear when Burdock Blood Bitters are employed. This wonderful medicine acts directly upon the circulation and the reasons for its use are therefore obvious. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

MEDICAL.

BENSON'S SKIN CURE.

[From the Baltimore American.]

MYSTERIOUS

Articles with High Sounding, Crack-Jaw Names are Not a Success.

A REFRESHING CHANGE

To Plain English.

Every reader of newspapers has observed time, and again, in the advertising columns, many singular and frequently unpronounceable names of medicinal remedies. The Greek and Latin languages especially have been drawn upon to furnish names by which patent medicines could be introduced to the public. The inference is, in many cases at least, that their proprietors depend more upon the attraction of high sounding titles than upon the essential merits of the remedies themselves.

It is refreshing once in a while to find a medicine advertised, whose simple, intelligible name in English at once conveys to the reader an understanding of the uses and purposes of the remedy.

A notable instance of this kind is found in the medicines of Dr. C. W. Benson, whose SKIN CURE and CELERY and CHAMOMILE PILLS impart at once in their names, either their purpose or the ingredients which compose them. Dr. Benson's SKIN CURE is warranted to heal all diseases of the skin, such as tetters, tumors, inflammation, milk crust, eczema, diseases of the hair and scalp, scrofula, ulcers, pimples and itching on all parts of the body. It makes the skin white, soft and smooth, removes tan and freckles, and is the best toilet dressing in existence. Its popularity is attested by the immense sales of it which are taking place everywhere.

☞ It is the only genuine "Skin Cure" and all should beware of the various remedies which have been struggling for existence, and now endeavor to ride into popularity by advertising themselves as "The Great Skin Cures." There is only one, and that is Dr. Benson's. Be sure and get it.

DOES YOUR HEAD ACHE?

No Matter What Cause, Sick, Nervous, Neuralgic, Dyspeptic.

Which is it? A revolution in the treatment of nervous diseases is now taking place. Dr. C. W. Benson has discovered a sure remedy in his Celery and Chamomile Pills—they permanently cure sick and nervous headache, neuralgia, dyspepsia, sleeplessness and all nervous diseases. Sold by all druggists. Price 50 cents a box. Address, Baltimore, Md. By mail, two boxes for $1, or six boxes for $2.50.

C. N. CRITTENTON, New York, is the Wholesale Agent for W. C. Benson's remedies.
