THE ISONSIDES VS. THE HONTER'S

The Former Club Wins the Game Atter score of 6 to 1 Against Them-Notes of the Diamond. The Hunter baseball club, of Pittsburgh, visited this city yesterday and met a similar fate, at the Ironsides hands, to that which befell a number of other good clubs here recently, being defeated by the score of 12 to 6. Game was called shortly before 4 o'clock and the Ironsides, with his text from Habakuk iii: 4. fore 4 o'clock and the Ironsides, with their usual good luck secured the field. The first part of the game looked rather ning were made on errors of the home team, Householder failing to stop one ball put to him, making a wild throw to first with another after stopping it. Sweitzer also allowed two balls to pass him and with these errors and heavy batting of the visitors the latter scored their runs. In the second inning Roll made a fine hit and reached first, Meenan put a ball over the center fielder's head, making third base, and owing to slow fielding and bad throwing he scored his run, which with that of Roll median total of transmits I had been an in the scored his run, which with that of Roll median total of transmits I had been an in the scored his run, which with that of Roll median total of transmits I had been an in the scored his run, which with that of Roll median total of transmits I had been an in the scored his run, which with that of Roll median total of transmits I had been a fine hit and preached by Rev. The half-past 10 o'clock sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. Aspril, formerly of the West Mission church, Lancaster, and his text was from Matthew vi, 9: "Our Father."

The last children's meeting of the camp Roll made a total of two runs. In the third inning Young got one run in on fine bat-ting of himself and other members of the club. This was the last run made by the third inning, when Zecher crossed the home plate by his own and Sweitzer's heavy batting. In the fifth inning two pers in the grounds. more runs were scored by the same good work, and in the sixth inning a blank was drawn. In the seventh inning the Ironsides won their game. They got on to the sides won their game. They got on to the made. pitcher's balls at once and began pounding him everywhere. Sixsmith and Zecher opened with big hits and were brought in by Householder, who ant a ball to the vious occasion, and the services have be extreme corner of left field. Shiller had attended by very large congregations. no trouble making first and Kelley brought him and Householder in on a strong hit. Peffer after putting a heavy ball to the left was brought in by King, who was left on third, Sixsmith going out on strikes, being the third hand.

Householder had but little trouble in scoring the runs, which finishing the game.

Better playing than that done by the Ironsides in the last five innings has never been seen here. The visitors were unable to hit Hofford at all in the latter part of the game, and he and Sixsmith worked hard with fine success. Zecher stopped two very hot balls from the bat, and Hof ford got one. The York Daily admits now that the club of that town is poor and wants a paid team. On Tuesday they were badly beaten by the Littlestown club, a nine that make no pretensions, but can play well. From reports of treatment which strange clubs receive in that town it is a wonder that they ever get a run. On Tuesday Zecher, of this city, played there on the Littlestown nine and he was shamefully treated. The audience crowded around him so that he could scarcely get the ball, and they interfered in every way with the progress of the game. Threats were made against Zecher, both on the field and in was compelled to go to Littlestown to re- with a horse which a citizen recognized as main all night. It is no wonder that a baseball town of that class get none but poor clubs to visit it. Zecher, the captain of the Ironsides, is very lucky. He has won the toss in twelve games. The toss was lost but once this season for the Ironsides and Zecher did not throw the penny then. The Ironsides, jr., a fine young club, organized last night and the players are as follows: King, c.; F. Wilmer, p.; Brown, 1b.; Rush, ss.; Maher, 2b.; C. King, 3b.; Hook, If.; Hambright, cf.; C.

DICK HEILIG

A Supposed Horse Thiel Arrested Alderman Spurrier, of this city, re-ceived a note from II. II. Snare, chief of police, of Steelton, a few days ago in which Spare wanted to known if Dick Heilig was " wanted " in Lancaster. The alderman tolegraphed to have him arrested but aided by his brother Heilig escaped. Snare then notified Abe Roat, a Harrisburg detective, and, on Wednesday morn ing Roat while riding on the rear platform of a train going west and passing Sollers' saloon at Canal and State streets, Harrisburg, he saw Heilig standing in the door. Heilig also saw the detective and as far as the stock yard and then started back to arrest Heilig, reaching Sollers' saloon by a back way and arrested Heilig. When Heilig saw the detective, he said: "I thought I saw you go on the train a little bit ago." He was placed in the Harrisburg jail, and Alderman Spurrier was notified. This morning Officer Herr went to Harrisburg for Heilig, who is wanted here to answer for stealing a pair of horses from John S. Brandt, of Mastersonville. It will be remembered that Heilig was in custody in this city some months ago, charged with a folonious assault on Constable Bell, of Marietta, but the charge was not sustained. After the recovery from varioloid of Mrs. Reams, who came from Lancaster to Hayesville, Chester county, about three weeks ago, the excitement incident to the disease in the neighborhood subsided. Last week, however, a case of real smallpox developed in the family, one of the children, a boy, being attacked with a virulent form of the disease. Arrangements were at once made to send the family to the Chester county almshouse and on Saturday they were taken there by Albert Reams, the husband and father. The house will be fumigated and all precautions taken to prevent the spread of

Jaw Names are Not a Success A REFRESHING CHANGE

To Plain English.

Every reader of newspapers las observed time, and again, in the advertising columns, many singular and frequently unpronouncable names of medicinal remedies. The Greek and Latin languages especially have been drawn upon to furnish names by which patent medicines could be introduced to the public. The inference is, in many cases at least, that their proprietors depend more upon the attraction of high sounding titles than upon the essential merits of the reme It is retreshing opce in a while to find a medicine advertised, whose simple, intelligi-ble name in English at once conveys to the reader an understanding of the uses and purposes of the remedy. A notable instance of this kind is found in the medicines of Dr. C. W. Benson, whose Skin Cure and CELERY and CHAMO-MILE PILLS impart at once in their names, either their purpose or the ingredients which compose them. Dr. Benson's SKIN CURE is warranted to heal all diseases of the skin, such as tetters, numors, inflammation, milk crust, ecz ma, diseases of the hair and scalp, scrofula, ulcers, pimples and itching on all parts of the body, It makes the skin white, soft and smooth, removes tan and freekles. and is the best toilet dressing in existence. Its popularity is attested by the immense sales of it which are taking place everywhere. AT It is the only genuine " Skin Cure " and now endeavor to ride into popularity by advertising themselves as "The Great Skin Cures." There is only one, and that is Dr. Benson's. Be sure and get it.
