MONDAY FVENING, AUC. 6, 1888.

Shutting Out the sunshine. The United Presbyterian says: "We do well to throw open the windows of our souls and let in the light. Just as the grass and flowers need the sunshine, so de our hearts need it if they are to keep frest and sweet and give out good influences. When the inexperienced amateur in flori culture puts her rare plant in a shaded room, which also she closed up carefully against the bright light, she thought she was doing it the greatest kindness, but her only reward was its decline as it wilted and then died away. Christian people often act with the same kind of wisdom, or rather unwisdom, in their moral treat ment, and they have the result. There is death when they expected life. They draw down all the curtains of their souls and fasten the shutters outside, hoping in the dimness thus produced to live free from sin and hence grow in gra e. Sometimes they call it 'shutting out the world,' again they name it 'living in retreat,' or probably it is more ambitiously called retiring in company with the Master,' but whatever the name the end is the same. Tue mold gathers where there should be healthy fragrance, and over the life that proper treatment would have clothed with spiritual beauty, the heavy felds of a tattered sackcloth fall and hang like the drapery of death. The Master is not found in such conditions. He is where His song is, the conversation, the throbbing of human interest and earnestness, and gives the blessings as He receives his praises, in the gladuess of the sunshine and the joy of gentle winds,"

MEDICAL. DENSON'S SKIN CURE.

[From the Baltimore American.]

MYSTERIOUS Articles with High Sounding, Crack-Jaw Names are Not a Success.

REFRESHING CHANGE

To Plain English.

Every reader of newspapers las observed time, and again, in the advertising columns, many singular and frequently unpronounce abis names of medicinal remedies. The Greek and Latin languages especially have been drawn upon to furnish names by which paten med cines could be introduced to the pub ic. The inference is, in many cases at least, that their proprietors depend more upon the attraction of high sounding titles than upon the essential merits of the reme lies them/selves. It is reveshing once in a while to find ; medicine advertised, whose simple, inte ligible name in English at once conveys to the reader an understanding of the uses and pur poses of the remedy.

A notable instance of this kind is found in the medicines of Dr. C. W. Benson, whose Skin Curs and CELERY and CHAMO MILE PILLS impart at once in their names. either their purpose or the ingredients which compose them. Dr. Benson's SKIN Curs is warranted to heal all diseases of the skin, such as tetters, numors, inflammation, milk crust, ecz-ma, diseases of the hair and scalp, scrofula, ulcers, pimples and itching or all parts of the body. It makes the skin white, soft and smooth, removes tan and freckles, and is the best toilet dressing in existence. Its popularity is attested by the immense ales of it which are taking place everywhere

11 is the only genuine "Skin Cure" and all should beware of the various remodies which have been stru-gling for existence, and now endeavor to ride into popularity by advertising themselves as "The Great Skin Cures." There is only one, and that is !! Benson's. Be sure and get it.
