

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT. Events Along the Susquehanna—Items Interest in up by the Intelli-

A colored boy attempted to enter Mr. C. M. Michael's house at the corner of Fifth and Walnut streets, on Sunday during the absence of the family. A lady residing near and recognized the boy, who should receive a taste of the law, Mr. Michael's hands. A good example is that which is badly needed here now. Attempts at burglary are becoming alarmingly frequent.

Dancing Picnic at Onancock. On Saturday, August 11, a social dancing picnic will be held at Chickies Rock by residents of Chickies. The Marietta band and Wolf's Columbia orchestra will furnish music for the affair. Refreshments will be served on the ground. A special car will leave Chickies station at 11:45 for Columbia.

Fire Tobacco. The tobacco in the neighborhood of Klinesville is said by a gentleman who travels extensively over the county, to have none superior to it in the county. None of it is touched by the late hail storm, which devastated this section of the county, and the crop gives evidence of being a very large one, much larger in fact than usual.

Personal. Mr. Wm. B. Given and wife have returned from a visit to the seashore. The Rev. J. Schuber and Lillie Smith are visiting Ocean Grove. Miss Lillie Clark, on Locust Street, is entertaining Miss Annie Lintner, of Millersville.

Second Sergeant Albert M. Slado was promoted to the first sergeantship at last night's drill of company C. Mrs. R. F. Runkin, of Delta, Pa., late a guest of her father, Mr. F. S. Bletz, has gone to Saratoga Springs to recruit her impaired health.

Local Happenings. The prettiest church yard in town is that in front of St. John's Lutheran church. A meeting of Putnam circle, No. 113, B. U. (H. F.) C. A., will be held to-night. The Vigilant fire company will hold a general business meeting at the engine house to-night.

The Quilstep baseball club, lately defeated, has arisen from its grave. How long will it live this time? Philip Gosler yesterday caught the largest salmon taken here this season. It was twenty inches in length and weighed almost three pounds.

The Rev. J. Schuber, of Marietta will picnic at Litzitz on Thursday, August 9, going down over the new Reading, Marietta & Hanover railroad. A mile and a half in a minute was the time made by two carrier pigeons belonging to Mr. Robert Ward, of this place, during a late flight from Donegal springs to Columbia.

Mr. James Kiscadden is the possessor of a piece of anti-revolutionary currency of the state of Maryland, which bears date April 1, 1774. It is a piece of counterfeited, is the significant warning in conspicuous letters on its face.

The Knights of the Mystic Chain will hold a dancing picnic in Heiss's woods, on Thursday, August 16. The money made on this occasion will be given to the orphan fund of the lodge. The sets for dancing will be 25 cents.

The business men of the east side of Locust street defeated those of the west side at the match game of ball yesterday. The score was 40 to 1. The game was pronounced a circus for the spectators, caused by the players' awkwardness.

Another row occurred last night about 9:30 o'clock on Front street, between Charles Hill, colored, and several white men. Hill was in the act of striking one of the white men with a razor, but was finally obliged to seek safety in flight. No person was hurt to any great extent, although several blows were struck.

On account of the absence of several of its members at the military encampment at Williamsport, the P. R. B. baseball club will not play a return game with the Newtown club this week. The baseball ground on Eighth street, the property of Mr. Moffitt, is to be ploughed and planted with grain. It looks like a heavy danger to ball playing as no other grounds appear to be available for ball playing purposes.

An assault and battery case was heard before Squire Frank last evening, who tried one of the men under bonds to stand a trial at court. The game was won by the plaintiff of stealing his book, and the former rapped him over the head with a chair for so doing.

From Our Regular Correspondent. On Saturday a horse belonging to Mr. McConville, Chester county, took flight at a passing train of cars at Atglen, and ran off up the railroad track as far as the high culvert from which he fell, sustaining such injuries that it was necessary to kill him. The animal was returned to the owner by the scholars of Centre school at White Horse, held their third annual picnic in Warn's woods on last Saturday. There were over eighty in attendance and an enjoyable time was spent. Tables were spread on which all the delicacies of the season were furnished in abundance.

Among the finest crops of tobacco in this vicinity are those of Alfred Elmaker, George Seldomridge, George Stern and Jacob Wise. They are now cutting it. But little tobacco was injured around here by the recent storm.

Rev. Valentine Gray, a retired Methodist preacher of this place, filled the pulpit of the Bellevue Presbyterian church on Sunday. John N. Stern, erected a new barn on premises last week 36x40 feet in dimensions. Rev. W. L. Ledwith started on his European tour on Saturday. He remains there several months.

Rev. Taylor Gray has returned from Colorado, after sojourning there several weeks. The Bellevue Presbyterian Sunday school will hold their annual celebration on next Wednesday. Abram Eby will give a ball to a number of his friends in Penn Monument hall on Saturday evening.

The Police Court. Joseph Thuringer was held for a hearing before Alderman Samson for assault and battery on Fritz Lebelster. H. C. Howard, charged with the larceny of clothing from Michael Landis, a boarder at the Leopard hotel, was discharged by Alderman Fitch to-day, as the prosecutor did not appear. John Hook denies that in the fracas at Bauer's saloon on Saturday night he struck anybody with a bottle or knife; he says he was in the water closet when the row began and only got into it because when he came out he saw that Burns had been assaulted and was bleeding. He says he was guilty of no offense but drank and disorderly conduct. The hearing on Thursday evening will discuss the facts.

Sale of H. Rose. Samuel Hees & Son, auctioneers sold at public sale yesterday at the Keystone house, for Uriah Fitzer and Samuel Kappert, 19 head of horses at an average price of $280.50 per head, the highest price for one sold being $351.

Near New Providence, Mr. David Etkan killed a snake which was very large in the body, and when out open forty-five lively snakes trotted out.

MOUNT NEBO NEWS.

From Our Special Correspondent. Harvesting is about finished, so are the blackberries. The band will hold a festival on the 25th inst.

Mr. Kaufman has his large tobacco shed filled, and is preparing to ship. On last night Mrs. Mary Campbell, who resided at Bridge Valley, died quite suddenly. Mrs. Campbell was 68 years of age, and her sudden death has bereaved a husband and large family.

A colored woods meeting was held about mile north of Rawlinsville on Sunday. A large number of people, both white and colored, listened to the minister's discourse, or promenade through the woods. With few exceptions good order prevailed.

While some workmen were rebuilding the dam-breast across the Pequea, near Colesburg, a stone weighing about 400 pounds, after falling 15 feet, struck Christian Shoff on the breast, knocking him down, mashing one of his toes, and bruising him severely.

After nearly a year in the work the new church at Mount Nebo is finished, and will be dedicated on the 12th inst. Several Methodist ministers of reputation are to be present to assist in the exercises. The church is substantially built of brick, and is one of the finest country churches in the county.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS. Events Near and Across the County Lines. The Berks county agricultural and horticultural society will hold its annual fair in Reading on October 2, 3, 4 and 5. The Summit Grove camp meeting, near York, was attended on Sunday by 6,000 persons.
