A Handsome Saloon For a few weeks past Knapp's beer saloon, East King street, has been closed for the purpose of having it renovated, decorated and refurnished. The old floor has been taken up and a new one of yellow pine laid; the old bar is removed and a new one of solid walnut of beautiful design takes its place ; new wainscoting, new gas fixtures, &c., have been put in. But the most attractive part of all these improvements is the beautiful fresoed ceiling in the ancient stucco style of frescoing. The design is entirely new, being an original creation by our talented artist, Mr. Martin Rettig. The work must be seen to be appreciated, as no descrip tion can do it justice. The beautiful oilpainted landscapes on the wall harmonize finely with the other handsome surroundings. The saloon will be reopened to the public to morrow.

OHIO POLITICS.

The Liquor Dealers' Convention Unah man derses the Democracy. TOLEDO, Ohio, Aug. 10-The Ohio liquor dealers' protective association met in convention yesterday, eighty delegates being present. The chair stated that the object of the meeting was "to organize for the fall political campaign and to take into consideration all other questions of inter-est. The obnoxious laws" he said, " passed by the Republican Legislature had caused great disaffection in the Republican ranks, as was shown by the last two elections." He thought that "their hopes rested with the Democracy, and their success depended on the defeat of the Republican party. A Democratic gover nor of Ohio in 1883 means a Democratic president in 1884, and the work therefore. for us is plain."

requiring the sinking fundito be invested in state or United States bonds. A better piece of legislation for the interests of the state has seldom been enacted, and the sconer it is put in practical operation the better. We are therefore not a little sur-prised and mortified to see the Republican members of the sinking fund commission make a blunder at their first meeting, held to consider measures for putting the new to consider measures for putting the new system in operation, which, if not cor-rected, will put the Republican party on the defensive of an utterly indefensive policy. By the previous action of the board the sink-By the previous action of the board the sink-ing fund will amount to $3,400,000, which Mr. Stenger very properly claims ought to be invested at once under the Humes sot. Under the Baily resolution it will take a year to invest the fund, beginning on Sep-tember 1, at the rate of $200,000 per month. Under the defeated Stenger reso-lution the state will lose the benefit of the interest on $2,400,000 a man course of $3 interest on $2,400,000 a year, equal at 3 per cent. to $62,000—enough to pay the salaries of the executive, state and attor.

Any tyro in politics cannot fail to see that Messrs. Baily and Lemon have blun-dered, and blundered at the expense of both their party and the state. The Democrats will insist that the Republican leaders want to have the benefit of this idle fund for campaign purposes, and whether true or not now, they can give plausibility to the argument by the indisputable facts of the past history of the treasury.

JUHN FRANKFURD

Broken Down in Spirits and Heatth.

Amos Rutter, of New Holland, T. M. Storb ard B. J. Kinzer werd in West Lancaster Chester on Wednesday and while there called on John Frankford. Mr. Rutter who was a watchman at our prison at the time Frankford escaped, was interviewed at length afterwards by a reporter. He stated that Frankford is a changed man, and he is no more like he was of old than day is like night. His voice is weak, and he has lost all animation and is broken down generally. He is very melaneholy and says that he doesn't know where he will be tried, whether in Chester or Lancaster, but it matters not which, so far as the verdict on the result of the trial is concerned. He says he has not scen any members of his family lately. Previous to bis arrest he took a walk through Wanamaker's with his wife, but as a police men had an eye on him he soon left the building. He states that before his arrest in Chester county he visited h's wife twice in Lancaster county, but spent most of his time with a gaug of scoundrels in Phila delphia. Mr. Rutter is of the opinion that regret, remorse and repentance have taken possession of the man, and were he once clear of everything appertaining to mat-ters criminal, he would shake the dust of lawlessness from his path and enter the straight and narrow path toward right-cousness. From what he saw of him, be thinks that, broken spirited as he is, and with a heavy and dreary sentence before him, John Frankford will not long trouble the prison keeper into whose custody he is expected to be placed.

FIRE IN PROVIDENCE.

A Large Log Building Destroyed.

Last night about 10 o'clock, a large log building, one and a half stories in height, belonging to B. K. Andrews, and situated near New Providence, on the road leading from that village to Rawlinsville, was dis. covered to be on fire, and was entirely destroyed. The building, which was formerly a dwelling house, was unoccupied at the time, but had within a few days past been cleaned out and prepared for hanging tobacco in. The loss amounts to several hundred dollars, and the destruction of the building at this time will cause a good deal of inconvenience, as the tobacco crop is almost ready to cut and there is now no place handy in which to hang it. The fire is balieved to have been the work of an incendiary. The light from the burning building was plainly seen in this city.

Firemen's Drill. Chief Howell called out the fire depart. ment for drill last evening about 7 o'clock by striking an alarm at box 15, East King and Duke streets. The men with their were promptly on hand. A line was largely attended. The morning trains brought several more families and at 10 o'clock a large congregation assembled in the tabernacle, where Elder G. L. Cowen, a student from the university of Wooster, Ohio, preached; his text was Isaiah, 57, 7 : "Thy God Reigneth." The impression created by the iscourse was very favorable.

At 1:30 p. m., a large children's meeting was held which was conducted by Elder F. L. Nicodemus, of Saston, Huntingdon county. His exhortetion to the little ones was ably delivered and the music was excellent. Several other fine addresses were made to the children, the services being closed by all singing "All Hail the
