An Old Permit Revoked.

In 1866 Hugh McCullough, then secretary of the treasury at Washington, D. U., granted permission to certain parties to make photographs, on small cards, of various denominations of treasury notes then in circulation, for distribution as curiosities. When issued, they bore on their backs a fac simile of the secretary's letter of permission and were eagerly sought in all directions, the dealers mak ing a handsome profit out of their sales. For years none have been seen until within the past month, when agents of the secret service engaged in hunting up swindlers who advertise to sell hundreds of dollars for a nominal sum discovered that these cards were being sent out to those foolish enough to be caught. The attention of Secretary Folger being called to the matter, he revoked the permit, and hereafter it will be a violation of law to photograph, print or sell such article.

THE GREAT Nerve Conqueror. It quiets and composes the patient—not by the introduction of opiates and drastic catharties, but by the restoration of activity to the stom-ach and nervous system, whereby the brain is relieved of morbid fancies, which are cre-ated by the causes above referred to. To clergymen, Lawyers, Literary Men, Mer-chants, Bankers, Ladies, and all those whose sedentary employment causes nervous pros-tration, irregularities of the blood, stomach, bowels or kidneys, or who require a nerve tonic, appetizer or stimulant, SAWARITAM NERVINE is invaluable.
