SONS OF AMERICA.

Officers Chosen by the State Camp of Penn-sylvania. The sessions of the state camp of Pennsylvania Patriotic Sons of America continue with increased interest in the opera house, at Hazleton. A considerable portion of the day was devoted to the debate on constitutional amendments and appropria tions for the ensuing year. A new division of districts is left to the choice and will of the newly elected state president. The sessions were concluded on Wednesday, and in the evening a banquet and an invitation ball was extended in honor of the state camp. In the grand parade held at 4 p. m. the surrounding districts was largely repre sented. At least 5,000 members were in line. The election of officers yesterday resulted in the following choice, and they were daly installed in the afternoon : S ate president, John H Hoffer, Lebanon; state vice president, J. B. Reed, Mahonoy City; state master of forms, J. I. Hollen back, Audenreid; state secretary, H. J. Stager, Philadelphia; state treasurer, I. S. Smith, Reading; state chaplain, Rev. T. J. Hacker, Shamokin; state marshal, P. L. Yost, Shenandoah; state sergeantat-erms, D. B. Binder, Mechanicsburg trustees, Richard Peterson, Philadelphia, E. C. Gardner, York, and F. M. Keck,

Engleton. THE ANTI-DEGAN FACTION.

United Presbyterian Church Members who Object to Instrumental Church Music. The national convention of the antiorgan faction of the United Presbyterian church reassembled in Allegheny City, Wednesday morning. After devotional exercises Rev. James Price, of Philadel phia, presented a series of resolutions in effect that the propriety of holding local conventions similar to this one, and of forming an association for the maintenance of the principles and especially of the purity of the worship of the church demand serious consideration and attention. The resolutions were referred to a committee.

Dr. Wm. Wishart, of Hayesville, Ohio. said he was conscientiously opposed to instrumental music, and rather than give up his views of duty would give up affiliation with brethren in the church and go where organs are not used. Said he: "The orgins will put us out of the church or we will but them out."

The Joys of the Wood.

The uses of a cigar are revealed by an experienced smoker in this happy style : Make no mistake, a cigar is a great arbitrator. It helps broak the ice. It bridges over the gulf of embarrassment in mactin; unexpected or undesirable parties. It is a tert of passport to good fellowship and kind treatment. It tides over that awk ward first few minutes when you sit dow: to a business confat with strangers men that you are a little shy of, and it fills in the old moments when you are waiting to see which way the cat will jump. By the attention you must give your eigar you gain time for deliberation, and it somehow gives you an appearance moustre which you of fortitude at don't feel in the So, in a business way, I think it is often an advantage to smake.
