

COLUMBIA NEWS.

THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM WEST CHESTER, IN REGARD TO JOHN FRANKFORD, WHO HAS JUST BEEN CONVICTED IN CHESTER COUNTY ON A NUMBER OF CHARGES OF HORSE STEALING, WAS RECEIVED BY THE INTELLIGENCER THIS AFTERNOON:

"John Frankford is to be sent to Lancaster to serve out the balance of his sentence there. Judge Futney so decided this morning."

St. John's Lutheran church now has its front ornamented with a handsome gas light, a present from Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Krodel.

A new gas generating machine is now being placed in a structure in the rear of H. E. Heise's hardware store, for the purpose of lighting that building.

A big crowd attended the Shawnee fire company's dancing picnic in Heise's woods on Saturday. The boys realized a neat sum from the affair.

Wrightsville was visited by a large driving party from Lancaster, all of the members of which seemed to enjoy hugely the trip to our little sister borough of the York county hills.

Some excitement was caused in King's steam bakery, this morning, by the blowing off of the safety valve. When the extent of the damage was ascertained, the frightened workmen returned to their labors.

The Flyer still continues the destruction of property. His latest gastronomic feat was the disposition of two horse fly nets. The goat is a nuisance and should be quickly disposed of by the members of the company.

A certificate of deposit on the first national bank of this city, for $15, the property of Mr. J. D. Morton, was lost on Saturday. As it was not endorsed it can do no person any good and it is hoped that it will be returned.

The quartermaster sergeant of Co. C, will receive to-night a company property used by the members in the late encampment and all persons holding such are required to make their returns to-night.

Only a short drill is to be held. Mrs. Elizabeth Vaid, wife of P. B. Vaid, died Saturday afternoon at her residence on Third street, of dropsy of the heart, from which disease she had long been suffering. The funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the remains will be interred in Mt. Bethel cemetery.

The tickets to the dancing platform at the picnic of Coresoga lodge, No. 465, K. of P., in Heise's woods to-day, will be 25 cents. The proceeds from the picnic will be devoted to the purchase of orphan's fund of lodge. For good reasons the picnic was postponed from the 16th inst. to this date.

A Newtown baseball club was beaten at a game of ball at Chickies by a club from the latter place to-day afternoon. Later in the day the Newtowners met the Chickies players at a picnic held on Chickies rock and gave their late visitors a thrashing with their fists. They were bound to be victorious in something, if it had to be a fight.

Personal. The Rev. Amos Arthur, of Reading, will preach in the Methodist church next Sunday.

Mr. Robert Dean left to-day for Boston, after a several weeks' visit to his home here.

Judge James Ryan, wife and daughter Florence, returned home to Pottsville to-day, after a pleasant visit to the gentleman's brother, Mr. Robert Ryan, on Walnut street.

Mr. W. Hayes Grier will not remove his residence to Harrisburg, but will proceed to the scene of his duties as state superintendent of public printing in the morning train, and return in the evening.

Mr. Benjamin Litch returned this morning to Philadelphia, after having served for over a week as a substitute for an absent operator in the dispatcher's office in the west yards of the Pennsylvania railroad here.

A Rover Heard From. Mr. John A. Falck, son of John Falck, tailor, 41 West King street, this city, who went west a few years ago, after visiting most of the cities in the mining districts, settled down for a time as a druggist in Denver, Colorado, and suddenly disappeared more than a year ago, and was supposed to be dead, has been heard from. His father received a letter from him a few days ago, wherein he details at some length his journeyings, after leaving Denver he went to San Francisco, thence to Australia, visiting Sidney, Melbourne, and other important places on the great continent of Australia. When he wrote he was in Tasmania, he was in good health, and receiving good wages as a salesman in an important drug store. Mr. Falck is a graduate of the college of pharmacy, Philadelphia, and is a first rate fellow and has many friends in Lancaster, but from his childhood has had a penchant for roving, and has more than once said he would never rest satisfied until he had gone around the world.

Children's Love Feast. The annual recurrence of the children's love feast was observed last evening in the Moravian church, at Litzitz, with the customary impressive and beautiful ceremonies. The interior of the old church was brilliantly illuminated and was crowded with the congregation and the throng of little ones. In the branches of the many fine trees in the yard in front of the church were hung a large number of candles and Chinese lanterns, which presented a most attractive sight with the dark green grass and pines for a background. The concert band which belongs to the church discoursed several musical selections and the impressive services were conducted by Rev. Nagle. Quite a number of people from Lancaster witnessed the interesting ceremonies.

ON to berate. Maj. C. H. Fasnacht, of Lancaster lodge No. 68, and Harry Smyth, of inland City lodge No. 88, left on 10 a. m. train for Scranton, representatives of their respective lodges, in the sessions of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Pennsylvania, which meets there this week and convenes to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the court house. Some 3,000 knights are expected to be in attendance, who will be welcomed to the city by Mayor Powderly, and a very important meeting is anticipated.

Death of Benjamin Harsh. Benjamin Harsh the well known machinist of Elton, Manheim township, died on Sunday after a protracted illness, aged about 65 years. He leaves a wife and several grown up sons.

JOHN FRANKFORD.

He is to be sent back to Lancaster. The following special telegram from West Chester, in regard to John Frankford, who has just been convicted in Chester county on a number of charges of horse stealing, was received by the INTELLIGENCER this afternoon:

"John Frankford is to be sent to Lancaster to serve out the balance of his sentence there. Judge Futney so decided this morning."

Died in the West. Jacob Zrocher, who left Willow Street about 40 years ago and located at Eekmansville, Adams county, Ohio, died there on Wednesday of heart disease. He was a plasterer by trade, but since he left this county was ever since engaged in farming. Deceased leaves a large family, relatives and friends to mourn his death. He was a brother of Andrew Zrocher, of Pequa.

Special Meeting of Councils. There will be a special meeting of select and common council to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock to take final action in reference to awarding the contract for building a six million gallons pump at the water works, as approved by the water committee.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the sale of the personal property of the late Geo. Ditman, which will take place to-morrow afternoon.
