

COLUMBIA NEWS.

MARKET NEWS. CORRESPONDENCE. Events along the Susquehanna—Items of interest in and around the Borough picked up by the Intelligence Reporter.

Market was none too well attended this morning. Few if any, York county produce attended as they were prevented from crossing the river bridge until after 5:30 o'clock this morning, although numbers were at the Wrightsville entrance of the bridge at 3 o'clock ready to cross.

It is a shame that such unnecessary detention should be made, especially in view of the fact that the bridge is now open to the local market.

Robbing a Drunken Man. Special Officer Rodenhauer arrested a man last night who was attempting to rob a drunken man lying on a front street door step. The latter will probably not appear against the man, as he is not desiring to expose the condition in which he was at the time, and in this case the offender will be prosecuted by the officer for being disorderly.

Personal. Dr. S. A. Beckins and wife started to-day for a drive to Bedford Springs. Mr. John Maxton is home from a trip to Ocean Grove, Asbury Park, Long Branch and New York.

Borough Meetings. Putnam Circle No. 113, B. U. (H. F.) C. A., will meet to-night. Chiquelunda tribe, No. 39, I. O. of R. M., will hold a council meeting this evening.

A large crowd attended the Knights of Pythias picnic at Heise's woods yesterday. One hundred dollars was cleared by the late Shawnee firemen's picnic in Heise's woods.

Mr. Harry N. Stevens has a double can telegraph at his store. It is quite a curiousity. A "stag" party will be held at the point opposite Chickies to-morrow by a party of colored gentlemen.

A colored organization called the Poor Man's Protective Union society are holding a large picnic in Heise's woods to-day. The Vigilant guard will give no more trouble, having been taken into the charge of an officer this morning by order of Chief Burgess Smead.

The tower of the new depot is surmounted by something which no person has been able to name yet. It may be intended for a weather vane or anything else, but at all events it is most peculiar looking object.

Mr. Rapetta, the front street fruit dealer, drowned a dog belonging to himself, yesterday, as he believed it was to be mad. The animal tried to bite its owner and the latter thought it best to put him out of harm's way.

A family basket picnic is being held at Wild Cat Falls by a Columbia party to-day. Within a week or two the P. R. R. station at that point is to have a shed for passengers, which is to be removed thither from 35th street, Philadelphia.

Maggie, an eight year old daughter of Chief of Police William Brady, of the Pennsylvania railroad, died at her home on Fourth street yesterday afternoon, of scarlet fever. The time for holding the funeral services has not yet been announced.

A new railroad trestle work is now in course of construction at Filbert & Son's coal yards, to replace the one lately demolished by the accident which occurred there. The new one will have a length of two hundred feet, and is to be built of heavy timbers.

Several persons were overcome yesterday by the excessive heat while at work. A moulder at the Keely stone works was prostrated while carrying a ladle full of molten iron from the foundry cupola to a ladle, but was later recovered from the effects of his prostration to-day to be able to resume work.

A five-year old son of John Schlegelmilch, jr., residing in this place, was thrown from a wagon and run over, returning from the Heise's woods last evening. In addition to what may prove serious injuries about the body, the child had a hole cut in his head, by falling upon a stone.

A colored boy named Lewis Wesley and another who goes by the name of "Big Char," robbed Mr. Charles Shillow's money drawer of between forty and sixty dollars last evening. The former was caught about midnight and eight dollars recovered, but the other offender is yet at large.

Lancaster Cattle Market. The Lancaster cattle market is held every Wednesday and Thursday at the stock yards of James Stewart, Levi Senning and John W. Mentzer, all of which are located in the northeastern section of the city. The local dealers leave Lancaster on Friday or Saturday, for Pittsburg, where they buy and ship their stock in cars on Monday and Tuesday. The stock trains reach this city on Tuesday evening and the sales commence on Wednesday, which is the "big day" during which farmers, drovers, butchers, and others interested, are in attendance and make their purchases. Generally the sales continue during Thursday by which time all the cattle are sold, it being a rare thing for the dealers to have any left for Friday. Then they return to Pittsburg, bring more cattle, ship them to Lancaster and sell them on Wednesday and Thursday as before—and so on throughout the year.

FRANKFORD TO BE SENT TO LANCASTER.

Opinion of the Court on Motion to Suspend. Following is the opinion of Judge Fudge, of the West Chester court, delivered yesterday in the Frankford case: In the court of oyer and terminer of Chester county: John Frankford was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary of Lancaster county of horse stealing and other larcenies, and on the 23d day of September, 1877, was sentenced by that court to undergo imprisonment by separate and solitary confinement at labor in the Lancaster county prison for the period of nineteen years from that date. He was duly confined in pursuance of said sentence in said prison under the charge of the keeper thereof, and so remained until the 24th day of May, 1883, when he escaped therefrom. He was subsequently arrested in Chester county, charged with the commission of divers larcenies in the latter county since his escape, for which he was held to answer, and for which he has just been convicted in this court.

The authorities of Lancaster county were requested to issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant, and that the warrant be handed over to them in order that he may serve out his sentence in the prison of that county. We are of the opinion that the request is a proper one and should be granted. The prisoner was convicted and sentenced there by a court of competent jurisdiction, and that the defendant be handed over to them in order that he may serve out his sentence in the prison of that county.

Personal. Prof. F. H. Shaub, the new principal of the Millersville normal school, has removed from this city to Millersville. N. E. Ellinger, this city this afternoon county, before entering upon the duties of this office here would impose.

The fact that the sentences are those of the court of different counties makes no difference. They should be carried out in accordance with the convictions were in the same county. If we should now sentence the prisoner we would in effect nullify the action of the Lancaster county court. This, coming as well as a regard to the interests of the Commonwealth, is not a desirable course.

We cannot at this time properly pass judgment upon the prisoner for the offense of which he has just been convicted, inasmuch as our sentence must be to a different prison from that to which his sentence assigns him, and we will therefore suspend judgment until the expiration of his term of imprisonment in the prison of Lancaster county.

It is ordered that the defendant be delivered into the custody of the prison of Lancaster county, and that a detainer be lodged with the keeper so that, at the expiration of his term of imprisonment in that county, said John Frankford may be again brought before this court to receive sentence for the offense of which he has been here convicted.

They will have no use hereafter for any of the territory south of Mason and Dixon's line.—Pittsburg Times.

About thirty persons came with the York club to witness the game this afternoon. The Daily of that town thinks that "the Ironides will find that the York boys are no infants at the national game." A party of twenty-five left Lancaster this morning for the grove, and a number more are expected to follow in a day or two. These Grangers' picnics, which for several years past have been held under the management of Mr. Thomas of Mechanicsburg, have proved heretofore to be very large and very delightful gatherings, and have been attended by the most distinguished men of this and adjoining states. The present picnic is expected to equal if not eclipse those heretofore held.

Tree Shows Down. The storm yesterday blew down the large silver maple in front of Clark Whitson's residence in West Chestnut street, and the tree in falling tore down the awning and broke some of the slate on the roof of Mr. J. E. Debb's residence.

A Youthful Offender. This afternoon a 12 year old boy, Louis Heible, entered the belting factory of Potts & Co., and stole from the vest pocket of Matthias Ziegler, one of the workmen, a double case of live water. Mr. Ziegler had left his vest hanging in the boiler room while he was at work upstairs. The watch was soon missed, and suspicion fell upon the boy, who had been seen in the boiler room a short time before. Mr. Ziegler followed him and arrested him, and found the watch in his possession. He was locked up for a hearing.

A New School House Accepted. The property committee of the Lancaster school board visited the new school house on Ann street this morning and after thoroughly inspecting it accepted it from the contractor, Mr. Burger.
