TUESDAY FVENING, AUG. 28, 1883,

RARY IN CHURCH. Aunt Neltie had fashioned a dainty thing, Of Hamburg and ribbon and lace, And mamma has said, as she settled it 'roun Our beautiful baby's face, Where the dimples play and the laughter lies Like sunbeams hid in her violet oyes : "It the day is pleasant, and the baby is good She may go to church and wear her new hood."

Then Ben, aged six, began to tell, In elder-brotherly way, How very, very good she must be If she went to church next day.

He told of the church, the choir and th And the man up in front who talked so loud But she must not talk, nor laugh, nor sing. But just sit as quiet as anything.

And so, on a beautiful Sabbath in May, When the fruit-buds burst into flowers, (There wasn't a blossom on bush or tree So fair as this blossom of ours), All in her white dress, dainty and new, Our baby sat in the tamily pew. The grand, sweet music, the reverent air, The solemn hush and the voice of prayer

Filled all her baby soul with awe, As she sat in her little place, And the holy look that the angels wear seemed pictured on her face. And the sweet words uttered so long ago Came into my mind with a rhythmic flow. "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven," ss

And I know that he spake of such as she

The sweet-voiced organ pealed forth again, The collection box came around, And baby dropped her penny in, And smiled at the chinking sound Alone in the choir Aunt Nelly stood, Waiting the close of the soft prelude, To begin her solo. High and strong She struck the first note, clear and long.

She held it, and all were charmed but one, Who with all the might she had, Sprang to her little feet and cried : " Aunt Nellic you's being bad!" The audience smiled, the minister coughed, The little boys in the corner laughed, The tenor-man shook like an aspen leaf

And hid his face in his handkerchief. And poor Aunt Nellie never could tell How she finished that terrible strain, But says that nothing on earth would tempt Her to go through the scene again. So, we have decided perhaps 'tis best, For her sake, ours, and all the rest, That we wait, maybe, for a year or two,

A Political Outfit. Burdette, in Enquirer.

Ere our baby re-enter the family pew.

Be something, young man. If none of the existing parties satisfy you, organize one of your own and go "slashing around." But have a politic. Institute a war cry. View with alarm and point with pride on your own hook, but do view and point. If you are very vigorous you may also at times "recoil with horror." You will find this very effective toward the close of the campaign. If I had time, my son, I be lieve I could fit you out with a full and complete assortment of tools, weapons and armor for politics.

You should have at the opening of the tioned:

One dozen kegs of nails wherewith to nail the enemy's lies. Shriek every time you nail a lie : Down with the Mormons A few judicious lies to toss around care lessly, and not too early, just to keep him busy. Shout when you scatter them. Say something mean about the Mormons.

A few" demands" for things that we already have, and have had for 50 years. Nobody will notice this if you only yell them out lustily and with the air of a mau who is saying something new. The older the "demand" the louder you must yell when you make it. "Demand" especially that the Mormons be suppressed.

Some " pledges " more or less. Pledge yourself to something easy-the abolition of Mormonism, the abolition of slavery, and unyielding opposition to the payment of the Confederate bonds by the state of Obio. Roar about it, and give it to the Mormons red hot.

Rember the soldiers. This is emineutly proper, patriotic and cheap. 'Twon't cost you a cent. Stand upon the house tops and in a loud voice call them "the de fenders of the Republic," and declare that they shall have their rights. Along near the close of the campaign you might also promise them their lefts. That's what they'll get anyhow, but you needn't say anything about that. Keep as noisy as possible, and howl: "The Mormons must go !" Arraign the administration ! Oh! every time arraign the administration. And common arraignment will not do. If any platform contains not a scathing arraigi. ment of the administration the same is a liar and a horse thief, be the same more or less. If, unfortunately, you are on the side of the administration, then you must arraign the other party. But you labor under a great disadvantage if you are in with the administration. It is so much easier to stand in the street and throw stones at the window than it is to stand in the window and throw stones into the street.

An Irishman's Letter.

From an Irishman to h is son in Dublin "Dear Son: If you are well when this letter reaches you we are well. By the bearer I send you my old brown coat, get a 'new one' made out of it. Your mother sends you, unbeknow-ing to me, five pounds. I hope you will not spend them foolishly; if you do, I just can tell you that you are a silly goose, and I remain your affectionate father. P. S.—Your sister Sally wanted me to tell you to send her a shell comb, but as I forgot it this time, and the letter was already sealed, I will mention it in my next."

Let Us Tell You. Let us tell you that a person who is billious or constipated is not a well person, and furthur, that nearly every one is subject to these irregularities. Let us tell you also, that Burdock Blood Billers are one of the truest diverties and aperients ever yet devised. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

No Deception Used. It is strange so many people will continue to suffer day after day with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, Sour Stomach, General Debility, when they can procure at our store SHILOH'S VITALIZEE, iree of cost if it does not cure or relieve them. Price, 75 cents. Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The People Astonished. Many people are astonished when they discover the wide circulation of Thomas Electric Oil. There is hardly a drug house in the country that does not have this remedy upon its shelves. The public have found it is a good thing and stick to it. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

MEDICAL

BROWN'S IBON BITTERS. THE PECULIAR OLD MYSTERY.

It was one of the peculiarities of the old-inchioned doctors that never would tell their patients what they were prescribing for them. They said it would do the patients no good to know, and that it would only be gratifying a foolish curiosity. In order to keep patient from knowing, they would write the prescriptions in dog-Latin, so that most patients could not read them. All that sort of thing is now over. The patient wants to know what he takes. He is weak, and wants to be strong, or he is dyspeptic, and wants to digest well-Or he has a troublesome liver which he wants to put to rights. So he takes Brown's Iron Bitters about which there is no mystery at at all. This is the best preparation of iron in the world in combination with gentle yet efficient tonics. It gives strength. It builds up enfeebled systems. It enriches impoverished blood. It removes feminine weaknesses It casts out debility. It is what you want, and your druggist has it.
