THE DOCTORS.

Pennsylvania and Maryland Union Medical Association.

The sixth annual reunion of the Pennsylvania and Maryland Union medical association, composed of medical societies of Franklin, York, Lancaster, Chester, Lebanon, Cumberland, Perry and Dauphin counties of this state, and Harford and Cecil counties, Maryland, was held at Mont Alto park, about ten miles from Chambersburg, Thursday. The gathering of physicians was large, the medical societies of all the above counties, except Dauphin, being present with wives, daughters and sweethearts.

An address of welcome was delivered by Dr. John Montgomery, of Chambersburg, and Dr. W. W. Dale, of Carlise, delivered the president's annual address.

A committee, composed of one member from each county represented, was appointed to nominate officers for the ensuing year, and shortly after reported the following ticket which was unanimously elected: President, J. L. Zeigler, of Mt. Joy; vice presidents, S. B. Keefer, of Carlisle, and John Lineaweaver, of Columbia; secretary and treasurer, S. J. Rouse, of York.

Dr. Zeigler, in a brief speech, thanked the society for the honor conferred and afterwards appointed the following executive committee: Edward Jackson, West Chester, Pa.; W. D Bailey, York; Alexander Craig, Columbia; John Montgomery, Chambersburg, and S. T. Roman, Conowingo, Md. The executive committee at once held a session and decided that the next reunion shall be held at Ephrata Mountain Springs, Lancaster county. After the business session the day was pleasantly spent by the doctors in dancing to the music of a good orchestra and in visiting many beautiful points in the park.

Burglars About.

Last evening the family of Mrs. Wm. Carpenter, on North Duke street were frightened by noises, which sounded as though some one was walking on the tin roof of the back part of the house. It was supposed that burglars were about as they first made an attempt to get in at one of the windows, after which the noises were heard on the roof. Harry Carpenter went after the chief of police, and they made an examination of the premises but found no one,

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Events Near and Across the County Lines.

Jacob Forney, of Cornwall township, Berks county, while searching his house for burglars on Tuesday night accidentally shot and dangerously wounded himself.

The Allegheny county prohibition convention yesterday nominated Hon. Thomas M. Marshall and Colonel Levi Bird Duff for judges of common pleas court No. 2; C. C. Cornelius, for district attorney; and H. L. Franz, of Turtle Creek, for director of the poor.

A charter has been issued to the Girard water company of Schuylkill county to supply the township of West Mahanoy with water. The business office is located in Philadelphia, and the directors are Louis Wagner, Alexander Biddle, James Campbell, William W. Dreyer and Wm. B. Mann.

The citizens of Reading are uttering loud complaints about the water furnished the city. It has in some manner become polluted, has a fishy smell and is very unpalatable. The board of health has taken the matter in hand, and has notified the water commissioners, who will look into and have the matter remedied.

A large force of laborers have been put to work by Nolan and Booreel, the contractors for the Pennsylvania railroad at Reading end of the line. Tool houses are being erected and preparation for building a large house for quartering the men. A very deep cut will have to be made on the western side of the Schuylkill river, between Swartz's mill and Lover's Leap.

Two men, who in every way resemble Bock and Rauch, the notorious thieves and highwaymen of Lebanon and neighboring counties, and who, while serving a sentence in the Lebanon jail, escaped from that institution about a year ago, were seen near Mount Zion yesterday. Since their escape numerous robberies have been committed, and no doubt the escaped convicts were the perpetrators. They were bold enough to take supper at the farm house of Josiah Urich, near Myerstown, and the same night Hunsecker's store, at Mount Zion, was entered and robbed of some $30 in money and $100 worth of goods. They were next heard of at the farm house of Jacob Forney, near the Horse Shoe turnpike, in Cornwall township. Forney and his wife were awakened at night. Accompanied by their hired man, they went in search of Bock and Rauch. Mr. Forney's revolver was prematurely discharged, and, as a result, the ball passed through his right foot. The burglars escaped. Bock and Rauch are given the credit for committing numerous other small burglaries within the past week.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

The Case Against the City for Damages.

In the case of Mary Kline vs. the city of Lancaster, the plaintiff concluded their testimony yesterday afternoon. The defendant then moved for a non suit on the ground that evidence for the plaintiff showed contributary negligence on the part of the deceased. It was shown that the boxes had been carelessly loaded on the wagon and therefore the deceased should not have driven from the position occupied, and further that the deceased knew of the gutter being unsafe. The court refused the non suit.

The defense was opened shortly before 10 o'clock this morning. It was claimed that the deceased was guilty of negligence himself, as he occupied a seat that was very precarious and from which he was liable to be thrown at any moment, when the wheels might strike a stone or anything else. It was especially dangerous for a man to occupy a seat of this kind on a wagon with such low wheels and no springs. It is further claimed that when deceased slid or fell from the load he came down astride of the tongue with both his feet on the ground. In this position he walked along for 70 feet and the horses made no attempt whatever to get away until they were frightened by the striking of the wagon against the iron fence of the Presbyterian church; they then began running and he fell under the wheels, receiving fatal injuries: he drew one of the reins, which caused the horses to strike the fence and run away, and it was not the gutter which was the cause of the man's death. On trial.

Viewers Appointed.

The court appointed the following viewers to assess the damages to John B. Eshbach, of Millersville, by the taking of a portion of his land for the erection of a school house: Martin N. Brubaker, East Hempfield; Wm. M. Slamaker, Lancaster; Emanuel P. Keller, Manheim.

AROUND LITITZ.

Items Clipped from the "Record."

While W. H. Enck, of Lititz, was driving to Lancaster Wednesday, and while going down the big hill below New Haven his horse began to run, and looking for the cause he found that one side of the shaft was loose, caused by losing a bolt. The horse ran faster and faster, and when near the bottom of the hill came in contact with a lot of cattle. He ran into one of them, which upset the horse and the steer, the latter getting fast under the buggy, while Mr. Enck rolled out of the vehicle over horse and steer. He fell on his head, bruised it somewhat, but the horse was not much hurt, neither was the buggy broken to any extent.

The Lititz and Rothsville pike is nearly completed, but property owners and stock holders of the pike are not pleased. They are specially dissatisfied with the manner of the building of the two bridges.

Thieves are operating around Clay, and Thursday the store of G. W. Steinmetz, at that place, was robbed of a considerble amount of goods.

Struck by an Engine.

Yesterday afternoon Bertram Welchans, aged 6 years, son of Wm. Welchans, of West Chestnut street, was playing with some companions in Water street. He ran for a ball, which was lying on the railroad when he was struck by the cowcatcher of the engine attached to the North bound passenger train. He was thrown upon the pavement and besides having an ugly cut in his head was badly bruised about the body. Dr. George R. Welchans dressed the wound. The little fellow made a very narrow escape from being killed.

More Tobacco Warehouses.

Bausman & Burns, real estate agents, yesterday rented for Mr. Henry Martin, the third brick tobacco warehouse, to Messrs. Foster, Hilson & Co., on a five year lease. The warehouse is to be 41 by 97 feet, two stories, basement and attic, with all the conveniences and improvements of a first class house.

Bausman & Burns also, a few days ago sold 50 feet of ground for the Coonley estate, to Drs. B. S. Kendig, in addition to his former purchase of the warehouse, and 32 feet of ground.

A Runaway Returned.

Wm. Shindle, a son of John Shindle, who ran away from home about four weeks ago, was traced to Cigarville, a short distance from Syracuse, N. Y. His father sent Officer Burns, of the city police force, to bring the boy home and he arrived with him safely to-day. As he had a good home here and had rather hard times while he was away it is not likely that he will want to resume his wanderings.

Good Fishing.

Yesterday John Kepner, Alfred Clay and James R. Garvin went fishing in the Conestoga near Rock Hill, and had excellent luck. They caught 31 fine bass and a large string of catfish and eels.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.

To be Operated by the Sisters of St. Francis.

St. Joseph's hospital will be opened in another month by Mother Mary Agnes, of the order of St. Francis. The mother house of this order in the United States is at 4th and Reed streets, Philadelphia, and St. Joseph's in this city will be run as a branch establishment to St. Mary's hospital, in Philadelphia, corner of Master and Palmer streets. The convent wherein the sisters reside is at Glen Riddle. Hospitals similar to that which is about to be established here have been founded in Trenton and Baltimore by the indefatigable efforts of Mother Agnes. One is also in course of erection in Reading and an institution of the order, on a very extensive scale is located at Broad street and Passayunk road, Philadelphia.

It is the intention of the management of the hospital to take all patients, irrespective of creed, poor as well as rich. There will also be a public dispensary in connection with the place and sisters will be sent out of the hospital on request to nurse all manner of diseases. It will be operated on a strictly charitable basis and will be a great boon to the suffering poor of the city, the old and decrepit, orphans and friendless of all ages and both sexes being received without distinction. The building has been purchased by the order from Michael Haberbush, who bought it recently at sheriff's sale.

The order in this country originated 25 years ago, when a lady and her daughter started a small hospital at the corner of 5th and Girard avenue, Philadelphia. Not long afterwards they were received into the order of St. Francis by Bishop New man, their principal mission being the caring for the sick. From that time forward the order prospered, until at present its charitable field is very extensive. On the death of the foundress and her daughter, Mother Agnes became head of the order, and to her efforts in large part are due the erection of the many successful hospitals which these sisters now control. The necessity of an institution of this kind has been long apparent in Lancaster, and the broad ground of making no distinction in creed or conditions in those who may need its blessings, is an eminent proper one on which to base a charity hospital.

POISONED.

Nightshade Mistaken for Pennyroyal.

Yesterday Mrs. James P. Myers and her cousin Miss Mumma, who reside at No. 559½ North Queen street, were badly poisoned by drinking a tea made of night shade, which they mistook for pennyroyal and they are still lying in a rather critical condition, though it is believed both of them will recover. It appears that Miss Mumma purchased yesterday at Heitshu's drug store, No. 311 North Queen street, three one ounce packages of what was supposed to be pennyroyal. They were waited upon by a boy, who by mistake gave them two packages of pennyroyal and one package of night-shade—the packages being of the same size and nearly the same color, though two of them were distinctly marked "Pennyroyal" and the other "Nightshade." On reaching home they opened one of the packages without looking at the label. It happened to be the nightshade. They made a tea of a portion of the contents, and partook of it. They became very sick, and Dr. Yaegley was sent for. He saw that they were poisoned, and an examination of the package from which the tea was made disclosed the nature of the poison. Proper antidotes was administered, and though the women are confined to their beds and suffer greatly the physicians believe they will recover.

Leg Crushed.

Thursday afternoon about 5 o'clock, a son of John Sellers, who resides between Bird in-Hand and Monterey, met with a serious accident while assisting in hauling tobacco from a field at Bird in hand. The breaking of a single tree scared the horses and they started to run off. Young Mr. Sellers became entangled in the torn harness and was thrown, and the heavy farm wagon passed over one of his legs above the ankle, crushing both the bones. The sufferer was carried first to the residence of Mr. George Sigle where he was made as comfortable as possible, and thence to his home, where the fractured bones were set.

Held for Homicide.

C. Warfel, who some time ago threw a stone at a son of Samuel Gross and struck him on the head, inflicting a wound which eventually superinduced lockjaw and caused the boy's death some days ago, was arrested last evening and committed to the county jail for a hearing.

"Two Christmas Eves."—The beautiful play, entitled "Two Christmas Eves," with Miss Annie Berlein in the leading role, will be presented in the opera house on Monday night. Miss Berlein is a fine actress and a handsome woman. A dress which she will wear in the play is now on exhibition in the store window of Astrich Bros. The New York World has this to say of the actress and play: "The plot is quite effective. In the character of 'Bessie Woodford,' a farmer's daughter, Miss Berlein exhibited rare emotional powers a dramatic force that must in time, make her a great favorite. Her mad scene at the close of the third act was very effective and won the plaudits of a large and fashionable audience."

SECOND EDITION.

FRIDAY EVENING, AUG. 31. 1883.

FRENCH AFFAIRS.

THE REPUBLIC IN NO DANGER.

M. Ferry's Belief in the Weakness of the Royalists—Other Late Foreign Transactions.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—M. Jules Ferry, the French prime minister, in an interview at Marseilles said that the Count de Chambord's death had in no wise disturbed the government of France. He declared that if the general elections were held to-day hardly thirty royalists would be returned. Royalist demonstrations in France, he said, would be adversely depressed, and if the Count de Paris should issue a manifesto he would not be allowed to return to France, or if he did return he would be expelled.

Nearing a Crisis.

The Marseilles correspondent of the Daily News says: "Admiral Meyer, who commands the French naval division in Chinese waters, has been formally ordered to arrest, even by force, every Chinese boat carrying arms or troops. He has also been ordered, in case of a rupture between France and China, to make an immediate attack on Canton and other Chinese ports."

Severe Measures to Suppress Outrages on the Jews.

PESTH, Aug. 31.—Hon. Tisza, president of the Hungarian council, in order to check outrages upon the Jews has decided upon severe measures. They provide that any one condemned to death by martial law shall be executed three hours after sentence is imposed.

A Severe Storm at Cape Breton.

NORTH SYDNEY, C. B., Aug. 31.—The tower of the Catholic church was carried away and a large wooden building was moved from its foundations by the storm of Wednesday night. The storm extended for miles in this vicinity, but no other serious damage is reported.

Deaths from Cholera.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 31.—Eleven deaths from cholera took place here yesterday.

THE TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

Dr. Green Gives His Reasons Why the Strike Should not Have Been Successful.

NEW YORK, Aug 31.—Dr. Green was again before the senatorial committee on labor and education this morning. He testified to the sanctity of telegrams entrusted to his company and said messages were "as sacred as communications made to a priest, a lawyer or a physician." In answer to Senator George, witness said that when the strike occurred, it would have been fatal to the interests of the company to have yielded, as that would have been an admission that it would be in the power of the operators to dictate terms. Senator George then questioned the witness as to the sufficiency of the wages paid by the company to telegraph operators. Dr. Green replied that "the relation between the company and their employes was regulated strictly by the law of supply and demand. The salaries paid were equitable and just, and that was proven by the fact that no other telegraph company who paid similar wages ever made any money."

Senator George: "Is it or is it not the policy of the Western Union to break up combination of its employes organized for the purpose of securing an advance of wages?"

KILLED WITH A CLUB

The Fatal Result of a Policeman's Too Free Use of His Mace.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The autopsy was made this morning on the body of John Smith, who was killed, as alleged, by a blow from a club in the hands of Police Officer McNamara, on Wednesday evening last. It revealed that the cause of death was a fracture of the occipital bone running into the base of the skull four inches in length. From the locality of the wound, the coroner gives it as his opinion that it could not have been procured by a fall, but must have been the result of a violent blow, such as would be made by a club.
