FRIDAY FVENING, AUG. 31, 1888,

SIR GALAMAD. They say he died in olden time, Crowned with immortal glory;

Hearts have sighed, and eyes been wet Above this old, sweet story. For me still lives Sir Galahad I see him, plain and common, Sit at his deak and wield his pen,

For me he wears a wreath of bay, No other eyes behold it; He does not know that day by day Sweet angel hands unfold it.

Only a modern human.

Each hour thus given to patient toil, When given for human loving. Takes from man's soul a stain or soil,

'Neath heavenly eyes approving. He walks life's path with other men,

Unconscious of the splendor That's shed about his knightly soul In radiance warm and tender. My heart springs forth to meet his own,

Not in your modern fashion, But shrouded in the griefs I've known, With naught of mortal passion.

I only know my Galahad Has seen the Holy Grail, And, looking in his patient eyes, How can my courage tail? -Eleanor L. Sazon, in Memphis Appeal.

The first prize, consisting of $200, a gold medal, a diploma and the purchase of two machines, was awarded to the McCormick machine. The second, $100, a silver medal and diploma, was awarded the Messrs. Warder, Bushnell & Geissner.

RESCUED FROM DEATH The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the sum-mer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and med icines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case in got a brittle to satisfy them, when to my surprise a d gratification, I commenced to feel better My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to lay I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years. "I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Direased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. 1 have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sick-ness. THE PECULIAR OLD MYSTERY.

It was one of the peculiarities of the old-tashioned doctors that never would tell their patients what they were prescribing for them, They said it would do the patients no good to know, and that it would only be gratifying a foolish curiosity. In order to keep patients from knowing, they would write the prescriptions in dog-Latin, so that most patients could not read them. All that sort of thing is now over. The patient wants to know what he takes. He is weak, and wants to be strong, or he is dyspeptic, and wants to dige:t well Or he has a troublesome liver which he wants to put to rights. So he takes Brown's Iron Bitters about which there is no mystery at at all. This is the best preparation of iron in the world, in combination with gentle yet efficient tonics. It gives strength. It builds up enfeebled systems. It enriches impoverished blood. It removes feminine weaknesses It casts out debility. It is what you want, and your druggist has it.
