REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Events Along the Susquebanua-Items Interest in and Around the Borough

Picked up by the Intelli-Two disgraceful fights occurred on Tow hill yesterday. One was the beating of Annie Turner by her husband, James Turner, for which the latter was arrested by Officer Struck. The stupid policeman sat down on Turner's door step to wait until the latter changed his clothing, when the prisoner escaped by a rear window and has not yet been recaptured. Another, a tongue fight, and one of foul epithets, took place at a later hour. The principals were Annie Siscoe and Mrs. Lew Hamilton, both of whom should have been lodged in the lockup. All the above parties were colored.

Looking After the Bridge. Messrs, J. B. Hutchinson, superintend ent, W. B. Brooks, master carpenter, and John S. Nichols, supervisor of the Fred erick railroad, examined the piers of the river bridge yesterday. Ten new ones are to be built, but work on them will not be commenced until next summer. No. 4 safety from the nettle danger in yester-day's contest with the Molineux club of ligious training of her children might Philadelphia, which was marked by a very poor fielding exhibition and some spurts of heavy batting. Twice did the visitors have the game in their hands, but remendous slugging on the part of the fronsides, assisted by numerous errors on the part of the visitors, turned the tide.

Oldfield opened the game with a base hit. and Schiller reached first base on a passed ball, Oldfield going to third. Sweitzer then batted a hot liner which was beautifully taken by the pitcher with his right hand and fielded to third in time to catch Oldfield. Zecher and Sixsmith then folowed with base hits, bringing Schiller in, and Miller closed the inning by being retired at first. For the visitors two men were given bases on errors and heavy batting and more errors enabled them to make five runs before they were retired. Three rups in the third and one in the fourth enabled the home club to tie the score, but the visitors again came to the front by making three runs in the fifth and one in the seventh inning, at the same time presenting their opponents with

The score thus stood 9 to 5 against the Ironsides in the beginning of the eighth inning, and their prospects for victory seemed exceedingly slim. Miller and Hyndman succeeded in getting their bases when Hofford inaugurated the batting by bringing both men in on a good hit. From that time forward the visitors became demoralized making the most costly errors, which with the heavy batting of the Iron sides netted the latter ten runs. The visitors did not again score, and the Ironsides added another run to their total in the last inning. The fact that the home team had just returned from a tiresome journey probably accounted for the loose play in the early part of the game, but their terrible slugging later on fully atoned for their defect in that respect. Below is appended the full score :

This afternoon the Ironsides are playing the Werntz club, which has defeated all of the best amateur clubs in Philadelphia, including the August Flower. To-morrow the club will rest and on Saturday will resume operations on the Alexandria, Va., club, which certainly can play ball.

The Active Quickstep game was decided yesterday. At the cut of the second in-ning the score stood, Quickstep 8 Active 3. The latter's catcher, Kappel, was playing poorly, and they insisted upon substitu-ting Carroll. The Quicksteps refused to allow it and stopped playing. The umpire waited fifteen minutes, and they not taking the field be decided in the Active's

The Easton Express of last evening devotes a long article to the second game of base ball which was played between the club of that place and the Ironsides The Ironsides are called "grumblers" and "kickers," because they saw fit to take exceptions to the decisions of an unjust umpire. The Ironsides are not the boys to grumble when they receive fair treatment, which they did not in Easton. Long foul balls were called fair by the umpire because they enabled the home team to score, and men who were unable to hit Hofford at all were allowed to take their bases on balls when they should have been put out on strikes, the balls having hit over the plates. About three fourths of the article in the Express is in praise of this umpire who, by the way, aspires to ful that position for the inter state association sive improvements are being made on South Fourth street.—Joseph Ceoper and playing when he gets there, and if his reputation for fairness is so good, it is not necessary for him to receive a half column bost from a newspaper. Death of Mrs. H. E. McConomy. Mrs. Mary A. McConomy, wife of Al derman H. R. McConomy, and eldest daughter of the late William Carpenter, died at the family residence, No. 38 North Prince street, about half past four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, aged 40 years. She was a native of Lincaster, was educated in our schools and was graduated from the girls' high school. She married Mr. Me-Conumy in 1868, was the mother of eight children, seven of whom-five boys and two girls-are living. She was a most admirable wife and mother, always cheerful, gentle, kind and considerate of the interests and happiness of her family. As is said of the model woman by the inspired wreter: "She opened her mouth with wisdom; and on her tongue was the the Columbia steamer 20 pounds of steam law of kindness. baptized and confirmed by that eminert prelate. To Mrr. McConolny's very large circle of friends and relatives her death, though not unexpected, will be a source of poignaut grief, while to her stricken husband, and her seven children, the eldest of whom is only fourteen and the youngest less than two years old, her loss is indeed irreparable. But she died the death of the righteous, and in a full hope of a blessed immortality through the redemption of a Savior. whose teachings she so earnestly sought to follow.

He was born in Chester Valley, Pa., July 1, 1810, and was graduated at Princeton college in 1831 and pursued his theological studies in the seminary of that place, being ordained by the presbytery of New Castle in 1837. refugees from that place when he removed with his family to Philadelphia, where he has resided permanently ever since. In 1867, in connection with his daughter and Mrs. Henrietta Kautz, he established a young ladies' boarding seminary, on Walnut street, Philadelphia. He presided over this institution until the marriage of his daughter in 1878, when he retired to private life. In 1841 he married Mary, daugter of Hon. Robert Jenkins, of Windsor, this county, who was eminent as an iron master, and for a term or two, repre sented his district in Congress. Mrs. Latta died in 1869. Somewhat less than two years ago Mr Lauer became financially embarrassed through unfortunate indorsements, and was obliged to make an assignment. His liabilities were very heavy, but, though he was upwards of 70 years of age, he set to work with characteristic energy to retrieve his fortunes. He organized the Lauer brewing company and a few months ago had succeeded in so arranging matters that he was practically on his feet again and had his large business under his own control.

Two Men Instantly Killed. Yesterday on the farm of Abraham Derholtzer, five miles above Elizabethown, Simeon Brinser and Jacob J. Kline were instantly killed by the explosion of the botter of a portable thresher of which Brinser was in charge. The boiler and engine were blown to pieces and both men were badly muilated. Both of them leave families who were dependent on them for support. The deputy coroner of Dauphin county held an inquest on their remains, and his jury ren-dered a verdict that their death was caused by the explosion, which occurred from causes unknown. Experts give it as their belief that the explosion was caused by want of water in the boilers.

WAR CLOUDS. THE POSITION OF FRANCE AND CHINA

Freuchmen Demanding an Explanation from their Government-China Getting Ready for the Conflict. Paris, Sept. 6.—The newspapers of this shall explain the real situation of affairs connected with the Tonquin difficulty. It is stated also that the Chamber of Deputies will probably be convoked to consider the relations between China and France. The general impression is that France has gone too far to retreat.

The French cabinet has decided that upon his arrival in Paris the Marquis Tseng, the Chinese ambassador, will be asked to explain the reasons for the movement of Chinese troops to the Tonquin frontier. The military is seriously weigh-ing the prospect of a war with China, which event is now considered by no means impossible.

The National says there is reason to be leve that there will be a French naval lemonstration on the Chinese coast in the direction of Canton.
According to Mandarin accounts 1,200

Annamites were killed and 1 500 wounded during the recent bombardment of the forts on the Hue river.

Preparing for War A dispatch from Hong Kong, dated today, says that no Chinese men of war have arrived there from the North. Three Chinese transports reached Pakoi a fortnight ago with 751 regulars and 1,750 militia arrived at Canton on Saturday last on board a merchant steamer. Large quantities of supplies and provisions are being collected and stored at Canton.
