

Common Pleas Court. Before Judge Livingston. The case of Adam Schmidt vs. the city and county of Lancaster was taken up yesterday. This was action to ascertain the amount of damages sustained by the plaintiff by extension of Lime from Locust to Low. After some of the testimony for the plaintiff had been heard, the city consented to give plaintiff $450 for his house and a verdict for that amount was taken, and the city solicitor withdrew from the case. They then proceeded with the case against the county for the taking of land. Both sides called witnesses to prove what damage they thought the plaintiff sustained. The jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff and against the county for $1,175, and against the city for $450, the latter amount having been agreed upon.

In the case of the Brickerville church the jury was discharged last evening until 10 o'clock on Monday morning, when the hearing of testimony will be resumed.

In the matter of costs in the case of Frank Heber vs. the city and county of Lancaster, the court directed an alternative mandamus to issue, directed to the city and county for the payment of costs accrued in the land damage case recently tried.

Three issues were granted in which Catherine Afferer and her children shall be plaintiffs, and the city of Lancaster defendant, to try the right to certain property lying through the plaintiff's land, belonging to Jacob Afferer, but which is claimed by the plaintiff's.

Maggie Kissinger, of this city, was divorced from her husband, John M. Kissinger, on the grounds of desertion.

Jacob was sentenced to an imprisonment of two months and to pay a fine of $75. Andrew was sentenced to pay a fine of $75. The other defendants, who were convicted with them, have not yet been sentenced.

The Harrisburg Combination nine will play the Dauntless, of Mt. Joy, at the latter place this afternoon.

The Dauntless, of Mt. Joy, will play the Ironsides, Jr., in this city on Wednesday, if the game can be arranged for that date.

The Ironsides, Jr., created a very favorable impression by their gentlemanly conduct here—Mr. Jay Herald.

The Chambersburg nine were defeated by the Carlisle team yesterday by the score of 3 to 1.

The York team have a new pitcher named Herz who struck 10 out in the game yesterday.

The York club defeated the Harrisburg Combination team yesterday by the score of 15 to 8 and they are playing the Chambersburg nine to-day. The score will be received at this office.

The Athletics are now several boat lengths ahead of any of their competitors in the championship race, and the dreadful suspense in which the country has languished is already fading away like the baseless fabric of a vision.

This afternoon the Eastons are playing with the Ironsides. This game was not arranged until last night at 10 o'clock. This morning the town was well filled and the crowd is likely to be large, as the games between the clubs must be interesting.

So far the Eastons are playing at the Ironsides one. The Eastons will remain in the city over Sunday and play another game on Monday.

The Treacherous Steam Thresher. New Holland Clarion. Sometime during Tuesday Mr. Martin Hoover, residing near this place, who has a steam thresher, after finishing threshing at the barn of Mr. Chas. Musser, about a mile north of town, prepared to go to a stack on the same farm. There was a good head of steam on the engine, and the fire was not removed. The weight was taken off the "flip up" and it was tied down with a string. Two mules were hitched to the engine wagon but they had not proceeded far until the string fastened to the "flip up" tore and the steam belched forth furiously, which caused the mules to endeavor to get out of the way of the iron horse. In their fright they ran about the field at a furious gait, upsetting the engine and tearing off the smoke stack and doing considerable other damage to it.

Change of Armory. The local military company, which for some time has had Roberts' hall as its place of rendezvous, will in future occupy Excelsior hall as an armory.
