THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Poles for Centre Square—The City to be Lighted in Five or Six Weeks. This morning the men employed by the Maxim electric light company dropped four heavy chestnut poles in Centre Square. One of them will be erected in front of the New Era office, another in front of Locher & Son's banking house, another in front of Hirsh's clothing store and another in front of the Western Union telegraph office. The entire number of posts thus far erected by the Maxim company is 500, and 150 more are yet to be put up, making 650 in all. Mr. Drake, the manager, says he expects to have the city lighted with electricity in the course of five or six weeks, if he is not interfered with.

Two 70-horse power engines are being placed in Cox's carriage shop to supply power to generate the electricity, and a soon as the poles shall all be in place, workmen will commence putting up the electric wire, which will be thoroughly insulated, thus obviating the necessity of cutting away the branches of the shade trees among which the wires will pass.

"Only a Miner's Daughter. There was a small audience, but a sufficiently large one, in Fulton opera house last evening to witness a play sailing under the title of "Only a Miner's Daughter," with Emma Hendricks as the heroine. It was an exceedingly unique presentation, from the fact that the whole piece is a miserable conglomeration of trashy rot, which affects intelligent appreciation as an ancient egg appals the trils, while Miss Hendricks is a handsome young lady and acts like a school girl who has been on the stage but half a dozen times, with a support that about equals the worth of the play.

RESCUED FROM DEATH

The following statement of William J. Cough tn, ot Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the sum-mer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BAISAM FOR THE LUNGS. A TERRIBLE DEED IN ST. LOUIS. An Engineer Shoots His Wife and Brother-IB-Law, and Afterwards Cuts

His Own Throat.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 11.—Meagre in-formation through police sources was fur-nished late last night of one of the shots at him. All of the shots took effect and will prove fatal. Blessing then fired two shots at his wife, both of which struck her, inflicting dangerous wounds. The unfortunate man then escaped from the house and cluded pursuit for an hour when he was found in the garret of his house with his throat cut from ear to ear, but was not dead. He was taken to the dispensary, where he attempted to explain his acts, but could not talk on account of his wind pipe being nearly severed. He was then taken to the hospital, where wounded wife and brother in-law had already been taken, and where they now lie in a very critical condition. No explanation of the affair has yet been obtained, but it is supposed to have originated in a family quarrel and a fit of insane jealousy.

The France and Uhma Improgilo. LONDON, Sept. 11 .- A dispatch from Hong Kong states that a Chinese mob at Canton burned the houses of several European merchants and also their wharves causing great consternation among the foreign residents, most of whom sought refuge on board vessels in the river. No violence was offered to persons, and a force of Chinees troops was called out which quickly dispersed the rioters. On the receipt of the intelligence at Hong Kong, several gun boats were immediately sent to Canton to afford protection to the foreign merchants.
