WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 12, 1883.

MARJORY MAY.

Marjory May came tripping from town,
Fresh as a pink in her trim white gown,
A picture was Marjory, slim and fair,
With her large sun-hat and her sunlit hair;
And down the green lane where I chanced to stray
I met, by accident, Marjory May.

Marjory May had come out for a stroll,
Past the gray church and round by the toll,
Perhaps by the wood and the wishing-stone.
There was sweet Marjory tripping alone.
"May I come too? now don't say me nay."
"Just as you please," laughed Marjory May.

So it fell out that we went on alone,
Round by the wood and the wishing stone;
And there I whispered the wish of my life—
Wished that sweet Marjory May were my wife,
"For I love you so dear. Is it aye or nay?
Come, answer me quickly, sweet Marjory May!"

Marjory stood; not a word did she speak,
Only the red blood flushed in her cheek:
Then she looked up with a grave, sweet smile
(The flush dying out of her face the while).
"I like you so much, but not in that way,
And then there is John," said Marjory May.

Years have rolled on since that fair summer's day,
Still I'm a bachelor, old and gray.
Whenever I take my lonely stroll
Round by the wood, and back by the toll,
I pass by the house where her children play,
For John has married sweet Marjory May.

DEAD ON THE BEACH.

A Woman Driven to Suicide at Atlantic City by Her Husband's Misdeeds.

About half past 6 o'clock Tuesday morning the body of Mrs. Hambrick, wife of Paul R. Hambrick, late of Atlantic City, was discovered by a patrolmen of the life crew on the beach a half mile below the excursion houses at Atlantic City. The body was clad only in night clothes and had been in the water but a short time, as it was warm when found. A post mortem inquest will be held to morrow by Deputy County Physician Reed. Mrs. Hambrick has been living in Washington with a married daughter, the wife of a distinguished Washingtonian. She arrived here on Friday morning last, and secured rooms at "Wyld's Cottage" on the beach. She retired early on Monday night very much depressed. At 7 o'clock Tuesday morning a lady guest of the cottage went to call Mrs. Hambrick and tell her about the finding of a drowned woman. This was the first knowledge they gained of her absence. It is the impression that the deceased committed suicide, the result of the recent misdeeds of her husband, a man sixty four years of age. He came from Washington nearly three years ago and opened a stationary store in the lower part of the city. He was large, well preserved, of pleasing address, and soon became popular with the people of the neighborhood. He had been an officer in the late rebellion, was once secretary of the Hope insurance company and was a very interesting conversationalist. Two weeks ago the young daughters of three respectable citizens ran away from home. They were taken in custody in the Philadelphia post office, and there made the statement that Hambrick had improper relations with at least one of their number, and had contributed money to defray the expenses of their trip. Subsequent investigation revealed the fact that Hambrick had acted improperly with other children in Atlantic City, a number of little girls stating to Mayor Maxwell, in the presence of Rev. Mr. Dugan, that he had been guilty of gross impropriety. Meanwhile Hambrick had left town and sought refuge in Philadelphia, from where he addressed a letter to the editor of the Review, denying in the main the allegations against him, but admitting the loan of money to one of the runaway girls by the name of Lizzie Gale. Hambrick was a fair musician, and his Sunday occupation of late has been teaching Sabbath school children to sing. Some of the little girls with whom he misbehaved were these children. When Mrs. Hambrick arrived, discovered the absence of her husband and learned of his conduct she became very sad and said she often remonstrated with him on account of similar misdeeds. Deceased was an invalid 47 years of age.

For twenty-five years I have been severely afflicted with Hay Fever. While I was suffering intensely I was induced, through Mr. Tichenor's testimonial, to try Ely's Cream Balm. The effect was marvelous. It enabled me to perform my pastoral duties without the slightest inconvenience, and I have escaped a return attack. I pronounce Ely's Cream Balm a cure for Hay Fever. WM. T. CARR, Presbyterian Pastor, Elizabeth, N. J.

I can recommend Ely's Cream Balm to all Hay Fever sufferers, it being, in my opinion, founded upon experience and a sure cure. I was afflicted with Hay Fever for twenty-five years, and never before found permanent relief. WEBSTER H. HASKINS, Marshfield, Vt.

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen of this vicinity known to every one as a most influential citizen and christian minister of the M. E. church, just this moment stopped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumption Cure." It is having a tremendious sale over our counters and is giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of Lung Diseases, such as nothing else has done. DILL MATCHETT & PARNLE.

Looks Honest.

A clear bright open face somehow looks honest. A horse thief or burglar seldom carries such a face. Burdock Blood Bitters give the skin a peculiarly fine texture and clearness. They strengthen and enrich the circulation and so eradicate all eruption or blemish. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise a gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

Reasons Why You Feel Badly.

Because your stomach is not doing its work properly.
Because your liver is out of order and wants righting.
Because your blood is thin, and needs iron in it.
Because you are troubled with nervous aches and pains.
Because you are vexed with languor and debility.

All these Reasons Can be Set Aside by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters, which will Tone up your enfeebled stomach and help it to digest.

Refresh your wearied liver and put it in splendid order.
Enrich your watery blood and give it a rich red color.
Calm your worried nerves and give them restful peace.
Strengthen your whole system and drive debility and languor out.

Considering that any man who has a dollar may buy of the nearest druggist a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, there is no reason why people should continue to feel badly, just for the fun of it. s8-lwd&w

BENSON'S SKIN CURE.

[From Andrew's American Queen.]

CLEOPATRA

OR THE

Queen of Sheeba's Beauty

WAS BUT SKIN DEEP.

The renowned Queen of Sheba, with all her royal pomp, magnificent apparel and brilliant retinue would never have appeared within the presence of the grandest of the monarchs of the past, had she not also possessed that which is the crowning glory of the female person—a skin unchallenged for its Oriental softness and its almost transcendental purity. Cleopatra, holding emperors at bay, and ruling empires by her word, had quickly lost her charm and power by one attack of blotches, or of pimples, or of horrid tan and freckles.

WOMAN RULES THE WORLD

by her beauty, not less than by her purity of character, loveliness of disposition and unselfish devotion. Indeed, in the estimation of perhaps too many men beauty in a body takes precedence over every other consideration. Beauty thus forms an important part of woman's "working capital," without which too many, if not bankrupts in what ought to influence within the circle where they move, are powerless for great good. Hence we see not only the propriety but the duty of every lady preserving with zealous care that which to her is essential to success, and influence, and usefulness in life. And, since "beauty is but skin deep," the utmost care and vigilance are required to guard against the many ills that flesh is heir to. Among the great and annoying enemies of beauty, as well as of comfort, happiness and health, are those pestiferous and horrid skin diseases—tetters, humors, eczema (salt rheum), rough and scaly eruptions, ulcers, pimples, and all diseases of the hair and scalp. For the cure of all these, Dr. C. W. Benson, of Baltimore, after years of patient study and investigation devoted to diseases of the skin, at last brought forth his celebrated SKIN CURE, which has already by its marvelous cures, established itself as the great remedy for all disease of the skin, whatever be their names or character. Its success has been immense and unparalleled. All druggists have it. It is elegantly put up, two bottles in one package. Internal and external treatment. Price, $1.00.

OF EITHER SEX

EVERYONE PRAISES,

Sick headache, nervous headache, neuralgia, nervousness, paralysis, dyspepsia, sleeplessness and brain diseases, positively cured by Dr. C. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills. They contain no opium, quinine or other harmful drug. Sold by all druggists. Price, 50 cents per bottle, $1 for two, $2.50 for six, postage free.—Dr. C. W. Benson, Baltimore, Md.

NEVER FAILS.

SAMARITAN NERVINE.

"YOU CLAIM TOO MUCH for SAMARITAN NERVINE," says a skeptic. "How can one medicine be a specific for EPILEPSY, DYSPEPSIA, ALCOHOLISM, OPIUM EATING, RHEUMATISM, SPERMATORRHŒA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS and fifty other complaints?" We claim it a specific, simply because the virtues of all diseases arises from the blood. Its Nervine, Resolvent, Alterative, and Laxative properties meet all the conditions herein referred to. It's known world wide as

THE GREAT

Nerve Conqueror.

It quiets and composes the patient—not by the introduction of opiates and drastic cathartics, but by the restoration of activity to the stomach and nervous system, whereby the brain is relieved of morbid fancies, which are created by the causes above referred to.

To clergymen, lawyers, Literary Men, Merchants, Bankers, Ladies, and all those whose sedentary employment causes nervous prostration, irregularities of the bowel, stomach, bowels or kidneys, or who require a nerve tonic, appetizer or stimulant, SAMARITAN NERVINE is invaluable. Thousands proclaim it the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the staking system. $1.50. Sold by all Druggists. The DR. S. A. RICHMOND MED. CO., Proprietors, St. Joseph, Mo.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. V teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patterns of the well and favorably known Mowrey Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction. aug14-6md
