SECOND EDITION.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT 6, 1883.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS.

DISPATCHES FROM ALL AROUND.

A Meeting of the Mormons at Salt Lake City—Brigham Young, jr., Makes a Speech.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 6.—At a meeting of the conventionof Mormons last night there was a large assemblage of the "saints." Brigham Young, jr., was presented and made a strong address.

He said the powers of darkness were strengthening to overthrow the church of God, that there never was a time when they needed the powers of the spirit so much, but that no power on earth could overthrow the saints and that stronger revelations than those they had received were yet to come.

George Q. Cannon spoke in the same strain and said that "nothing but the spirit of God was sufficient to give them wisdom to guide them. God had rescued them from impending danger several times within the past six months." He spoke of the growth of the church and said that several temples were being built in the territory and that "God was providing plans to preserve the saints."

Apostle Snow said that "all the powers of heaven and hell could not prevail against the saints and that they would go on prospering."

The attendance is large and the meetings show the determination of the church to stand by polygamy.

TELEGRAPHIC TAPS.

Afternoon Telegrams Condensed.

At Chicago a fire broke out on the lower floor of the Hahneman hospital. The inmates were badly scared, but all escaped: damage slight.

At Philadelphia the cricket match between the All Philadelphia and All United States teams, begun on Thursday, was won to day by the United States team, with eight wickets to spare. The score: Philadelphia—first inning, 127; second inning, 70. United States—first inning, 140; second inning, 62, with the loss of only three wickets.

John Smith, colored, under sentence of death for murder at Baltimore, returned last evening to jail, from which he escaped last Thursday.

Philadelphia "Press," Price Two Cents.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—The Press this morning announces that henceforth the price of the daily Press will be two cents a copy instead of three as heretofore. The Press says editorially that it makes this material reduction because it "means to keep abreast of the foremost movements and the best popular results in journalism."

The Derr and Martin Burglary Case.

David Rutherford and John Shireman, charged with felonious entering the premises of Jacob Martin and attemping to enter the dwelling house of John Derr, both of which are near the village of Bainbridge, had a preliminary hearing before Alderman Spurrier to-day, and was continued until next Saturday morning at 10 a'clock on account of the absence of material witnesses. Rutherford gave bail and Shireman was committed.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—For the Middle Atlantic states local rains, north to east winds, falling followed by rising barometer, stationary or rising temperature.

A Synopsis of Foreign News.

There is a stronger probability that the Franco-Spanish imbroglio may be solved peaceably. The French minister, of war, General Thibaudin has resigned. A formal remonstrance by the Spanish minister, with a demand for the punishment of the insulters of King Alfonso, will, it is thought, be satisfactorily answered. The personal relations between the Spanish minister and premier are cordial. A Spanish mob has stoned the French consulate in Sarragossa.—It is thought that China's attitude in the Franco-Chinese complication may be due to English support.—Sir Stafford Northcote has denounced at a public meeting the English government's foreign and home policy, especially the latter towards the Home Rulers of Ireland.—On the heels of the news that an Irish society to hunt down informers has been organized, it is stated that an informer has disclosed the names of the murderers of Lord Mountmorres.—One hundred and seventy thousand English weavers demand higher wages.—English merchants will receive reimbursement for their losses by the French in Madagascar.—A great demonstration is expected at the funeral of the Russian writer, Turgeneff, and it is said the Nihilists intend to take part.
