OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

The Madison Square theatre company will appear to-night in "Young Mrs. Winthrop" at the opera house. The appearances are good for a full house. The troupe playing the piece is a superior one.

October 30 will be a gala day for Maytown, Simon Cameron's old home. Balloon ascensions, music, fireworks in the evening, and a grand time generally is laid down on the programme prepared for the occasion. The little town will doubtless be overrun with visitors.

The people of Manor street ask that the loafing on the Shawnee run foot bridge on 4th street be stopped. Passers over it, especially ladies and girls, are insulted frequently in the most outrageous manner The authorities should take cognizance of the matter and make a few examples of these rascally loafers.

The Evening Star, a little sheet which will appear whenever there is an entertainment in the opera house, appeared to-day for the first time. It need only be stated that it is a reproduction of the defunct Lancaster Owl to give its character. Ladies' and gentlemen's names are handled in a shameful manner.

WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. How to Secure Health.

Seems strange that any one will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when SCOVILL'S SARSAPARILLA AND TILLINGIA, or BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and as a spring medicine will be found the best BLOOD PURIFIER ever discovered, effectually curing Scrofula, Syphilitic disorders, Weakness of the Kidneys, Erysipelas, Malaria; all nervous disorders and debility, bilious complaints and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Skin, etc. It corrects indigestion. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for IT ACTS LIKE A CHARM, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system.

ALLEN'S PAIN PANACEA cures a pain in man and beast. For use externally and internally.

REDTHORSE POWDERS cure all diseases of horse, cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry and all Live Stock. A POSITIVE CURE. may24-2

For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store 137 North Queen street

In Small Pox, Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria Darbys Prophylactic Fluid will stop the spread of the infection.

For Hay Fever I recommend Ely's Cream Balm. It entirely relieved me from the first application; have been a sufferer for ten years, going from home and neglecting to take the remedy, I had an attack; after returning I immediately resorted to it, and found instant relief. I believe, had I begun its use earlier, I should not have been troubled. J. COLLYER, Clerk, 118 Broad St., Elizabeth, N. J.

My brother Myron and myself were both cured to all appearance, of Catarrh and Hay Fever last July and August. Up to this date, Dec. 28, neither have had any return of these troubles. Ely's Cream Balm was the medicine used. GABRIEL FERRIS, Spencer, Tioga Co. N. Y. 02-2wdeod&w

PHYSICIANS prescribe Colden's Liquid Beef Tonic for the weak, worn, and dyspeptic. Take no other. 08-1wdeod&w

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street

THE GERMANS.

THEIR BI-CENTENNIAL AT PHILADELPHIA.

Celebrating the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the First German Pioneers—A Monstrous Parade To-day.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—The two hundredth anniversary celebration of the landing of the first German pioneers in this city was begun on Saturday evening by a concert and addresses in English and German at the Academy of Music, followed yesterday by religious observances of the event in all the German churches of the city.

The German bi-centennial parade to day was one of the largest of its kind ever witnessed in this city, fully twenty thousand men and five thousand vehicles being in line. The line, which was commanded by Major Louis Ladner, with Colonel R. P. Dechert as chief of staff, was composed of eight divisions and consisted of historic tableaux, Grand Army posts, detachments of the Second regiment and Fencibles, singing and social societies, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, order of Red Men, charitable and beneficial societies, butchers, bakers and brewers' organizations, trades, industries and manufacturers. A fine display was made by each of the various organizations and continuous rounds of applause greeted them all along the route.

The line moved from Broad and Chestnut streets at about eleven o'clock and passed over a number of the principal streets, the route of the parade covering a distance of many miles. The streets along the line of the procession were literally jammed and window seats were at a premium. So great was the crowd along Chestnut street that the police were compelled to rope off the sidewalk, an act that has never been necessary heretofore.

The centennial concludes to morrow with a picnic at Schuetzen park.

The Celebration at Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 8.—The German celebration here was brilliantly successful. Business was mostly suspended and the day was generally observed as a holiday. The parade moved about noon. The procession was several miles in length and it is estimated to have contained 20,000 people, representing historical characters, German associations, churches and schools, with numerous banners and bands of music.

The Dance of Death

Ross and a man named Trulock went to the dance unbidden apparently for the purpose of killing Hillman. Trulock provoked a quarrel by insulting Hillman's affianced wife. Ross then rushed in and stabbed Hillman and escaped.

STAPLETON, L. I., Oct. 8.—It is reported that a prize fight took place near Dutch Farms, back of Clifton, Staten Island, early this morning between Prendergast, of Brooklyn, and one Daily or Hawley. The other party is said to be severely injured and is in hiding on the island.
