CRUSHED TO DEATH.

TERRIBLE AFFAIR NEAR PITTSBURG

John Bley and James Maloney Run Over by an Engine and Horribly Mangled—One of the Victims' Mad Act.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 15.—While John Bley and James Maloney, two switchmen, were repairing some damage to a freight car attached to a train standing at Perry station on the Pennsylvania railroad yesterday, the engineer not being aware of their presence under the car started the train. Bley was crushed and mangled beyond recognition and instantly. Maloney was crushed against the tender of the engine, and his scalp was almost torn from his head and an arm and a leg were broken.

The train was quickly stopped and Maloney was carried to the engine and laid upon the floor. The trainmen then started for Bley's remains and were carrying them towards the engine when Maloney crazed with pain suddenly jumped up and threw the throttle wide open. The engine started with fearful rapidity down the grade. When Labrore was reached, six miles from the scene of the accident, Maloney closed the valve and fell unconscious to the floor of the cab. He was picked up and taken to the hospital, where he is at present with very slight hopes of recovery.

CIVIL RIGHTS.

The First and Second Sections of the Civil Rights Act Declared Unconstitutional.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—A decision was rendered by the supreme court of the United States today in five civil rights cases, based on the first and second sections of the civil rights act of March 1, 1875. They are respectively prosecutions under the act for not admitting certain colored persons to equal accommodations and privileges in inns or hotels, in railroad cars and in theatres.

The court holds that Congress had no constitutional authority to pass the sections in question under either the 13th or 14th amendments of the constitution. The decision, however, is held to apply only to the validity of the law in the territories or the District of Columbia, where the legislative power of Congress is unlimited. So far as the states are concerned the two sections of the law are referred to as declared unconstitutional and void.

Justice Bradley rendered the opinion, Justice Harlan dissenting.
