COLLINS' Voltaic Electric Plasters.

For the relief and prevention, the instant it is applied, of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Gout, Gravel, Headache, Toothache, Stomachic Pain, Numbness, Hysteria, Neuralgia, Bilious Fever, Malaria, and Epidemics, such as Cholera, Typhoid, and all other diseases of the system.

One-day however—but let me tell the story myself, as he told it to me:

"I was in the woods, you know, trying to start a log down a hill. Thinking I could get a better purchase on it from the lower side, I tackled it there with my log-rolling hook and threw my weight on the lever. She started, she slid, but as luck would have it, before I could get out of the way, she rolled right over me. If it hadn't been for a lot of small limbs and twigs lying in the road, which I hit her up, she'd have crushed me flat. As it was I got up without a broken bone, but with some mighty bad bruises.

"Then you were all right," said his neighbor. "Not by a damned sight, stranger. I took cold, rheumatism set in, and I hadn't heard of BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTERS and used 'em. It's my opinion I should never have made another trip. But the capsine took hold quick, and I'm 'bout as good as new. But there's one thing you kin calculate on—I shall never wrangle with another log again. I have the advantage of the ground. For, as I told you before, if it hadn't been for them bushes I'd been smashed so, you could 'a' sold me for a door mat."

The Capsine is the thing for rheumatism. It doesn't keep you waiting. The word CAPSINE is cut in the center of the genuine. Price 25 cents.

LOG ROLLING.

While wrestling with a fallen tree a Lumberman Receives Consequential Damages.

While on a hunting excursion in the great coal and wood region near Carlisle, Pa., the writer met William Cole, a lumberman. Accustomed to the labor of the forest, he was not a little surprised to find that the man who had been a lumberman for many years, and who had been a member of the Legislature, was constantly opposed every measure calculated to relieve the masses and lighten the burden of the taxpayers.

It is a well known fact that there are millions of dollars in the state treasury that cannot be used under the existing laws, in any way that will benefit the people. This money is given to favored banks who use it for the purpose of creating monopolies ever since, and while a member of the Legislature has constantly voted to enlarge the powers of corporations, and to relieve them of taxation and as a persistent opponent every measure calculated to relieve the masses and lighten the burden of the taxpayers.

THE CAMPAIGN.

A MONSTER MEETING IN LEZENE.

Wm. H. Jones, T. G. Taggart, and other Democrats address the People—An immense meeting at the court house at Lezena, Tuesday night. Ex-Speaker Randall, Chairman Hensel, Major Taggart, Joseph Powell and Senator Eckley B. Cox were the speakers of the evening. Mr. Powell was the first speaker and was warmly received by the large audience. Major Taggart followed. He had no doubt about the result in Pennsylvania. All that was necessary was a thorough organization and a full vote on election day. Mr. Cox then spoke of the Democratic party and their coats and got to work. That was the duty of the Democracy, if they wanted to secure victory on the 6th of November. Mr. Cox then spoke of his efforts in having the obnoxious slip tickets repealed, which deprived many of the voters of Lancaster county of the right of suffrage. He claimed that its repeal would increase the Democratic vote from five to six hundred in the county. He made an earnest appeal in behalf of the Democratic candidates and claimed that if elected they would conduct the affairs of the country as they should be and not as they now are under the control of a corrupt ring.

Mr. Randall was received with much enthusiasm and spoke for three quarters of an hour. He reviewed the course of the Republican party in federal affairs and warmly advocated the repeal of the internal revenue taxes and the abatement of all revenues in excess of the wants of the government, economically administered. He attacked the Republican policy of extension and gain, and favored a tariff, said that the import taxes necessary to be imposed for the support of the government and the payment of the federal debt would for years to come afford all the protection that was necessary for the industry of the Republic.

He favored a genuine civil service reform, which consisted in the elevation of office of honest and capable men, but did not believe that this was to be secured by a scheme of perpetual succession to the present incumbents.

He then spoke of the federal affairs of state issues he dwelt upon the mismanagement of the state treasury and said there would be no real reform until the Humes law was enforced in good faith by Democratic officials.

Chairman Hensel followed in a speech of over an hour, in which he eulogized the Democratic state administration and House for their faithfulness to the pledges of the campaign of 1882 for the abolition of useless offices, economies and other reforms. He attacked the Republican schemes to maintain the existing unjust appointments in obedience to sealed orders left behind by Don Cameron when he sailed for Europe. He elaborated the Humes law and said he was authorized by Powell and Taggart to say it would be enforced if they would not object to it. Humes was the creature of the treasury ring, nominated by corrupt means, for ring purposes, and declared that Humes' record on treasury reform in the Legislature rendered him conspicuously unfit to be a commissioner of the sinking fund.

FOUND IN A BOX.

Mr. John Kinsman, of Augusta, Me., writes, May 18, 1883, as follows: "I have been afflicted for some years with a severe kidney trouble, and having noticed an article in one of our papers of the wonderful cures Hunt's Remedy had performed in many cases of dropsy, blind and kidney troubles, and a remedy in a box of straw packing, I concluded I would try it, and commenced to take it, when to my surprise, I found that the first bottle cured me of my trouble, and I have since used it until I had used in all six bottles, and my appetite is good, all pains in the back and sides are gone, and I am pleased to recommend it to anyone similarly afflicted."

HUNT'S REMEDY, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

THE BAKER'S WAY.

Mr. Alfred Nelson, No. 62 Lincoln street, Lewiston, Me., writes us, May 14, 1883: "I have been severely afflicted for a long time with indigestion and liver complaint, and at times all that ate so distressing to me that I could not bear the sight of any food. I had tried a good many different remedies for my complaint, and they all failed, until one day Mr. Martel, one of our druggists in Lewiston, recommended Hunt's Remedy, as he knew of so many who had used it with great success for indigestion, liver and urinary troubles, as well as indigestion, and upon his recommendation I finally concluded to try a bottle, and commenced taking it, with very little faith in it. The first bottle helped me so much that I purchased two more, and it has done me a wonderful amount of good, and cured me of indigestion. I can now eat any food I wish, and I truly recommend Hunt's Remedy as a sure cure for indigestion, liver and kidney diseases."

PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE.

Mr. George D. Bates, No. 82 Cottage street, Lewiston, Me., a reliable and prominent citizen, imparts the following information, May 18, 1883: "Having learned of the valuable qualities of Hunt's Remedy in a practical manner, I beg to state, that I consulted a family physician, and can most cheerfully recommend it to anyone troubled with any form of liver disease."

Mrs. Langtry's first appearance in public was as a reader; she read "Curing a Cold," by Mark Twain. In a recent interview she said that she does not know of any other remedy for colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, and all other ailments of the throat and lungs, as good as a trial bottle of this great remedy free, by calling at above Drug Store, regular size, $1.00.

TAKE

Simmons Liver Regulator

For Dyspepsia, Constipation, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhea, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and Ague, Malaria, and all Diseases caused by Impurity of the Liver, Bowels and Kidneys.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.
Bad breath; pain in the side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally constipated, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant. Often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily started; cold feet or burning soles; the extremities are low and dependent, and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it.—In fact, distracts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend that disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged. It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons traveling, or living in unwholesome localities, by using a bottle of this Regulator, will keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Bilious attacks, Dizziness, Nausea, Dropsy, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is not intoxicating beverage.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night, take a dose and you will find relief. Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the house.

For whatever the ailment may be a thoroughly safe purgative, alternative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or pleasure.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE.
And has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects.

A GOVERNOR'S TESTIMONY.
Simmons Liver Regulator has been in use in my family for some time and I am satisfied it is a valuable addition to my medical store."
J. GILL SHOOTER, Governor of Alabama.

How Alexander H. Stephens, of Ga., says "I have derived some benefit from the use of Simmons Liver Regulator, and wish to give it a further trial."

"The only thing that never fails to Relieve I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me so much as the Simmons Liver Regulator. I have sent from Minnesota to Georgia for it, and would send further for such a medicine, and I advise all who are troubled with these ailments to give it a trial as it seems to be the only thing that never fails to relieve."
P. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

Dr. T. W. Mason says: "From actual experience in the use of Simmons Liver Regulator in my practice I have been and am satisfied to use and prescribe it as a purgative medicine."

PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE.

Mr. George D. Bates, No. 82 Cottage street, Lewiston, Me., a reliable and prominent citizen, imparts the following information, May 18, 1883: "Having learned of the valuable qualities of Hunt's Remedy in a practical manner, I beg to state, that I consulted a family physician, and can most cheerfully recommend it to anyone troubled with any form of liver disease."

Mrs. Langtry's first appearance in public was as a reader; she read "Curing a Cold," by Mark Twain. In a recent interview she said that she does not know of any other remedy for colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, and all other ailments of the throat and lungs, as good as a trial bottle of this great remedy free, by calling at above Drug Store, regular size, $1.00.
