THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 25, 1883.

ARTHUR'S REST.

Where is Sir Arthur laid?
Who knows his rest?
Deep in a sheltered glade
Far in the West.
Never to that silent strand
Gallant ship sailed;
Never that lonely land
Mariner hailed.

Summer reigns endless there,
Ever as now;
Fruit time and blossom fair
Meet on the bough.
Calm hath the vale enshrined
Safely from foes;
Thunder nor tempest wind
Mars its repose.

There is the champion laid
Under the trees;
Scarcely the tender shade
Stirs with the breeze.
Flecking the flower-stars
Azure of sheen;
Slant fall the softened bars,
Golden and green.

Forest-born, faint and few
Noises that come;
Pigeons that sadly coo,
Insects that hum,
Mix with the solemn strain,
As the great deep
Rises and falls again,
Lulling his sleep—

Stars from the purple sky,
Many and large,
Nightly with changeless eye
Hold him in charge.
Peaceful and still he lies,
Changeless as they;
These and the lantern fl'es
Guard him till day.

Slowly the balmy air
Brings back his might,
Heals the sore wounds he bare
From his late fight;
Falchion and buckler bright,
Helmet and steed—
All that becomes a knight,
Wait for his need.

Eyes that looked love to his,
Long since are dim;
Lips that he went to kiss
Lost are to him;
Foes whom he knightly fought
Vex not the shore;
Tasks that he kingly wrought
Claim him no more.

Yet must a subtler foe
Threaten our day;
Yet with more faith below
Must our sons pray;
Then in the hour of need,
For his land's sake,
Then shall the doom be dreed—
Arthur shall wake.

My Old Hat.

Farewell, the glossy idol of my heart,
The best of friends through time must part.
Fain would I to compassion yield,
And evermore thy tenderness shield.
But oh! old friend thou'rt now a tile,
Of creases, dents and ancient style;
Wild abuse has edged thy crown;
The weight of years has bowed thee down.
Despise the age is? 'Tis not my creed,
But time and fashion did the deed.
And yet, old friend, methinks I feel,
Thy form extend a mute appeal,
And call before my tearful gaze
The merry scenes of bygone days—
When you and I in splendor passed
The brave, the fair, the gay and fast;
In barroom, parlor, concert hall,
Thy glory overshadowed all;
Aloft in triumph proudly borne—
Now an object humans scorn.

IF THIS IS YOUR HAT, COME TO SEE US.

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

Healthy People Sometimes Laugh

At the sufferings of dyspeptics, and say that their pains and distresses are imaginary. This is not meant for cruelty, but it is cruelty, all the same. A person who has a crooked foot, or a wounded hand, or a sightless eye, calls forth sympathy by the exhibition of the defective member. If the dyspeptic sufferer's stomach could be placed on exhibition the cause of his distress would be apparent.

The man with a troublesome stomach often suffers quite as much as the man with a broken leg, but is far less likely to receive sympathy.

Sympathy is good for sufferers, as far as it goes. But Brown's Iron Bitters is better, for it strikes at the root of these troubles and cures disease. Disappointed dyspeptics weary of having tried many experiments in seeking cure, will do well to make one fair trial of Brown's Iron Bitters, and report the result. That this well tried family medicine will thus diminish the quantity of human suffering is an established fact.

GENTLEMEN—

A short time ago we bought a special bargain in men's Scarlet Underwear. They being so very nice for the money they sold very quickly and we have now received another large lot which we shall sell at the same price. They are fine goods and are sold at $1.75 for either Undershirt or pair of Drawers, or $3.50 for the suit. We also have the lower grades of Scarlet Underwear, excellent qualities, for $1.25 apiece. In Men's Fancy Grey Undershirt we sell the best in the city for 25 cents. Upon examining you will be astonished how good it really is for the money. Just to think, only 25c apiece or 50c. for the full suit. No need of anyone being cold or catching colds when they can be clad so warmly for so low a price. We have also a full assortment of Men's White Merino Underwear at 35c., 50c., 65c., 75c., $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 for either Shirt or Drawer. These goods we are giving splendid value for the money; we have all sizes. Also in White Shirts we have splendid makes which fit nicely and have always given full satisfaction to those that have worn them. We have them in very low prices, from 25c. up to $1.00. We cannot say anything about the 25c. ones, more than they are a good Shirt for the money, and that there are people who ask for them and want them, hence we keep them. But our 50c. Shirt we can say a great deal about and back it up, as it is one of the greatest bargains we offer. Our 75c. Shirt is made of Wamsutta Muslin, Fine Linen Bosom and well made in every particular. To prove that they are good we have quite a number of Customers who wear nothing else. Our $1.00 Patent Back Shirt always gives satisfaction, and we know it to be as good, if not better, than any Shirt offered at the same price. We would be pleased to have you call and examine our stock of Underwear and White Shirts.
