MACHINERY.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. Teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patters of the well and favorably known Mowrer Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction.

MEDICAL.

TAKE

Simmons Liver Regulator

For Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhœa, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and Ague, Malaria and all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver, Bowels and Kidneys.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.

Bad breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; cold feet or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases may have occurred where all or few of them exist, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear,

Persons traveling, or living in unhealthy localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Bilious attacks, Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night, take a dose and you will be relieved.

Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House!

For, whatever the ailment may be a thoroughly safe purgative, alterative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or pleasure.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE,

And has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects.

A GOVERNOR'S TESTIMONY.

Simmons Liver Regulator has been in use in my family for some time and I am satisfied it is a valuable addition to the medical science.

J. GILL SHORTER,
Governor of Alabama.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Ga., says: Have derived some benefit from the use of Simmons Liver Regulator, and wish to give it a further trial.

"The only Thing that never fails to Relieve."—I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent Simmons Liver Regulator has. I sent from Minnesota to Georgia for it, and would send further for such a medicine, and would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve.

P. M. JANNEY,
Minneapolis, Minn.

Dr. T. W. Mason says: From actual experience in the use of Simmons Liver Regulator in my practice I have been and am satisfied to use and prescribe it as a purgative medicine.

RHEUMATIC SYRUP

A Limb Saved

And a Family Made Happy.

Mr. Philip Moore, of West Webster, Monroe County, N. Y., says: "My daughter, now eighteen years old, has, for the past eighteen months, been afflicted with rheumatism in its very severe form. One year ago it settled in the knee, since which time she has been unable to touch her foot to the floor or move her limb without suffering the most excruciating pain. Her limb was fast growing out of shape, although we were doing for her all we could, having used all the remedies we could hear of and that were recommended for rheumatism, none of which benefitted her in the least. Her case was pronounced incurable by the physician and by our neighbors, and all believed that she would be a cripple all her days, and that her limb would never be restored to its original shape. But I am happy to say that to-day my daughter is entirely free from all rheumatic pains, and that she can walk with perfect ease, having thrown aside her crutches, and her limb seems as strong and perfect as ever; all from the use of your wonderful medicine "Rheumatic Syrup," which we consider one of the best medicines ever introduced for purifying the blood, stomach and nervous syste, whereby the brain is relieved of morbid fancies, when are created by the causes above referred to.

RECENT NEWS.

THE STEEL RAIL REDUCTIONS.

Fears that Some of the Pittsburg Mills will be Compelled to Shut Down—What Caused the Ward Iron Failure.

At Pittsburg the indications are that the recent reduction of the price of steel rail by the Lackawanna iron company to $35 per ton will cause a flurry in the trade similar to that of last year. Members of Carnegie Bros. & Cor, of that city, one of the wealthiest firms in the county, profess to be much alarmed for the future. Speaking of the matter, Mr. Carnegie said to day:

"I am sorry that the situation has assumed the shape in which it now is, and no one will regret it more than I if we are compelled to shut down. But the truth is that we have no orders that will keep us running longer than the first of January. At the price of rails established by the Lackawanna mills it would not pay to make them. I do not see why they make the reduction, unless they intend to keep their mills running through the winter, and would rather run them at a small profit than let them lie idle. Labor is cheaper there than here, and they can afford to make them at a cheaper rate than we can.

"If we stop it will effect from 4,000 to 5,000 men. By stopping our mills at Braddock and Homestead, it will interfere with the coke trade, as we will have no use for that, and consequently, a large number of men will be thrown out here. Of course, the puddling furnaces will be idle, and beyond a doubt, it will more or less affect other branches of trade. We have not held a meeting yet, no decided exactly what will be done, but at present I think I can safely say we will have to stop. The reason why it will throw so many men out of employment is on account of the number employed outside of the mills. The demand for rails is not nearly so large now as it was, from the fact that railroad building has been off."

Mr. J. D. Weeks, secretary of the Western iron association, thinks the alarm is unnecessary. Workmen freely charge that manufacturers are endeavoring to scare them into accepting a reduction of wages. The contracts for the next year will be made on the 1st of January.

A Sequel to the Ward Iron Failure

A suit was entered on Wednesday in the United States district court at Pittsburg, which is expected to expose the inside history of the Ward iron failure, which caused great excitement recently. The title of the suit is Van Hyning & Co. vs. Lizzie B. Ward, James Ward, Samuel S. Brown and Hill Bergwin. Van Hyning & Co. are engaged in the banking business at Canfield, Ohio, and the suit is to recover on notes the amount of $9,029 61, which were transferred by the original holders to Van Hyning & Co. The orators allege that when these notes were drawn, Lizzie B. Ward was engaged in the iron business at Niles, Ohio, and represented that she was one of the heirs of William H. Brown, deceased, and owned one-sixth of certain real estate, embracing coal lands and other property in Allegheny, Washington and Lawrence counties, but that on the 24th of July, 1883, she transferred her property by mortgage to Samuel S. Brown, as the orators believe, for the purpose of defrauding them of their just claims.

NATIONALISTS AND ORANGEMEN

The League Determined to Make Political War on Orangemen Throughout Ireland

The executive committee of the Irish National League in London have resolved to carry on the political warfare throughout Ireland against the Orangemen and to make it hottest in the county of Fermanagh, the home of Lord Rossmore, the Orange leader. It is not believed by the Nationalists that their cause can secure many converts in Fermanagh or any of the other counties of Conservative Ulster and it was because of this that the Fermanagh meetings were dropped when the Orangemen, under the lead of Lord Rossmore, attempted to break up the Rosslea convention. But the Irish Nationalist leaders have concluded that to continue yielding to Orange terrorism will have a bad effect on their cause and they have ordered all the Fermanagh meetings to be revived. It is proposed to strongly garrison every place of meeting. Lord Rossmore, having vainly tried to induce the Dublin Castle authorities to proclaim these gatherings, is arranging to disturb and possibly break them up by rival Orange assemblies. He has chartered trains from all parts of Ulster to convey free of charge to the National meetings all Orangemen who will volunteer in the work of opposition. It is feared that disgraceful and bloody riots must ensue. The Dublin branch of the National League has voted a want of confidence in the proposed government inquiry into the recent Derry riot, during which the Orangemen made the town council rescind its permit for the use of the town hall to Lord Mayor Dawson, for the purpose of making a league address, and subsequently broke up his meeting at the National institute.

Mr. Trevelyan, under secretary for Ireland, has been publicly denounced by Mr. Healy as the "ally of assassins and the tool of Earl Spencer in his mean efforts to scare the British cabinet from its intention to reform and increase the suffrage in Ireland by shaking at them the bogey of Orangemen."

A MACHINIST KILLED.

The Terrible Effect of the Bursting of a Fly-Wheel on a New Engine.

William Wagner, assistant foreman of the Reading coal and iron company's repair shops at Pottsville, was killed Wednesday afternoon at Knickerbocker colliery, near Shenandoah. Mr. Wagner had charge of a gang of men engaged in putting up a large engine at that colliery, and the work being completed a trial was made Wednesday afternoon. Everything appeared to work satisfactorily. Foreman Wagner was making a general examination of the machinery when a terrific report was heard. Six or eight carpenters who were working in the building rushed into the engine room to see what happened. Not a vestige of the heavy fly-wheel, which had burst, was to be seen. On the floor lay Mr. Wagner, bleeding and dying. One of his legs was cut off and his head and face terribly mutilated. He was immediately picked up and carried out of the room, but died in the arms of his companions. A carpenter named Schultz was struck by a piece of the wheel, but not seriously hurt. Large pieces of the fly-wheel were hurled though the building, which was considerably damaged. The foundation of the engine was destroyed. The accident caused great confusion. Many of the employes believed an explosion had occured in the main. Mr. Wagner was but twenty-six years of age and only recently married. He was an expert machinist. His father Benjamin Wagner, is one of the oldest engineers on the Reading road. Samuel Wagner, a brother of the deceased, is assistant master mechanic at Palo Alto. What caused the accident is unknown. Different theories are advanced. Some attribute it to a flaw in the iron. An investigation will be made. Wagner's remains were placed in an ambulance wagon and taken to his home at Port Carbon. He leaves a wife and one child.

HANGING TO A DOOR.

A Wealthy Shoe Dealer Takes His Life Without Cause.

Frederick W. Schober, aged 35 years, living at No. 1551 North 13th street, Philadelphia, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by hanging himself in a bed room on the third floor of his residence. Mr. Schober was wealthy and lived with his wife and five year old child and some his wife's relatives. He was formerly engaged in the shoe manufacturing business. He was not engaged in business at the time of his death, and no cause whatever can be assigned for the act. He had no business or family troubles and had excellent health.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon his mother-in law, his child and himself were seated in the sitting room. He seemed in excellent spirits and was playing with the child. The lady suggested that they should go down stairs and get lunch. Mr. Shober said he had a slight headache and did not care to eat anything. He told his mother-in-law to take the child down and get something to eat.

The two went down stairs and a half hour afterward the little boy went to find his father. The child went to his bed room and could not get in, as the door was locked. He called his grandmother, and when the latter went up she found the man hanging to a rope on the inside of the door. A clothesline had been tied to the knob on one side and thrown over the top of the door. The dead man's knees were nearly touching the floor.

MANY MINERS KILLED

Fire Damp Causes a Frightful Explosion in an English Colliery.

News has been received of a terrible explosion caused by fire damp in a colliery at Accrington, a town in Lancashire, nineteen miles north of Manchester, Eng. There were one hundred and ten miners in the colliery at the time of the explosion. Great excitement exists in the vicinity of the disaster and a large force of volunteers immediately undertook the work of rescuing those imprisoned in the mine. Twenty five persons have been rescued. Some of them are badly hurt. None of the bodies of those who perished have as yet been brought up and it is impossible to estimate the number of persons killed. Parties have been organized to explore the mine. They have to traverse a distance of three quarters of a mile before reaching the scene of the explosion. The latest accounts show that sixty three miners were killed.

[Accrington is a town of about twenty-two thousand population, in Lancashire, on the Lancashire and Yorkshire railway, and nineteen miles from Manchester. It is an important manufacturing town, the centre of the Manchester cotton printing trade and contains large cotton factories and print works. Coal is extensively worked in the neighborhood.]

"Swell Head" in Cattle.

Several cases of a contagious disease known as swell head were developed among the cattle at the stockyards in Chicago. The first scientific examination of this disease in this country was made Wednesday under the direction of the United States treasury cattle commission. It was decided that it was the result of the lodgment of microscopic plants in the teeth. When the disease extends to the jaws it nearly always proves fatal. It can be communicated to man.

Many London ladies crop their hair short and wear an almost entire wig, and consequently catch cold more frequently than their American cousins, but of course they all use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Delicate and Feeble Ladies.

Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its former elasticity; driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cases of periodical pain are permanently removed. Some receive much benefit, and none are profoundly grateful and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women

We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family."—A lady, in Providence.

Although much is said about the importance of a blood purifying medicine, it may be possible that the subject has never seriously claimed your attention. Think of it now!

Almost every person has some form of scrofulous poison latent in his veins. When this develops in Scrofulous Sores, Ulcers or Eruptions, or in the form of Rheumatism, or Organic Diseases, the suffering that ensues is terrible. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that
