COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Events Along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and Around the Borough Picked up by the Intelligencer Reporter.

John Burke, a Columbia and Port Deposit railroad track watchman, was struck by a south bound train on Saturday at 7½ o'clock p. m., while asleep on the track, and received injuries from which he died on Sunday morning at 6 o'clock. The accident occurred near Conowingo. When first noticed by the engineer the unfortunate man was lying in the middle of the track, supposed to be asleep. The engineer whistled and he rose to a sitting position. The train could not be stopped in time to prevent hitting him. He was struck and knocked off the track, over the bank, upon the rocks below. He was a single man and lived at Conowingo with a sister.

Personal and Social.

Mr. Wm. Hiteshue is confined to his house by illness.

Mr. Budd Griffith, of Boston, is in town visiting his mother.

Mr. Cooper Hugentugler, of Harrisburg, was among his old friends here yesterday.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church, will hold a meeting at the parsonage at 7½ p. m., to make arrangements for a sociable and literary entertainment.

Mrs William Hiteshue's 62d birthday anniversary was celebrated on Saturday evening by a party, which was given to her at her residence by about thirty of her friends. It was a pleasant affair.

Town Notes.

The pay car of the Reading & Columbia railroad was here to day.

Two funerals were held in Mt. Bethel cemetery at the same time on Sunday afternoon.

The lately inaugurated reforms at the engine houses are being strictly carried out.

The cold weather has by no means broken up corner lounging, our contemporaries to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Shock library has been enriched by another hundred dollars worth of new books.

To night Madame Girard's novelties will appear at the opera house. A large audience will no doubt be present, as a variety show generally has good patronage here.

Henry Le Maire and Francis Favre, two Parisian Frenchmen, were sent to the county jail for seven days each by 'Squire Young this morning for being drunk.

St. John's Lutheran festival was not much of a financial success. It was very poorly advertised and that probably explains the meagre attendance.

The special services which were held yesterday afternoon in Mt. Zion A. M. E. church for Olive Branch lodge, G. U. O. of O. F., was largely attended. Rev. Walter Thompson preached a very interesting and appropriate sermon.

The Reading & Columbia railroad company should now place on the road a few passenger cars that would blend harmoniously with their new depot, which is beyond a doubt one of the handsomest structures of its kind in the state.

Martin Day fell over an embankment near St. Charles furnaces on Saturday night, and sustained severe injuries. He remained where he fell until Sunday morning, when he was discovered and sent to his home.

William Tyson, a newsboy, was nearly run over by a Pennsylvania railroad engine in front of the Continental hotel this morning. He fell on crossing the track and was pulled from the rails just as the engine passed by.

John McCall, the engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad who was run over by his train at Washington borough, on Friday last, one of whose legs had to be amputated in consequence, has so far recovered from the shock and weakness caused by excessive loss of blood, as to render his ultimate recovery a matter of certainty.

In Other Days.

N. Y. Sun.

The third wealthiest man in Pittsburg, Dr. David Hostetter, was, thirty years ago, proprietor of a little liquor and grocery store in Lancaster Pa. His partner Mr. Smith, was formerly a shoemaker in Lancaster. They came to Pittsburg and began to manufacture bitters, and old folks say the first lot of goods sold by Dr Hostetter was delivered by him in a basket. To day the firm is worth millions. Dr. Hostetter controls the Pittsburg and consolidated gas companies of Pittsburg, and is the heaviest stockholder in the Lake Erie road outside of Vanderbilt. He also owns some splendid coke country property. He is worth at least $5,000,000. He is a close, shrewd money getter, and spends little for charity. He has one daughter and two sons. He is a member of St. Andrew's P. E. church, and a regular attendant at its services.

A Military Court.

Lieut. Col. M. H. Horn, of Allentown, Lieut. A. S. Fry, of Catasauqua, and Sergt. A. H. Weller, of Allentown, are sitting in Roberts' hall to-day as a regimental military court for the trial of certain members of the 4th Regt. National Guard of Pennsylvania, for alleged offences committed at the late encampment at Williamsport.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned beg leave to return their sincere thanks to the Lancaster Mannerchor Teutonia Lodge, No. 165, K. of P., and the public in general for their kindness in attending the funeral of their late son, Frederick Goos, on the 18th inst.

MR. and MRS. LAWRENCE GOOS.

Amusements.

"One of the Finest."—Gus Williams will delight his legion of admirers this evening at Fulton opera house by his famous impersonation of John Mishler, a German policeman. The play is one which from its first struck popular fancy and sympathy, and is now seen nightly by crowded houses. The humor in it is most enjoyable, and the piece itself has plenty of interest and no small degree of sensation. It is worth seeing, and there should be a big audience present this evening.

The Statutory Troupe.—To morrow evening Madame Girard's female and specialty company will appear in the opera house under the management of the Kernans, of Baltimore. The show advertises twenty handsome young ladies who will be seen in hammocks and swings in the first part. The statues will be shown with all the frames, backings, etc., used by Matt Morgan. The party includes four comedians and a troupe of zig-zag dancers.

A Fine Specialty Company.—On Thursday evening Kernell, Wheatley & Traynor's specialty company will appear in the opera house. This company is acknowledged to be one of the best of its kind ever put out. The people are all stars or first-class in their business.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a little to satisfy them, when to my surprise a gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to say I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street.

How to Secure Health.

It seems strange that any one will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when SCOVILL'S SARSAPARILLA AND STILLINGIA, or BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best BLOOD PURIFIER ever discovered, effectually curing Scrotula, Syphilitic disorders, Weakness of the Kidneys, Erysipelas, Malaria; all nervous disorders and debility, bilious complaints and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Skin, etc. It corrects indigestion. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it ACTS LIKE A CHARM, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system.

PARKER'S TONIC.

Twists and Twinges.

"My brethren," shouted Dr. Talmage one bright autumnal Sunday, "here is a lesson from the cornfield. God has arranged that the ear and the husk shall be parted. Every rheumatic pain is but the thrust of the husking peg, and every neuralgic twinge is only a twist of the husker."

Possibly; but nobody wants to be husked, for all that, and nature teaches us to resist the process. Therefore, we accept with gratitude whatever helps us to suppress those very twists and twinges.

From his pleasant home, Greenmount, near Sing Sing, N. Y., M. Alfred Baer, a French gentleman, writes:

"I have suffered almost intolerable torments from rheumatism for many years. Of the numerous remedies which I tried, none benefited me. But PARKER'S TONIC gave me great satisfaction. I certify with pleasure that it restored my health. You are welcome to publish this and use my name."

Messrs. Hiscox & Co. call especial attention to the fact that this preparation, which has been known as PARKER'S GINGER TONIC, will hereafter be advertised and sold simply under the name of PARKER'S TONIC. As unprincipled dealers are constantly deceiving their customers by substituting inferior preparations under the name of ginger, and as ginger is really an unimportant ingredient, we drop the misleading word.

There is no change, however, in the preparation itself, and all bottles remaining in the hands of dealers, wrapped under the name of PARKER'S GINGER TONIC, contain the genuine medicine if the fac simile signature of Hiscox & Co. is at the bottom of the outside wrapper. n1-lmdeod

A MURDERER LYNCHED IN INDIANA.

Three Hundred Men Break Open the Jail, Seize and Hang Jacob Nelling—He Refuses to Confess and Dies With a Sneer.

FOWLER, Ind., Nov. 19.—Three hundred masked men last night broke in the door of the jail and took out Jacob Nelling, who so brutally murdered Ada Atkinson some weeks ago. He was put in a carriage, taken to Oxford and hung immediately.

Nelling Dies Game.

Nelling, after being placed in the carriage, was driven to a spot within a quarter of a mile from the scene of his crime. After being removed from the vehicle he was told that he must die. He was given five minutes in which to make a confession, but stolidly refused to do so, saying as he already acknowledged committing the murder it was unnecessary to repeat his former story.

The rope was quickly thrown over a limb of a large oak tree and two men stepped forward and placed the noose around the old man's neck. In doing this the collar he wore was torn off. Another attempt to make him recite the story of the murder was rewarded by a sneer from the defiant man. Fifty men then grabbed the rope and in a moment the body was swaying in the air. After Nelling had been pronounced dead the crowd quietly dispersed.

THE FLAMES.

29 Horses Perish in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov 19.—The frame stable of Christopher Hare on Washington avenue, below Seventh street, was destroyed by fire this morning. Thirty-six horses were in the stable at the time and 29 of them were burned to death. Hare's loss is about $4,000.

A $60,000 Fire.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 19.—The country residence of Geo. V. Hecker, on Orange mountain was destroyed by fire yesterday with the furniture. Loss, $60,000.

A Battle Among the Salvationists.

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 19.—An exmember of the Salvation army last night entered a meeting of Salvationists intoxicated and struck several individuals. Captain Thompson, a salvationist, undertook to restore order, was knocked over a bench and choked. A small riot followed and disorder was fearful, the crowd surging and pushing about the hall. Four police officers entered, and after a violent struggle, arrested the young man.

Origin of the Word Mississippi.

Magazine of American History.

The Mississippi is a good instance of the variations through which some names have passed. Its original spelling and the nearest approach to the Algonquin word, "the father of waters," is Meche Sebe, a spelling still commonly used by the Louisiana creoles. Tonti suggested Meche Sebe which is somewhat nearer to the present spelling. Father Laval still further modernized it into Micoispi, which another father, Labati, softened into Mislspi the first specimen of the present spelling. The only changes since have been to overload the word with consonants. Marquette added the first and some other explorer the second "s," making it Mississippi, and so it remains in France to the day, with only one "p." The man who added the other has never been discovered, but he must have been an American, for at the time of the purchase of Louisiana the name was generally spelled in the colony with a single "p."
