Lancaster Intelligencer.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 20, 1883.

WHY HE DIDN'T MARRY.

For the INTELLIGENCER.

That's a purty thing for a snip of a boy to ask me, an old man, sir;
But now days all boys have a plenty o' cheek so I might as well give you a answer.
Why didn't I marry? Well, Carrie Moore was the girl o' my youthful fancy,
Not a girl in the township was as purty as her but her ways were decidedly dancy;
For she danced around like a fire-fly goes, now here, now there so brightly,
An' you couldn't 'a' told, one minute, where 'bouts you'd find her the next one, rightly,
But she danced right into my heart I'll own, an' kept it all in a flutter,
An' my love one day would fly up to the skies, an' the next tumble down in a gutter.
Well, I stood it a year, with a mighty bad grace, an' my love it grew stronger and stronger,
Till it hit me so hard I couldn't half work, an' I said I would stand it no longer;
So, I dressed all out in my best, one night, an' to old man Moore's went over,
With a hope in my heart, an' down in my boot a fresh-pulled four-leaved clover.
An' Carrie was there, looking brighter, I know, than a rose or a clover could blossom—
I'd the leaf in my boot, would the luck come to win that sweet bloom for to wear in my bosom?
Well, I told her at last just why I had come, an' I called her my somethin' own Carrie,
Windin' up, when I'd finished the tale of my love, by askin' her, wouldn't she marry?
Then she said a whole lot about "sorrow" an' "friends," but two letters will spell all her answer,
An' so that is just why, since you're anxious to know, that to-day I'm a single old man, sir!

—Will F. McSparran.

Distinguished Englishmen.

Pall Mall Gazette.

Who is the most distinguished Englishmen living? Statesmen are out of the running, for has not Mr. Gladstone declared that their fame is only like sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal, and that your poet laureate is a greater man than your prime minister. Lord Coleridge has solved the difficulty, and has told the Union League club, at New York, that "distinctly the most distinguished Englishmen living" is the accomplished man of letters who has just set foot in America. "As poet, writer, thinker, he has scarcely any equal, and, taken altogether, he has (in Lord Coleridge's judgment) no equal." For very modesty's sake Lord Coleridge's "truest and dearest friend" must really be agreeing that "it is high time the lord chief justice should take his passage and get him gone." He has already fired a parting shaft of praise at Mr. Bright, who is said to be contemplating a visit to the states, and who will show the Americans "what a great, high minded, straightforward, noble Englishman is." What would Lord Coleridge do for the next distinguished English visitor? To praise the third he would have to join the other two: but the result would really be a being far too great and good even for the generous appreciation of the American public.

"What thing so good?" is the query of a poet somewhat confused: If he has a cold, the only good thing we know of is a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Brown's Household Panacea.

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly RELIEVE PAIN, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength than any other similar preparation.

It cures pain in the Side, Back or Bowels, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Toothache, and ALL ACHES, and is The Great Reliever of Pain. "BROWN'S HOUSEHOLD PANACEA" should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water [sweetened, if preferred] taken at bedtime, will BREAK UP A COLD. 25 cents a bottle

CORDEN'S Liquid Beef Tonic imparts strength to body and mind. Take no other. Of druggists. nov14-wdeod1w

No matter what may be the name, or how long standing the trouble, Dr. Benson's Skin Cure will always cure skin diseases. Grateful hundreds of cured patients attest this fact. $1, at druggists

"I buy Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills and introduce them wherever I go. Personal knowledge and experience of their effects on others prompt this act." Rev. J. P. Fugett, Rector St. Lukes Ch., Myersburg, Pa. 50 cts. at druggists.

How to Secure Health.

It seems strange that any one will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when SCOVILL'S SARSAPARILLA AND TILLINGIA, or BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best BLOOD PURIFIER ever discovered, effectually curing Scrofula, Syphilitic disorders, Weakness of the Kidneys, Erysipelas, Malaria; all nervous disorders and debility, bilious complaints and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Skin, etc. It corrects indigestion. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it ACTS LIKE A CHARM, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system.

DARK'S PAIN PANACEA cures a pain in man and beast. For use externally and internally.

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

Like an Evil Spirit.

In olden times it was thought that evil spirits came in through cracks and keyholes. The generally approved way to keep them out was to plug up the keyhole and stop the cracks with cotton. Notwithstanding these preventive measures, the evil things had their own way and often came in as they pleased.

So comes malaria now-a-days. We try to keep it out of the keyhole and it comes in by the crack. We stop up the crack, and lo! it comes from a leak in the plumbing, or an opening from some neglected drain, or from some unsuspected source and unguarded direction.

We cannot always keep malaria out, but we can give it battle and drive its effects from our systems. If BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is taken in time, malaria has not a ghost of a chance. This is a great family medicine. Your druggist sells it and you ought to keep a bottle in the house.

MR. GEORGE L. WALKER:

The four Pianos I purchased from you at different times—three for friends and the last one for myself—have proved to be magnificent instruments. They have given the most perfect satisfaction in every respect, and they cannot be surpassed for beautiful, clear, rich, sweet, fine toned, and standing in tune. I have recently bought pianos on Chestnut street, paid a much higher price and still am not receiving anything like as fine instruments. I shall advise all my friends for their own benefit, when they are in need of a Piano, to purchase from you.

Respectfully yours, H. L. HALL.

MACHINERY.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut Street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. Y teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patters of the well and favorably known Mowrer Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction.
