gencer Reporter. The rear end of the freight train drawn by engine No. 109 of the Pennsylvania railroad was run into this morning at 3:30 o'clock by engine No. 314 while standing on the north main track in the east yards here. The caboose and two coal cars telescoped with engine 314 and were then thrown over an embankment. David Mowery, a brakeman attached to the train of engine 109, was in the caboose at the time of the accident and sustained serious injuries. Another train was passing east on the south main track when the wreck occurred and half a dozen of its cars were wrecked also. The main tracks of the read were blocked for several hours.

OBITUARY

Beath of Rev. J. F. Weishampel. Rev. J. F Weishampel, of this city, it ed at the residence of his son in law, Dr. E. Quail, in Auburn, Schuylkill county, Tuesday evening at 10 o'clock, in the 77th year of heange. Rev. Weishampel was born in Balti more on the 4th of April, 1807, and lived in that city for many years. He was a printer by irade, and at several periods in is life wax engaged in the publication of iterary and religious journals-his last cartage in this direction being the Torch of Truth, a little mouthly devoted to merality and religion, which he continued to print up to the time of his last illness-

doing the press work with his own hands. Elder Weishampel was one of the earliest followers of the teachings of Rev. John Winebrenner, the founder of the benomination of Christians known distinctively as the "Church of God." He was one of the Brat of its licensed preach ers, and throughout his long and useful life he was an carnest and able exponent of its doctrines. He was a plain practical forcible preacher, upposed to all show and glamour either in the church or in society, and his blameless, industrious life was an example of his faith and doctrine. He preached in many parts of the country, but for several years past made his home in this city, where her had a wide circle of frieuris. He was twice married, and has three some and one daughter living in Baltimore, one daughter in Utica, New York, and one in Auburn, Pa. Three weeks ago being in ill health, he left Lancaster for Auburn, in hopes that a change of air and the attentions of his daughter and her husband, Dr. Quail, might be of service to him; but while there he was stricken with paralysis which resulted in his death as above stated. His remains will be brought to Lancister. via the Reading railroad, on Friday morning, and will be taken to the Union Bethel, corner of North Prince and Orange streets, where the funeral services will take place at 10 o'clock and his friends will have an opportunity of taking a last look at his face. The interment will take place in Wood ward hill cometery.

Coxey's ? entence.

Wm. P. Coxey, of this city, who was yesterday convicted in the United States district court of accepting larger fees than the law allows in three pension cases, and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 in each case and costs of prosecution returned to his home in this city in the best possible spirits. He appeared to be glad that he got off so easily. Coxey, who is a foreman in No. 2 cotton mill, was a sub-agent for pension agents in Washington, and for a time seemed to be driving a thriving business. The leason he has just learned will probably make him a little more careful hereafter.

JUBAL EARLY'S INVECTIVES.

He Pays his Compliments to Manone—The Counting-out scheme, A dispatch received at Richmond, Va., by a gentleman from General Jubal A.

Early says:

"As to my opinion of Mahone's recent address, I can only say the English language is not sufficiently strong to properly characterize the infamous nature of the production and the infinite nature of its falsehoods. I must say, however, that it is eminently worthy of Mahone and the minions who have assisted him in its composition. A great poet has intimated that "J. A. EARLY."

The fact has leaked out that G. C. Gorham himself wrote the address while closeted with Mahone. It still causes the utmost indignation in all sections of the state and Mahone has to day been denounced with numerous epithets, such as liar, coward, cur, whining hypocrite, and graveyard whiner. It is understood that some of his henchmen who have gone with him thus far refuse to join him in his counting out scheme, for which his organs, the National Republican and Richmond Whig, have been assiduously paving the way. It is rumored that the presi-dent himself is a party to the scheme, and Mahone has given his confederates the assurance that he will have the United States army to protect the returning board from any anticipated danger at the hands of the people.

Despite these assurances, it is said, some of his men refuse to go with him in this undertaking, and they have been de-nounced by Mahone as chicken hearted. A. W. Jones, the defeated Mahonite opponent of Gen. Wickham, has announced that he had abandoned his purpose of contesting Wickham's seat. This leaves Mahone without an excuse for counting out

Wickham. Republicans Opposed to Keifer. The Hackensack (N. J.) Republican will contain to-day an interview with William Walter Phelps, member elect of the next Congress, in which he gives expression to a general wish among Republican members of the next House that ex-Speaker Keifer shall refuse to be a candidate for the empty honor of a renomination. Mr. Phelps has written to Mr. Kiefer at the Phelps has written to Mr. Kiefer at the suggestion of members in different parts of the country, some of whom have served dult and price 25c off from yesterday. suggestion of members in different parts before, and others who enter Congress for the first time. A DOCTOR'S BUSE. tam a Large Practice.

The following story, told by London Life, serves to illustrate the love of the French people for the mysterious: A short time ago a Parisian doctor set up an establishment in the Faubourg Montmartro. He assumed a high sounding name, furnished his house in a weird and fantastic fashion, engaged solemn looking and taciturn ser vants and announced that he could only see patients after the hours of midnight or in the gray dawn of the morning. The effect was electrical. Every weak minded person, with maladies real or imaginary, llocked to the new medice, who soon began to reap a golden harvest. At last the suspicious of the police were aroused. The commissary paid him a personal visit and asked to see his diplomas. To his surprise he found out that not only had the sus murder, has been sentenced to be hanged pected individual taken good degress, but on the 30th of December. This is the that he had graduated with the highest that he had graduated with the highest honors at the Paris university. Just as he was taking his departure, however, the doctor entreated him HARRISDURG, Nov. 21.—The appropriation bill was read a flist time in the Senate some surprise, asking him the reason of and the Hassen congressional apportionment bill was read a first time in the

A Marked Cathoric Movement. New York Times.

The dedication of the church of St. Benedict the Moor marks the beginning of an active movement on the part of the Catholic church to draw to its fold the entire African race on the continent. During the past few years colored Catholiceburches have been foundered in the South and West at Charleston, New Orleans, Wash ington, Baltimore, Nashville, Louisville and Leavenworth, all under the charge of Josephites, or London Brotherhood, who devote themselves exclusively to the col-ored race. The impressionable nature of the African has made him an easy convert to the Catholic church, and the growth of The officers of our poor little cavy must these Southern churches has been so remarch up to their tailor shops and get markable that the church of the United ome bright new quiforms by New Year's States has taken up the work with vigor. ad other paraphernalia which go to make | foundation of similar churches is expected the naval officer so impressive.
