WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 21, 1883.

THE SUPPER OF ST. GREGORY.

A tale for Roman gu des to tell
To careless, sight-worn travels still,
Who pause beside the narrow cell
Of Gregory on the Cælian Hill.

One day before the monk's door came
A beggar stretching empty palms,
Fainting and fast-sick, in the name
Of the Most Holy asking alms.

And the monk answered: "All I have
In this poor cell of mine I give,
The silver cup my mother gave;
In Christ's name take thou it, and live."

Years passed; and, called at last to bear
The pastoral crook and keys of Rome,
The poor monk, in St. Peter's chair,
Sat the crowned lord of Christendom.

"Prepare a feast," St. Gregory cried,
"And let twelve beggars sit thereat."
The beggars came, and one beside,
An unknown stranger with them sat.

"I asked thee not," the Pontiff spoke,
"O, stranger; but if need be thine,
I bid thee welcome, for the sake
Of Him who is thy Lord and mine."

A grave, calm face the stranger raised,
Like His who on Gennesaret trod,
Or His on whom the Chaldeans gazed,
Whose form was as the Son of God.

"Know'st thou," he said, "thy gift of old?"
And in the hand he lifted up
The Pontiff marveled to behold
Once more his mother's silver cup.

"Thy prayers and alms have risen, and bloom
Sweetly among the flowers of heaven.
I am The Wonderful, through whom
Whate'er thou askest shall be given."

He spake and vanished. Gregory fell
With his twelve guests in mute accord
Prone on their faces, knowing well
Their eyes of flesh had seen the Lord.

The old-time legend is not vain;
Nor vain thy art, Verona's Paul.
Telling it o'er and o'er again
On gray Vicenza's frescoed wall.

Still wheresoever pity shares
Its bread with sorrow, want and sin,
And love the beggar's feast prepares,
The uninvited Guest comes in.

Unheard, because our ears are dull,
Unseen, because our eyes are dim,
He walks our earth, The Wonderful,
And all good deeds are done to Him.

—John G. Whittier in Harper's for December.

English Lands Declining in Price.

Nothing better illustrates the agricultural distress of Great Britain than the decline of the value of farming lands. One of the most magnificent estates in the United Kingdom is Dunalastair, in Perthshire, now owned by Gen. Maclan Macdonald, a grim old Highlander, who has served his country in all the four quarters of the globe. The estate consists of the baronies of Lochgarry, Crossmount, Easter Templar, Dalchonie, and Kinloch Rannech, and embraces in its boundaries 18,000 acres of the most valuable land in Scotland, besides whole towns, fishery rights, and other belongings. The castle of Dunalastair is a marvel of old castellated architecture, and there are half a dozen fine residences on the property besides. The income from this enormous estate used to be about $40,000 per year at a very low rental, but now such is the decline in rents that it yields less than $25,000. Gen. Macdonald has offered it for sale for $1,000,000 in our money, though twelve years ago he refused $1,500,000. The possession of such an estate would give its owner much political importance, for it is good for two members of Parliament within its bailwick, as there are 32,000 acres over which it has jurisdiction. Pecuniary considerations compel the selling of this, one of the finest estates in the three kingdoms, and it is rather hard that the last of the Macdonalds, a fine, old-time Scottish laird, in his old age should be turned out of the home of twenty generations of kilted warrior ancestors, in a region richer than any in Scotland in historic and traditional interest.

A London surgeon says, the only one fashionable woman in 5.0 can draw a full breath with all her clothes on, and that all women should give up tight lacing, and take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to strength their lungs.

MACHINERY.

HAVING DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP and permanently closed the Chestnut street Iron Works, I desire to inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Penn Iron Company's Works, North Plum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every description, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and durability than the best cast iron known. V teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very soft iron, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patterns of the well and favorably known Mowrer Corn and Cob Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give satisfaction.

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

Like an Evil Spirit.

In olden times it was thought that evil spirits came in through cracks and keyholes. The generally approved way to keep them out was to plug up the keyhole and stop the cracks with cotton. Notwithstanding these preventive measures, the evil things had their own way and often came in as they pleased.

So comes malaria now-a-days. We try to keep it out of the keyhole and it comes in by the crack. We stop up the crack, and lo! it comes from a leak in the plumbing, or an opening from some neglected drain, or from some unsuspected source and unguarded direction.

We cannot always keep malaria out, but we can give it battle and drive its effects from our systems. If BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is taken in time, malaria has not a ghost of a chance. This is a great family medicine. Your druggist sells it and you ought to keep a bottle in the house.

BENSON'S SKIN CURE.

[From the Home Journal.]

A Remarkable Discovery.

A REAL SKIN CURE.

THERE IS ONLY ONE

AND THAT WITH SIMPLE NAME.

Beware of imposters, pirates, or any old articles which now suddenly claim to be best. They have been tried and found wanting, while this has been proved a remarkable success.

NO POMPOUS NAME.

This curative needs no pompous or incomprehensive title of Greek or Latin to sustain it, but its simple English name appeals directly to the people. And the people are signally manifesting their appreciation of this frankness by selecting and using Dr. Benson's SKIN CURE in preference to all other professed remedies.

Dr. C. W. Benson has long been well-known as a successful physician and surgeon and his life study has been the diseases of the nervous system and of the skin; since he has been persuaded to put his New Remedy and Favorite Prescription as a "Skin Cure" on the market, various things have sprung up into existence, or have woke up from the sleepy state in which they were before, and now claim to be The Great Skin Cures.

☞ Beware of imitations, or the various articles which have been advertised for years or struggled along, having no real hold or merit on the public, that now endeavor to keep head above water by advertising themselves as "The Great Skin Cure." None is genuine and reliable except Dr. C. W. Benson's Skin Cure. Each package and bottle bears his likeness. Internal and external remedy, two bottles in one package. Price $1.00, get at your druggists.

Relief for all Overworked Brains.

CAUSE AND CURE.

Dr. C. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills are valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all classes of hard brain workers whose overtasked nervous centres need repair and sedation. Nervous tremor, weakness and paralysis are being daily cured by these pills. They correct costiveness, but are not purgative. Price 50 cents, or six bottles for $2.50, postage free, to any address. For sale by all druggists. Depot, Baltimore, Md., where the doctor can be addressed. Letters of inquiry freely answered.

RHEUMATIC SYRUP.

A Limb Saved

And a Family Made Happy.

Mr. Philip Moore, of West Webster, Monroe County, N. Y., says: "My daughter, now eighteen years old, has, for the past eighteen months, been afflicted with rheumatism in a very severe form. One year ago it settled in the knee, since which time she has been unable to touch her foot to the floor or move her limb without suffering the most excruciating pain. Her limb was fast growing out of shape, although we were doing for her all we could, having used all the remedies we could hear of and that were recommended for rheumatism, none of which benefited her in the least. Her case was pronounced incurable by the physician and by our neighbors, and all believed that she would be a cripple all her days, and that her limb would never be restored to its original shape. But I am happy to say that to-day my daughter is entirely free from all rheumatic pains, and that she can walk with perfect ease, having thrown aside her crutches, and her limb seems as strong and perfect as ever; all from the use of your wonderful medicine "Rheumatic Syrup," which we consider one of the best medicines ever introduced for purifying the blood, and I only regret that all others who are afflicted with rheumatism can not know of its superior merits. You are at liberty to use my name if it will do you any good, and I shall be only too glad to tell any and everyone what it has done for my daughter," PHILIP MOORE.

MR. GEORGE L. WALKER:

The four Pianos I purchased from you at different times—three for friends and the last one for myself—have proved to be magnificent instruments. They have given the most perfect satisfaction in every respect, and they cannot be surpassed for beautiful, clear, rich, full tone, fine finish, and standing in tune. I have formerly bought pianos on Chestnut street, paid a much higher price and did not receive anything like as fine instruments. I shall advise all my friends for the to own benefit, when they are in need of a Piano, to purchase from you.

Respectfully yours, H. L. HALL.

HAT STORE.

A MYSTERY.

"Who is this gent?" the ladies ask,
"That almost every day
With style superb and noble air
Comes sauntering this way."

The "boys" with jealous envy swear
And own he beats them flat—
The secret is, he dropped in here
And bought a STYLISH HAT.

Which has imparted such an aristocratic air to the gentleman that he looks like a millionaire. We have some of the same kind left.
