NOVEMBER COURT.

OYER AND TERMINER—QUARTER SESSIONS.

The Legal Business Continuing—Various Cases Ended—Grand Jury's Return of True and Ignored Bills.

Wednesday Afternoon—In the case of Frederick Eader and Thomas McGraw, charged with cruelty to animals, the former was found guilty and the latter was acquitted.

Com'th vs. Israel Smith, colored. The defendent was charged with malicious treapass in going on the grounds of Mifflin Russell, in East Earl township, without his permission and picking blackberries. The court ordered a verdict of not guilty, as the justice in returning the case had not proceeded according to law.

Com'th vs. Emanuel Weaver. The defendant, who is an old man and resides in Marietta, was charged with open lewdness in exposing his person, and he denied it. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. Sentenced to five months imprisonment.

Com'th vs. George Rapp, selling liquor on Sunday and without license. It was shown that the defendant, who resides in Salisbury township and has no license from court, has been selling some kind of liquor not only at his home but at picnics, and on Sundays. None of the witnesses could tell what the liquor was, but it made them drunk. The defendant in his own behalf, testified that he purchased a keg of cider in this city and sold it at a picnic; he also sold some on Sunday, but did not want to take any money for it; those who got drunk had been drinking liquor before touching the cider. Frederick Schoenberger, bartender for Arnold Haas, of this city, testified that defendant purchased a keg of cider from them. The jury rendered verdicts of guilty.

Com'th vs. H. H. Snyder, libel. The defendant is the agent of the Prudential insurance company of Newark, and this suit is brought against him by Wm. Virgin, an agent of the Metropolitan company of New York. Both of these agents are stationed in this city and are rivals in business. It was shown by the commonwealth that recently the defendant had a business circular printed and distributed all over the county, which set forth that the Metropolitan company had protested claims to the amount of $20,500, while they really have none. It was claimed that Snyder did this in order to injure the business of the Metropolitan.

The last report of the insurance commissioner was offered and it showed that the Metropolitan company had no protested claims; they had $20,500 of unpaid claims. C. N. Reynolds, an insurance agent, explained that there was a difference between the terms and claims may be unpaid because they have not yet become due.

George Tshudy, of this city, plead guilty to assault and battery upon his wife and sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

The grand jury returned the following bills:

True Bills—Henry A. Young and Franklin Hopton, fornication and bastardy; William Shay, fraud.

Thursday Morning.—In the case of Com'th vs. H. H. Snyder, charged with libel, the commonwealth called witnesses to show that the circulars were circulated at the instance and by the direction of the accused, and people were asked to give up their policies in the Metropolitan and insure in the Prudential.

The defense proceeded to show that the statement in the circular was based upon the report of 1882; if any error had been made it was in putting in the words protested claims instead of unpaid losses (the report says unpaid losses). It was also contended that this prosecution was only brought to bring into disrespect the Prudential company as the statement in the circular was based upon the sworn statement of the Prudential officers to the insurance commissioners. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

The grand jury returned the following bills:

True Bills—Isabella Corbett and Samuel Gibson, adultery and bigamy; Clarence Warfel and Merty Sullivan, felonious assault and battery; Benjamin Leaman, assault and battery; Arthur Green, malicious trespass; Horace Westwood, malicious mischief; George Schaum, malicious trespass and assault and battery; Whitfield Smith and Geo. Smith, murder; Samuel Farmer, receiving stolen goods; Henry Zell, false pretense.

Ignored—Patsey Burns, assault and battery, and Elizabeth Myers, fornication, with county for costs.

SEEKING LODGINGS.

Sam. Sproul, the Fabic, Again Arrested.

Samuel Sproul, the man who split open the skull of Charles H. Bryan at the late Independent state fair in this city and who, after lying in jail several weeks, was acquitted by our court on Tuesday, on the ground of self defense, was again arrested this morning about 3 o'clock at the Grape hotel. It appears that on Tuesday and Wednesday nights several of the boarders were disturbed by hearing some one trying to open their doors. Last night, Mr. Charles Rahter, a son of the proprietor, having occasion to pass through a room connecting two parts of the hotel found the door locked. Knowing that the room was not occupied by a guest, Mr. Rahter notified his father, and the two returned to the room, where they found Sproul snug in bed. They asked him what he was doing there and he said he was lodging there, that a man whom he did not know had told him to take the room, and that he had also occupied the night preceding. He was made to get up and dress and was then marched off to the lockup, where he was detained until morning. Inquiry among the guests at the hotel failed to show that any attempt had been made to forcibly enter their rooms or that any depredations had been committed. And as it appeared likely that Sproul merely wished to get a night's lodging in an unoccupied room, Mr. Rahter did not feel like prosecuting him and he was discharged from custody with orders to leave town, under a threat of rearrest.

A Correction.

The omnibus which contained a party of 22 ladies and gentleman, instead of 33, as stated in Wednesday's INTELLIGENCER, was not upset at Greenland, but the driver for some cause or other, drove down an embankment about three feet high, where upon the young men sprang to the other side, climbed out of the windows and held on to that side of the omnibus, and thus saved it from upsetting. No one was injured in the least.

Where an Editor Finds Pretty Girls.

Waynesburg Messenger.

Mrs. Langtry, the Jersey Lilly, will show off in the Uniontown opera house on the evening of Dec. 8th. But we know some Greene county girls that are as pretty as she is. Anyhow, we can find them down in Lancaster county, where they have fine farms, good horses and big tobacco crops, as well as plenty of mighty clever people besides.

Aid for the Poor.

The ladies of the Dorcas society solicit funds for the benefit of the indigent poor, especially for a few poor families who are suffering from smallpox and who are therefore necessarily cut off from their usual supplies. Contributions for them may be left at the mayor's office.

Receiving Stolen Goods.

Mrs. Ruhl, charged with receiving chickens which were stolen by Joseph Myers, to the larceny of which he pleaded guilty was arrested for a hearing before Alderman Barr.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Harvey Wilson, a 14 year old lad, the son of Rev. Robert Wilson, of Catawissa, Pa., ran away from home about a week ago. Officer Wittick, of this place, was notified of the fact, and a description of the missing boy given at the same time. This morning he took into custody a boy answering to the description, who finally acknowledged that he was the runaway. His parents were notified of his whereabouts, and he will be sent back to the place he came from as soon as possible. He appeared very anxious to go back to his parents.

Nearly Suffocated.

Mrs. James McManus and an infant child were nearly suffocated by the gas from a heater early yesterday morning. Noises made by the child awakened the mother, and she had only sufficient strength to arise from bed and open a window. As she was endeavoring to carry her baby to the now open window she fainted. Upon recovering she descended to the first floor of her dwelling and summoned assistance. During the remainder of the day she was quite ill from the effect produced by inhaling so much poisonous air.

Personal and Social.

Mr. John Barr, of Martic ville, is visiting Mr. Albert P. Rogers.

Miss Annie Duffy, of York, is being entertained by Miss Maggie Zeigler, on Walnut street.

Mr. Budd Griffith left this morning for Boston, his present home.

The Columbia fire company has just issued its invitations to its thirty third annual New Year's eve ball. They are very neat in appearance and well gotten up. Borough Budget.

To night a meeting of Osceola tribe of Red Men will be held.

Next Monday will probably see the new Reading & Columbia railroad depot opened to the public.

More rain to day. Business dull. Market fairly attended. A spell of fair weather and the business men say trade would improve.

The end of the ducking season has let loose the hunters upon the rabbit. The latter are scarce in Lancaster county, but plentiful in York county.

Mr. Taylor Crownshield, having received the contract for painting the tower of the opera house, is now erecting the staying upon which the work can be done.

A party of Pennsylvania railroad inspectors, numbering forty persons, dined yesterday at the Franklin house, having stopped over here on their inspecting tour.

To morrow evening is the time for the Second street Lutheran church concert. Those who are fond of good music and good reading should go. A large number of tickets have already been sold.

A fair sized boxful of clothing has been sent from here to Shenandoah, for the use of those who suffered by the late conflagration there. The Presbyterian church also sent $25 for the relief of the unfortunates.

The band has changed its time of practice from Friday to Thursday evening. To-night it will hold a meeting. Five cents in the treasury and a month's room rent to pay, is the encouraging report of the organization.

On the evenings of November 28th and 29th, the congregation of the United Brethren church will hold a festival in the armory. Every effort is to be made to make the affair a social as well as financial success.

SALOON KEEPERS' AFFIDAVIT.

What Girls Can Do.

Philadelphia Evening News.

What shall they do? An exchange suggests painting and designing. Many women paint now, but few of them do more than copy the work of others. That is not the painting that either pays or improves. There is a demand for original designs and they bring money and fame. Prang, the chrome man, for instance, must have original designs. He paid two thousand dollars for the design of a Christmas card last year, and it was not a very remarkable design either. A young girl of Rome, Ga., has made $500 in the past year by her pencil and crayons. She received $50 for one picture. Vinnie Ream got $5,000 for a single piece of sculpture. A young lady of Lancaster, Pa., who became tired of a butterfly life, devoted herself to sculpture, and is now in Rome executing a $7,500 order.

[The young lady from this city to whom the above reference is made is Miss Blanche Nevin, daughter of Dr. John W. Nevin, and she is now engaged on the statue of General Peter Muhlenberg, which, when finished, will be placed in the capitol at Washington.]

Personal.

H. D. Harter, esq., of Mansfield, O., president of the Rote automatic brake company, and Hon. Henry Hice, of Beaver, Pa., president judge of the 36th district of Pennsylvania, two of the five original owners of the Rote brake patents, and A. M. Smith, esq., solicitor of patents, of Washington, D. C., solicitor of the Rote automatic brake company, are in the city to-day. They went to Leaman Place this morning with other stockholders to witness the practical operation of the brake.

Mayor's Court.

John Wilson and his wife Kate were arrested yesterday for drunken and disorderly conduct, and this morning the mayor committed them to the county prison for 35 days each.

Three vagrants were discharged with the admonition to "move on."

Uniform Rank K. of P.

This afternoon at 2:30, 32 members of Inland City division No. 7, uniform rank, Knights of Pythias, left for Lebanon, where they will institute a new division this evening.

The Heise-Detweiler Nuptials.

Last evening at 7 o'clock, H. H. Heise, of Columbia, was married to Miss Eva Detweiler, the accomplished daughter of Joseph Detweiler, of Mount Joy, at the residence of the bride's parents in the latter place. There were about 200 guests present from Columbia, Mount Joy, Marietta, Mountville and adjacent places. A handsome supper was partaken of by the assembled guests at eight o'clock, and from that time until 10 o'clock, fun and merriment ruled the hour. The presents were numerous and costly and illustrated the high esteem in which the contracting parties were held. The groom is a prominent hardware merchant in Columbia, and the bride is a great social favorite in the section of which she is a resident. The happy pair left on the midnight train east for an extended bridal tour that will include Philadelphia, New York and Niagara Falls.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg leave for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1878 I was taken with a violent inflammation of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. I expended several hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report was circulated that I was dead. I gave up hope when a friend told me of Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise, gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street

THE DARK SIDE.

MURDERS AND THE EXECUTION OF A MURDERER.

Chisholm, the Wife Murderer, Hanged in Newark, N. J. To-day—An Eleven Year old Boy Shot at Ashland.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 23—John Chisholm, the wife murderer, was hanged in Essex county jail at 10:16 o'clock, this morning. He continued firm until the last.

Walking Firmly to the Gallows.

When Sheriff Wright announced that the hour had come, Chisholm declined to hear the death warrant read, saying that all he wanted was to be prayed for. He walked firmly to the gallows holding a crucifix, attended by Fathers Tooney and Connolly.

At 10:17 the trap was sprung and at 10:30 he was pronounced dead from strangulation. Only 30 persons were present. The body was delivered to his relatives, who gave bonds that the funeral would be private.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Egyptian Army Annihilated by the False Prophet.

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 22.—The army of Hicks Pacha has been destroyed by the forces of El Mahdi, the false prophet. The fight, which lasted from the 3d to the 5th, resulted in the complete annihilation of the Egyptian troops. It is stated that a European artist was the only person who escaped.

The force under Hicks Pacha comprised 25,000 men. It is estimated that the false prophet had a force of 300,000 men. The battle was fought near El Obeid.

[Ever since the close of the late war between England and Egypt, Hicks Pasha has been pursuing the false prophet through the enterior of Soudan with an Egyptian army with various success. It was rumored a week or so ago, that El Mahdi had been defeated with great slaughter to his troops by Hicks Pasha, but later particulars proved the story without foundation. This may be the ultimate ending of the present report. Hicks Pasha, was an officer in the American army, and is an American himself. On account of some unsavory difficulty he left the United States and joined the Egyptian army with the commission of pasha, and served with some distinction in the Anglo-Egyptian imbroglio. If the report of his defeat is true the idea of conquering the false prophet and Soudan will be abandoned by the Egyptain government. The people of the former country support El Mahdi, because they believe him to be a prophet sent from Heaven to guide and govern them.]

BASE BALL.

The National League Makes Alterations in the Rules.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—At the meeting of the national baseball league to day, the entire morning session was spent in discussing and amending the playing rules. Some changes were made, the principal of which was the striking out of rule 34, relating to "foul balls." Here after no restrictions will be placed under the rules on the pitcher in declining balls. It was considered that rule 34, which declared that in delivering a ball the pitcher should not raise his hand higher than his shoulders, had been practically a dead letter for years, so that it was deemed advisable to strike it out of the rules altogether.

The championship season was extended to the 15th of October, and the number of champion games increased from 14 to 16. The rules were also changed to provide for the selection before the first of May by the secretary of a staff of four league umpires, who shall be subject to removal at any time by the secretary for cause.

Threatening Position of 1,500 Men.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 22—A dispatch from Iron Mountain says: There has been no violence as yet attempted by the striking members at the Chapin and Ludington mines of the Menomee county, but officers have secretly sent for more police, and it is stated that the governor has been asked for a company of militia. The strikers stopped the pumps on Tuesday night, which will cause the mines to fill with water. The fires are out and the water is gaining rapidly. The strikers number 1,500 and they have posted notices warning others to keep away from the mines. They have demanded full pay without deduction of board bills or store accounts, but the company refuse to accede.
