Suicide of Three Sisters.

London Daily News.

Perhaps a more extraordinary suicide was never heard of than that which is reported from Venice. Three young ladies went out, took their passage to the Lido, were observed to be very melancholy during the journey, and ended by drowning themselves. They appear to have taken their own lives, two out of mere melancholy and from tedium vitæ, the third out of sympathy and for the sake of company. They had lost their mother, one of them had weak sight, another was subject to fits, and they had all been reading. "I Promessi Sposi," the one Italian book which most English schoolgirls have read. The least afflicted of the sisters was a girl of great beauty. Her part should have been to cheer up her sisters, to whisper sursum corda, and suggest visits to the theatre or other ways of dissipating gloom. But the third sister, the young and beautiful one accompanied the others and shared their fate. Venice is not a place to make any but a sentimental tourist melancholy. The "ghost by the shores of the sea, so pale, so quiet," of Mr. Ruskin's rhetoric is a very enjoyable town to live in. This makes the determined conduct of the three girls all the more inexplicable.

Fashions in Rubies.

Philadelphia Press.

At the head of these stands the ruby, which just now is, if perfect, still more valuable than the diamond. It is a difficult matter to find large stones which match each other perfectly in color and size, and a pair of large rubies—twin stones—set in diamonds as earrings are valued at $4,000, while the same thing in sapphires, which rank third in the list of precious stones, may be had for $1,000. The Siberian, or star ruby, is an exquisite gem, deep rose color in tint, which, like all other colored stones, is seen at its best when surrounded by diamonds. For the diamond alone lends light to every other gem without losing either in brilliancy or clearness of tint. Occasionally, however, an unusually fine stone may reflect the light so vividly that the diamond setting catches its glow. Thus, in a magnificent Marquise ring the rubies in the centre are so intense in color that the pure white diamonds which encircle them are tinged with pink rays like the shadows cast by clarot in the sunlight.

The mysterious origin of man has been partially disclosed by the Indianapolis Citizen, who found an infant in a tin pail at the top of a tree. It is to be remembered there is nothing mysterious about Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup; a few doses will cure your cough or cold.

In Small Pox, Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria Dalbys Prophylactic Fluid will stop the spread of the infection.

Well as Ever.

Lottie Howard writes from Buffalo, N. Y., "My system became greatly debilitated through arduous professional duties. Suffered from nausea, sick headache, and biliousness. Tried Burdock Blood Bitters with the most beneficial effect. Am well as ever." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

The Peculiar Old Mystery!

It was one of the peculiarities of the old-fashioned doctors that they never would tell patients what they were prescribing for them. They said it would do the patients no good to know, and that it would only be gratifying a foolish curiosity. In order to keep patients from knowing, they would write the prescriptions in dog-Latin, so that most patients could not read them. All that sort of thing is now over. The patient wants to know what he takes. He is weak, and wants to be strong, or he is dyspeptic, and wants to digest well. Or he has a troublesome liver which he wants to put to rights. So he takes Brown's Iron Bitters, about which there is no mystery at all. This is the best preparation of iron in the world, in combination with gentle yet efficient tonics. It gives strength. It builds up enfeebled systems. It enriches impoverished blood. It removes feminine weaknesses. It casts out debility. It is what you want, and your druggists' has it.

BENSON'S SKIN CURE.

[From the Home Journal.]

A Remarkable Discovery,

A REAL SKIN CURE.

THERE IS ONLY ONE
AND THAT WITH SIMPLE NAME.

Beware of imposters, pirates, or any old articles which now suddenly claim to be best. They have been tried and found wanting, while this has been proved a remarkable success.

NO POMPOUS NAME.

This curative needs no pompous or incomprehensive title of Greek or Latin to sustain it, but its simple English name appeals directly to the people. And the people are signally manifesting their appreciation of this frankness by selecting and using Dr. Benson's SKIN CURE in preference to all other professed remedies.

Dr. C. W. Benson has long been well known as a successful physician and surgeon and his life study has been the diseases of the nervous system and of the skin; since he has been persuaded to put his New Remedy and Favorite Prescription as a "Skin Cure" on the market, various things have sprung up into existence, or have woke up from the sleepy state in which they were before, and now claim to be The Great Skin Cures.

☞ Be ware of imitations, or the various articles which have been advertised for years or struggled along, having no real hold or merit on the public, that now endeavor to keep head above water by advertising themselves as "The Great Skin Cure." None is genuine and reliable except Dr. C. W. Benson's Skin Cure. Each package and bottle bears his likeness. Internal and external remedy, two bottles in one package. Price $1.00, get at your druggists.

Relief for all Overworked Brains.

CAUSE AND CURE.

Dr. C. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills are valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all classes of hard brain workers who se overtasked nervous centres need repair and sedation. Nervous tremor, weakness and paralysis are being daily cured by these pills. They correct costiveness, but are not purgative. Price 50 cents, or six bottles for $2.50, postage free, to any address. For sale by all druggists. Depot, Baltimore, Md., where the doctor can be addressed. Letters of inquiry freely answered.

MR. GEORGE L. WALKER:

The four Pianos I purchased from you at different times—three for friends and the last one for myself—have proved to be magnificent instruments. They have given the most perfect satisfaction in every respect, and they cannot be surpassed for beautiful, clear, rich, full tone, fine finish, and standing in tune. I have formerly bought pianos on Chestnut street, paid a much higher price and did not receive anything like as fine instruments. I shall advise all my friends for their own benefit, when they are in need of a Piano, to purchase from you.

Respectfully yours, H. L. HALL.
