CUTICURA REMEDIES.

BEAUTY SOAP.

To keep the pores open, the oil glands and tubes active, and thus furnish an outlet for impurities in the perspiration and blood which cause humiliating blotches, blackheads, and minor skin blemishes, especially of infants; to cleanse, whiten and beautify the skin, remove tan, freckles, sunburn and oily matter; to keep the hands soft, white and free from chaps and roughness, prevent contagious skin and scalp diseases, and to provide an exquisite skin beautifier and toilet, bath and nursery sanative redolent with delicious flower odors and CUTICURA healing balsams, use the CUTICURA SOAP. Indorsed by physicians and chemists as absolutely pure and highly medicinal. Sales 1881-2 1,000,000 cakes.

THE HERITAGE OF WOE,

Misery, shame and agony often bequeathed as a sole legacy to children by parents, is neglected Scrofula. To cleanse the blood of this hereditary poison, and thus remove the most prolific cause of human suffering, to clear the skin of disfiguring humors, itching tortures, humiliating eruptions, and loathsome sores caused by it, to purify and beautify the skin, and restore the hair so that no trace of the disease remains CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, diuretic and aperient, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP the great skin cures and beautifiers, are infallible.

I HAD SALT RHEUM

In the most aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, medicines or doctors did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden know how I suffered. When I began to use the CUTICURA REMEDIES my limbs were so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on them without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. Used the CUTICURA REMEDIES five months, and was completely and permanently cured. MRS. S. A. BROWN, Malden, Mass.

Reference: Any citizen of Malden Mass.

COPPER-COLORED.

I have been afflicted with troublesome skin disease, covering almost completely the upper part of my body, causing my skin to assume a copper-colored hue. It could be rubbed off like dandruff, and at times causing intolerable itching and the most intense suffering. I have used blood purifiers, pills, and other advertised remedies, but experienced no relief until I procured the CUTICURA REMEDIES, which, although used carelessly and irregularly, cured me, allaying that terrible itching and restoring my skin to its natural color. I am willing to make affidavit to the truth of this statement.

BENSON'S POROUS PLASTERS.

THAT SETTLES IT.

Brought into Competition with the World the Best Capitals off the Honors.

At the great Centennial Exhibition of 1876, the leading products of all the branches of the World's industry were assembled at Philadelphia. To carry off a prize in the face of that tremendous competition was a task of no ordinary difficulty. Inventions and preparations for the alleviation of pain and the cure of disease were present in the greatest possible variety, representing the skill and the profoundest study of the age, and it may be of vital importance to you, personally, to know that the highest and only medal given to rubber Porous plasters, was awarded to the manufacturers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER, by the following jury:

Dr. WM. ROTH, Surgeon-General, Prussian Army.
J. H. THOMPSON, A. M., M. D., Washington, D.
C. B. WHITE, M. D., New Orleans.
ERNEST FLEISCH, M. D., Austria.

The decision was afterwards confirmed by the medical jury at the last Paris Exposition. Knowing the value of such high and unbiased testimony, the medical fraternity, both in the United States and in Europe, quickly threw aside the old slow-acting plasters they had been using, and adopted Benson's in their regular practice. Thus physicians and surgeons of the broadest reputations did this, distinctly proves the intrinsic merits of the article.

It is no more than just to add that the average physician of to-day is not dominated by the prejudices which retarded the progress and modified the successes of his predecessors of not more than twenty-five years ago. He accepts hints from all quarters and endorses and adopts demonstrated healing agents wherever he finds them.

The right of Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster to stand at the head of all external applications whatsoever, for the mitigation and cure of disease, is no longer questioned.

Let the purchaser, however, be on his guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPCINE cut in the middle.

A MOTHER'S CRIME.

A GHASTLY DEED WITH A RAZOR.

Killing Her Two Little Daughters and Cutting Her Own Throat—An Awful Tragedy in Baltimore.

Mrs. Laura Riall, the wife of Mr. John Riall, residing at No. 270 West Biddle street, Baltimore, killed her two little daughters Friday morning, cutting their wrists with a razor, and then cut her own throat. The mother and her two children—Lotta, a pretty and interesting girl five years of age, and Helen, aged two years—occupied the front room on the second floor. They went to bed at the usual hour Friday night, the mother and children occupying the same bed. At 6 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Marsh, the mother of Mrs. Riall, went to her daughter's room and inquired how she felt. The daughter said she did not feel very well, and it seems that she had been somewhat indisposed for several days. Mrs. Marsh thought she detected the smell of gas in the room and so remarked to her daughter. The latter replied that she did not notice any smell at all, but it is now thought that the children were already dead and that it was their blood that had impregnated the air of the room. Half an hour later Mrs. Marsh again entered the room, and her daughter said she would take some coffee, which was at once brought to her. Both times the room was dark and Mrs. Marsh could barely see the forms of the children in bed.

Thus the situation remained until half past 12 o'clock Friday, when some one rapped on the door and received no answer. These knocks were repeated and no answer being received Mrs. Marsh became alarmed, and Mr. Chew, a relative of the family, being in the house, went to the Northwestern police station and reported his suspicions. The officers went upstairs with Mrs. Marsh and Mr. Chew, and after rapping again broke open the door. There stood Mrs. Riall in her night dress, with a bloody razor in her hand and her throat cut from ear to ear. Her face wore a wild and haggard expression and it was evident that, crazy with the thought of the dual murder she had committed and not wishing to face her husband's friends, she had just made the attempt to take her own life. She reeled over to the bed, while blood was flowing from the ghastly wound in her neck, and dropped the razor to the floor. Under the bed clothing lay the two children, pale and ghastly. The bed was saturated with their blood. Mrs. Riall rallied a little and said, as she turned her eyes on the children, that she had done it. She made a motion as if she wanted to write, and a pencil and a piece of paper being given her, she wrote in a very inelligible hand: "Ask the doctors if I can live." Taking the paper again she wrote: "I don't want to live," and then tore the paper into fragments.

The doctors state that the children bled to death some time during the night. Their left wrists were cut and they looked as if death had been painless, for there was no contortion of the muscles of the limbs. They evidently made no outcry, since, if they had, it would doubtless have been heard by some one in the house.

Mrs Riall is about twenty eight years of age and her husband is about thirty-four years old. As soon as he was informed of the tragedy he returned home heart broken, almost driven to desperation. He is a travelling salesman, representing a New York paper house having an agency in Baltimore. He is away from the city on business much of his time and for weeks at a time he does not see his family. His wife frequently complained of his long absence. No evidence of insanity, so far as can be learned, has ever be shown by her and the cause of her sudden determination to take the lives of her little children is wrapped in mystery. She was alive Friday night, but there is no probability that she can recover.

Four years ago Mrs. Marsh, a distant relation of Mrs. Riall, whose maiden name was Marsh, killed her four children with a carving knife.

JUDGE McDERMITT DEAD.

The President Judge of Mercer County Expires After a Brief Illness—His Career.

Arcus McDermitt, president judge of Mercer county, died Friday morning at seven o'clock, at Mercer, after a brief illness, aged about sixty years. His death resulted from typhoid fever. Judge McDermitt was a native of the county and was educated in the common schools and the old Mercer academy. After teaching school for a number of years, he read law with the late Charles Sullivan, of Butler, and was admitted to the bar there in 1849. He was admitted to the bar in Mercer county in 1851. In 1853 he was elected county treasurer. In 1874 he was nominated for judge by the Democratic party, was elected and took his seat January 1, 1875. His term would have expired January 1, 1885. He served most acceptably, his decisions being given with clearness and force, and the fact that out of nine cases appealed from his court to the supreme court eight were affirmed, the ninth still remaining undecided, is sufficient evidence of his ability and judgment. He was in every particular a self made man and raised himself to distinction through his own unaided efforts. His funeral will take place Sunday at two o'clock.

James A. Stranahan will be recommended for appointment to fill the unexpired term of Judge McDermitt.

DISTINGUISHED TRAVELLERS.

Condition of American Society as Seen by Foreigners of Note.

Atlantic.

Generally, however, it is true that the European traveler—and the more surely if he is British and a person of any note—leaves the states quite as ignorant of them and their people on all essential points as he was before he crossed the ocean, and with his ignorance at once confused and confirmed and elevated into conceit by misapprehension of the very little of any real significance that he has been able to see. For the distinguished traveler sees, indeed, through no fault of his own, very little that reveals to him the real condition of "American" society, of which he touches only on the surface at a few salient points. All the vast level range below, not to say the yet underlying strata, is hidden from his eyes. If he is a man of any fame in politics, literature, art or society, his arrival is announced by the press; he is interviewed; he is seized upon by various people, who, with social, business or other motives, wish to use him for their own purposes. He is entertained, feted, taken to this, that and the other "institution," where he is expected, and indeed almost required, to "make a few remarks." He passes over a great many miles of country shut up in a railway car and surrounded by his "party." He sees a big waterfall and some mountains, a president and some governors—waterfalls and mountains in their own way; and this is all. What does this teach him of the society of the people among whom he has been? Entertainments, parties, receptions, among people of wealth—the only people with whom he is likely to mix—are much the same upon the surface in the superior circles of all western nations. And who learns anybody anything about anybody in formal "society?" What do we ever learn of each other at such gatherings? We merely go through the parade in due form. Moreover, these more or less distinguished strangers are on such occasions here the principal guests. People are invited to "meet" them. They are on exhibition to the other guests, and the other guests are on exhibition to them. What is the "meeting?" An introduction, a languid handshake of some scores or some hundreds, a few words, "delighted to meet," "charmed," "hope," "always remember," and so forth; and this repeated a dozen times in the principal places and two or three times in the minor places. Of what significance or instructiveness is this? It is not at such entertainments, or at formal dinners, or even at less formal breakfasts, that a people is to be studied in its habit of life, its tone of thought, its morals, or even its language. To do that it is necessary to live among them, and to live among them unremarked as a notability and a watchful stranger; to see them when they are off their guard, and not when you are on parade to them, and they are, or wish to be, on parade to you. Probably the most ignorant man about anything essentially and characterically "American," who is at present in the county, is Lord Coleridge; and so he will doubtless remain, except as to what may be seen almost as well in photograph as in reality. The Englishman who, according to my observation, is most capable of all of his living countrymen to write with understanding about the country, told me that after having lived here a year and a half he was obliged to throw overboard all his theories and the opinions he had formed, and begin again from the foundation

M. St. Paul, a Paris physician, has offered, the French Academy the sum of $5,000 to found a prize for the discovery of a cure for diphtheria. He has evidently not heard of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which has cured hundreds of cases of this awful disease.

Blessful Benefactors.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were skeptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors. These Bitters are compounded from Hops, Buchu, Malt, Mandrake and Dandelion and other oldest, best and most valuable medicines in the world and contain all the best and most curative properties of all other medicines, being the greatest Blood Purifier, Kidney and Liver Regulator, and Life and Health Restoring Agent on earth. No disease or ill health can possibly long exist where these Bitters are used, so varied and perfect are their operations.

They give new life and vigor to the aged and infirm. To all whose employments cause irregularity of the bowels or urinary organs, or who require an Appetizer, Tonic and Mild Stimulant, these Bitters are invaluable, being highly curative, tonic and stimulating, without intoxicating.

No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, what the disease or ailment is, use Hop Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable, use the Bitters at once. It may save your life. Hundreds have been saved by so doing. $500 will be paid for a case they will not cure or help.

Do not suffer yourself or let your friends suffer, but use and urge them to use Hop Bitters.

Remember, Hop Bitters is the purest and best medicine ever made; the "Invalid's Friends and Hope." No person or family should be without them.

"I was troubled for many years with serious Kidney and Liver Complaint, Gravel, etc.; my blood became thin; I was dull and inactive; could hardly crawl about, and was an old worn out man all over, and could get nothing to help me, until I got Hop Bitters, and now I am a boy again. My blood is pure, Kidneys are all right, and I am as active as a man of 30, although I am 72.—FATHER.

"For ten years my wife was confined to her bed with such a complication of ailments that no doctor could tell what was the matter or cure her, and I used up a small fortune in humbug stuff. Six months ago I saw a U. S. flag with Hop Bitters on it, and I thought I would be a fool once more, and I tried it, but my folly proved to be wisdom, and two bottles cured her, she is now as well and strong as any man's wife, and it cost me only two dollars.

MEDICAL.

TAKE

Simmons Liver Regulator

For Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhœa, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and Ague, Malaria and all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver, Bowels and Kidneys.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.

Bad breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; cold feet or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spirits are low and despondent, and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged. It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons traveling, or living in unhealthy localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Bilious attacks, Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage.

If you have eaten anything hard of digestion, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night, take a dose and you will be relieved.

Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House!

For, whatever the ailment may be a thoroughly safe purgative, alterative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or pleasure.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE,

And has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects.

A GOVERNOR'S TESTIMONY.

Simmons Liver Regulator has been in use in my family for some time and I am satisfied it is a valuable addition to the medical science.

J. GILL SHORTER.
Governor of Alabama.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Ga., says Have derived some benefit from the use of Simmons Liver Regulator, and wish to give it a further trial.

"The only Thing that never fails to Relieve."—I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent Simmons Liver Regulator has. I sent from Minnesota to Georgia for it, and would send further for such a medicine, and would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve.

P. M. JANNEY,
Minneapolis, Minn.

Dr. T. W Mason says: From actual experience in the use of Simmons Liver Regulator in my practice I have been and am satisfied to use and prescribe it as a purgative medicine.
