WHEELER'S REMEDIES. SPNSIBLE MEN and Women know ere this that of the many diseases and derangements of the body each has a separate cause or origin, and that each needs a different method of treatment in order to effect a cure, and a moment's reflection must convince that any of the quack nostrums foisted upon the public claiming to cure all of a number of diametrically different diseases must prove failures, even if we do not call them humbugs.

SPEAKER CARLISLE. distinguished gentleman from Pennsyl-THE SPEAKERSHIP OF THE HOUSE GIVEN TO RENTUCKY.

Result of the Democratic Caucus at Wash ington, Saturday Evening-John G. Carlinie Nominated with 106 Votes.

At Washington, D. C., the Democratic caucus assembled at 7:30 o'clock, on Saturday evening with closed doors to nominate a speaker for the House of Rep-sentatives. Gen. Rosecrans called the Democratic caucus to order. Mr. Geddes, of Ohio, was selected as chairman and Messrs. Willis, of Kentucky, and Dibble, of South Caro lina, were chosen secretaries, and Messrs. Caldwell, of Tennessee, and Stockslager, of Indiana, tellers. A roll call disclosed the presence of one hundred and eighty four members. Four other members came in subsequently, making the total attend-ance one hundred and eighty eight. Messrs, Carlisle, Randall and Cox were foreign affairs committee as their respective headquarters. As soon as the roll call bad been completed Mr. Dorsheimer, of New York, offered a resolution providing that the votes in the caucus for nominating a candidate for the speakership should be viva voce. This resolution was agreed to on a division by 104 against 80, but the yeas and nays were thereupon demanded and Mr. Nucholls, of Georgia, offered an amendment in the nature of substitute providing that the votes should be by ballot. The roll was called on this amendment and it was rejected by a vote of : Yeas, 75 ; nays, 113. Mr. Dorsheimer's resolution was then adopted without debate.

Carlinte Nominated.

Nominations for the speakership were declared to be in order and candidates were placed in nomination as follows : John G. Carlisle, by Colonel Morrison, of Illinois; Samuel J. Randall, by ex-Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, and S. S. Cox, by General Sloeum, of New York The roll was called by states and the progress of the voting, as each successive member answered to his name, was watched with keen interest. Frequent messages repeating the footings of private tally lists from time to time were dispatched to the respective candidates outside the hall, and t soon became evident that Mr. Carlisle had won the contest. At the conclusion of the roll call the vote stood as follows

vania. The future of our party depends largely upon its action on fiscal questions. They connect themselves with the liberties of life, with trade, with commerce, with the magnanimities of public life and with the grandeur of the republic. While thanking those who have sustained me during this long siege I confess to feeling somewhat wearied of being on my feet during the last two weeks. Eighty-four depends on the wisdom with which we exercise the duties of this Congress. Without a wise forecast and discreet horoscope we will be in the future as we have been in the pastderelict, beaten, doubly discomfited. But I hope better things and shall endeavor in my humble way to do something towards framing legislation on a higher and purer tone Remember that '84 depends upon our wisdom and discretion.'' [Applause.]

The Other Officers.

Candidates for the clerkship were then placed in nomination and, the viva voce method being still pursued, were voted for as follows: First roll call-John B. absent from the caucus and occupied the rooms of the committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and means and the for a committee on appropriations, the committee on appropriations, the committee on appropriations, the committee on ways and the committee on appropriations, the committee on appropriation appropriation approprise appropriation appro ond vote-Clarke, 95 ; Atkins, 92 ; Martin 2. Ex-Congressman Clarke thus received majority vote and the nomination.

The caucus nomination for the position of sergeant-at-arms was then conferred upon John P. Leedom, of Ohio, by accla mation.

The next roll call was for doorkeeper. It resulted in the choice of J. G. Winter smith, of Texas, by a vote of 95 against 62 for W. C. Field, of Georgia, and 20 for C. B. Coit, of Connecticut.

Six nominations were made for post master. During the roll call it became apparent that L. Dalton, of Indiana, present superintendent of the document room of the Senate, had a majority and without announcing the vote his nomination was made unanimous.

Rev. John S. Lindsay, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal church, Georgetowa, D. C., was unanimously nominated for chaplain.

On motion of General Slocum, of New fork, seconded by General Rosecrans, of York, seconded by General Rosecrans, of California, it was unanimously resolved that the fourteen crippled and disabled Unico soldiers now borne on the soldier's roll under doorkeeper of the House of Representatives shall be retained on said roll, subject, however, to dismissal for a just and sufficient cause. The caucus then just and sufficient cause. The caucus then at 12:89 a. m., adjourned sine die.

Blowing & Boy's Brains Out.

At Baltimore a distressing and fatal accident occured Sunday afternoon, involving the instant death of a bright and promising boy of ten years. Peter Garvey, the proprietor of a livery stable, was cleaning a gun, and Peter Hallahan, the boy was standing in front of him. Garvey was pick-ing at the nipple, and while doing so the weapon exploded, the entire contents entering the head of the boy, scattering his brains over the floor. Garvey was arrested but after an investigation it was shown that the shooting was purely accidental and he was discharged.

The result of the voce having b.ca offi cially announced, Governor Cartin moved that Mr. Carlisle's nomination be made unanimous, which was immediately done, and the chair appointed Messrs, Randall Cox and Curtin as a committee to notify him of the caucus' action. Mr. Carlisle's entrance with the committee was greeted with long continued cheers On being es. corted to the speaker's chair, he spoke as follows : " Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the cancus, your committee has just formally notified me of my unan mous nomination for the office of speaker of the House of Representatives for the 48th Congress, and I am here to thank you very briefly and very earnestly for the confidence you have reposed in me. If this had been a mere personal contest between me and either of the three distinguished gentlemen whose is tout in praise of this wonderful medicine, names have been mentioned in connection with this nomination I should have had are suffering from ktiney diseases or diseases but little hope of success. They are all of the bladder. gentlemen of great ability, long experience and undoubted integrity, and I assure them and their friends that this contest closes so far as I am concerned, without the slightest change in the friendly personal relations which have heretofore existed between us. Gentlemen, I trust you may never have reason to regret your action this evening and that when the labors of the 48th Congress are closed you may be able to congratulate yourselves that no material interest of your party or your country has been injuriously affected by my administration of the office for which you have nominated me. In fact, I may go a step farther and venture to express the confident hope that every substantial interest will be advanced and promoted by the united efforts of the presiding officer and the Democratic majority on the floor.

Such result will insure victory in the great contests yet to come and guarantee a long line of Democratic executives, with an honest, economical and constitutional administration of our public affairs. But, sir, you have yet much other labor to perform and again thanking you for what you have already done, I will say no more.'

A Speech trom Randall. Mr. Raudall then addressed the caucus. He said :

"A majority of the Democratic Repre sentatives of the forty-eight Congress has seen fit to designate the distinguished gentleman from Kentucky for the exalted position of speaker. His administration shall have my firm, fixed and honorable support. To my friends, the minority, who may be disappointed at this result, I tender my gratitude for their support which was actuated by a noble, disinterested friendship, based on the highest considerations of duty, as they believed, both to their party and to their country. I bow to the decision of a majority of my colleagues. The duty imposed upon me by my constituents will be performed with earnest zeal for their interest, for the triumph of my party and the real pros perity of my country. If in the future there be any service I can render that will tend to these ends, it will be performed with cheerfulness that no other citizen can excel." I A polyage 1 excel." [Applause.]
