Picked up by the Intel"-gencer Reporter. The colored people's entertainment in the armory last night was a success in many respects, but also a failure in some. There were no Creole jubilee singers present and the prize silk dress for one of the walking contests turned into a calico. Rev. Christian often called for intermissions and finally declared that no more performances would go on until the re freshments had all been sold. He shares the proceeds with Mt. Zion M. E. church. perform more than balf of what he advertised. Harry Hill caught the pigeon which was let loose and received the prize for so doing. Lizzie Hill carried off the walking contest. Opera House Disorder.

"Ranch 10" drew a good sized house, last night. The performance was good, the fire scene being especially fine. The order in the opera house was wretched, and the police should now be compelled to arrest all disorderly persons without warning. The usual gang of loafers assembled in front of the building after the enter tainment, an annoyance to all decent people. The opera house police are not doing their duty by permitting such nuisances to exist.

Personal. Mr. Ancel Purple returned home from two year's residence in Mexico yesterday. Messrs. J. A. Knight, of Lewiston, Geo. Rathvon, of Lancaster, and Dr. J. M. F. Yost, of Betheada, Pa., were in town over night. The latter gentlemen were attending a meeting of Columbia lodge of Masonie Election. The following officers were elected at last night's meeting of Columbia lodge of Masons: W. M., A. G. Guiles; S. W., T. J. Clepper; J. W., John Westerman; Secretary, A. J. Kauffman; Treasurer, J. A. Myers; Representative to Grand Lodge, James Perrottet; Trustees, H. Wilson and Geo. Crane.

Borough Notes, To-night a meeting of Olive Branch lodge, No. 1,377, G. U. O. of O. F., will be beld.

"Confusion," by the New York Fifth avenue company, will be rendered in the opera house to morrow night. Yesterday afternoon a lot of soap was stolen from in front of the American tea store, Third street Mrs. Elizabeth Hinkle died at her resi dence on Walnut street last evening, of old age, being 79 years old. The Susquehanna rolling mill is now running on full time and full handed, and with plenty of orders on hand to keep up this satisfactory condition of things.

Some attention should be paid by the police to the three tramps who are at present working the town on their cheek. They seldom take the trouble to knock if the door is not fastened. They require watching.

Wm. B. Given, esq., executor of the John Wagner estate, last evening disposed of Mechanics Hall hotel at public sale. It was purchased by Messrs. John Swartz and Frank Shillow for $3,211. This was the last property of the estate remaining Pennsylvania tailroad engine had the top of its cab demolished last night by the iron slide down which coal is run to fill engine tenders in the west yards. engine was started before the slide had been lifted after having "coaled" tender. The engineer's head narrowly escaped being struck as the slide passed through the cabin roof.

The Immaculate Conception.

To morrow will be the feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary, a holyday of obligation in Catholic churches. It commemorates the birth of her who was to be the Saviour's mother without the stain of original sin At St. Mary's Catholic church there will be but one mass, that at 7 a.m.; at St. Anthony's and St Joseph's the masses will be at 5 and 9 a. m. Although long an object of pious belief, this doctrine was not defined as an article of faith until Dec. 8,

Fire Insurance Loss.

Bausman & Burns' insurance company also are sufferers in the Barnett & Haldeman eigar factory fire of yesterday morning in Marietta as follows: The British America association company had $2,700 insurance on cigars and leaf tobacco. Union insurance company $1,500 and the City of London fire insurance company had $500 on building. The loss is supposed to be total.

Not So Much of a bensation The report that H. R. Fetter, of Lex ington village, this county, had eloped with another man's wife and left his own family in destitute circumstances, was exaggerated. Mr. Fetter did not elope. He left his home and family on Nov. 27, but returned in a few days and, as he has absented himself before, his sudden departure and early return this time created no great sensation.

Shooting Match.

There was a large attendance at the shooting match at Jacob Witmer's hotel in Mountville yesterday, sportsmen being present from Lancaster, Columbia, Marietta and other places. The prizes, three in number were of cash The first was won by Walter Fryberger, of Marietta, who killed nine straight birds. For the second prize four were tie, killing eight each, and for the third two killed

The Strokt Family.-This evening there will be a fine musical treat in Fulton opera house when the great Strohl family will appear. We would advise people to go and hear them. The Atlantic City Times says. "There is no more wonderful exhibition of musical talent than that of the Strohl family now at this city and thousands of men, women and children have been greeting this gitted family for the past six weeks. Every alternoon and evening they draw crowded houses, and every one speaks words of pleasantry of the delightfu performance, executed in the highest style of art." At Bethlehem they made " the hall ring with applause,"

KESUUED PROM DEATH The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, follower by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expend-ed over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS.
