A TERRIBLE PROPHECY.

Week Ending Saturday, Decem ber 1, 10 a. m. U. S. Tobacco Journal.

It is binders the people want. In all the dreary stillness of the market the cry for binders, at least, is breaking the monotony. While there is on abundance of cheap wrappers there is a striking dearth of binders. They are scarce in low as well as fine goods. The unfortunate Connecticut seconds made a gap in the usual yearly supply of binders. Those of other crops have been up to now heavily drawn on, and the void is severely felt. If the low priced wrappers in the market possessed but one half less bide elasticity but one and weight in body the demand could easily be filled. There is a peculiarity in the seed leaf in the market not exhibited in former years. With the exception of a little thin leafy stock, everything else is exceedingly thick. Outside of this unusual inquiry for binders there is a fine craving for so called Little Datch fillers. They sell at 18 to 54 cents, and appeal strongly to the nostrils, their flavor competing with that emanating from a cup of camomile tea. As there seems to exist a decided preference on the part of the average smoker for something that smells "high." by which he inveigles himself into believing that he is using up a clear Havana cigar, manufacturers, especially the middle class, have settled upon Little Dutch fillers to suit the occasion. The whole crop of Little Datch, whose birthplace is Ohio, only consists of a few thousand cases. As this amount, with the past and prevailing demand, has probably been almost exhausted, suspicion lurks in our mind that Peonsylvania fillers and others are finding their way into the hands of unsophisticated manufacturers as being the only true and original Little Dutch. We repeat this is merely a suspicion, of which we cannot help feeling considerably ashamed, especially as a recent law in this city demonstrated the fact that the dealers and packers in the New York leaf market emphatically consider the sale of Massachusetts tobacco as Connecticut a practice which under no circumstances would they countenance. Outside of this unusually heavy domaud for binders and Little Dutch tillers it was very dull in the market. Nearly all the manufacturers in this city, excepting those making very cheap grades, are working haif time only. None of them express any regret at this. They see in the conservative demeanor of the jobbing trade a financially healthy condition of trade, and as there exists no reason whatever for a some have a good portion stripped. The last few days of last year a great deal was taken down in a very good condition, but not many of the farmers have enough of the weed stripped to show it to advantage and they seem to be in no hurry to sell. Indeed we hear of some who have refused to entertain any offers until they get their obacco into condition.

In all sections of the county stripping is going on quite lively, and after the holi-days both grower and buyer will be ready to talk to each other, and, it is hoped to #### their mutual advantage. ----A Royal Linguist. Crown Prince of Portugal, who is only a few weeks over twenty years of age is a remarkable linguist. He has already acquired a private library of some 40,000 volimes, containing many rare and precious editions of the authors of the world. But he promises, in addition, to develop into the Mezzofanti of his age, for he not only speaks English with conpetent facility, after no more than two years' study, but converses in fourteen languages, so that he is master approximately of all the languages of Europe.

A colored man, in Henry County, Ga, got fitty seven possume out of one hollow tree; he sold them all, and the first thing he pur-chased was a bottle of Dr.Bul's Cough Syrup, the only rate remedy for coughs and colds.

Biessful Benefactors.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by ombining some well known valuable reme dies, the most wonderful medicine was pro duced, which would cure such a wide range o diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were skeptical; but proot of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all-doubt, and to day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors. These Bitters are compounded from Hops, Buchu, Mait, Mandrake and Dandeiion and other oldest. best and most valuable medicines in the world and contain all the best and most curative properties of all other medicines, being the reatest Bicod Purifier, Ridney and Liver Regulator, and Life and Health Restoring Agent on carth.
