OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Events Along the Susquehanna-Items of Interest In and Around the Borough Picked up by the Inteld-

geneer Reporter. The caboose and four cars of the train of freight engine No. 413 were wrecked yes terday afternoon half a mile south of York Furnace, on the Columbia & Port Deposit railroad. The cause of the accident is unknown, but resulted, probably, from a bent car axle or a broken rail. The Col-umbia wreckers were called to the scene of the wreck and laid a temporary track around it. The workmen suffered severely from the cold. One man was injured severely by a track rail falling upon him while it was being taken from a car.

Perllons Snowslides. Two small boys were overwhelmed by the snow which fell from the roof of the Presbyterian church yesterday. They were taken out of their cold bed by several witnesses of the accident. Both were slightly injured.,

A young son of Lewis Lyle was almost caught last evening in an avalanche of snow which fell from the roof of the old R. & C. railroad depot, where the Lyle family now reside. The father's warning saved the boy from certain death, as everything upon which the great mass of snow fell was crushed to pieces.

" A Bunch of Keys."-This comedy will be a strong company with Flora Moore at the head and including Candeld and Booker. They appeared in Wilkesbarre on Christmas night to a packed house, and are thus spoken of by the Record "The play abounds in fun. not ephemeral, but such as lasts, and the audience was kept in a roar from the beginning to the end of the performance. The company evidently knows how to please, and is not weak in a single point, no one giving his part a misconstruction by adding anything that would deprive the play of its merits The singing was unusually good, the voices blending with much harmony and the solos rendered to splendld style. Miss Fiora Moore as. Teddy Keys, was so graceful in her acting at to receive numerous encores."

" The Two Orphans."-Kate Claxton is too well known here to need any praise, and the mere announcement that she will appear here to morrow evening in her impersonation of Louise in "The Two Orphans" should be sufficient to pack the house. She will be supported by Charles A. Stevenson and an excel lent company of artists.

A Terrible Explosion Averted-Snow on the Roots saves the Mills. WILMINGTON, Dei., Dec. 28.—Fire broke ont at 3 o'clock this morning in the cooper shop belonging to Dupont, DeNemours & Co., situated on the Brandywine nearly opposite the middle yards, where most of the company's powder mills stand. The flames communicated to the adjoining buildings, in one of which the fire extingnishing apparatus was kept, and access being thus cut off the fire burned aimost nuchecked. Sparks were carried across the creek to the mills, but the snow resting on the roofs prevented them from taking are. The cooper shop, keg mill, tar house, hoop house and a large stone factory, used as a storehouse, together with considerable shedding, were burned, entailing a loss of $75,000. THE POND CASE.

Evidence Against the Accused St. Louis Mo, Dec. 28.—At the after-noon session of the Bond trial yesterday, Mrs. George Yonkers testified that it was the day after the outrage that she and her husband were at Joseph Yonker's house and not the day of the outrage as claimed by Montgomery. She related the events which occurred as testified to by Montgomery and the Yonkers Brothers, but firmly maintained that it was the day following the outrage. Her evidence created a sensation and it is regarded by some as destroying Montgomery's alibi.

The Freak of a Chimney Sweep. A strange scene in one of the principal Birmingham thoroughfares was the subject of magisterial proceedings. A sweep named Cheshire ran up a ladder on to the roof of a gentleman's house, and, for the edification of a large crowd, stood upon his head on the top of a chimney pot, at the same time performing with his legs a va-riety of fantastical movements. The chimney collapsed and fell into the street, doing damage to the ex-tent of a sovereign, and causing several persons to have narrow escapes from injury, while the adventurous per-former of the freak rolled into the water spont, and had a narrow escape from what must have been instant death. Ultimately he was rescued through a skylight in the roof. The prisoner said he supposed he had been playing the fool. The Clerk-And you will have to pay for it. Cheshire was fined 5s., and 20s. damages.

They put a rope around his neck aud pinioned his arms, and bade him walk ahead of them. At the locust tree, and five minutes later all was over. New York Sun. A constitutional amendment authorizing the president to veto portions of an ap-propriation bill must be ratified by the Legislatures of twenty nine states, being three fourths of the whole.

It would be well for Congress to pass the amendment at an early day, so that it can be submitted to the nine Legislatures that will be in session this winter.
