

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Events along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and around the Borough—Picked up by the Intelligence Reporter.

The route of the "Frimen" parade to-morrow is as follows: from Union below Fourth it will be up Union to Lancaster avenue and countermarch to Fifth, across Fifth to Locust; up Locust to Seventh; over Second to Walnut; down Walnut to Second; then over to Locust; up Locust to Third; across Third to Cherry; up Cherry to Fourth; up Fourth to Manor; up Manor to Ninth and countermarch to Fourth; across Fourth to Mill; down Mill to Second; over Second to Union; up Union to the Shawnee engine houses.

Before the parade moves C. C. Knuff, manager, will present a flag to the Shawnee fire company—a present from ladies of Columbia. The visiting firemen will be received when the parade dismisses at the Shawnee engine house by Mr. Alfred C. Bruner, Mr. Wm. H. Stoyan, who will have delivered this address, but a heavy cold will now prevent his doing so. The Columbia firemen will take charge of their visitors after the parade has been dismissed.

In the religious world. Watch meetings will be held to-night at the Methodist, Union, Brethren and Bethel church of God churches. Protracted meeting began at the latter church last night. These meetings will be continued some time. St. John's Lutheran church will repeat its Christmas entertainments to-morrow evening. It will be an entertaining affair.

Salome Presbyterian chapel Sunday-school elected the following officers yesterday: Superintendent, C. C. Kaufman; assistant superintendent, Geo. Crane; superintendent of infant school, Mrs. Geo. Crane; treasurer, J. W. Yocum; librarian, Geo. W. Schroeder and Joa. J. Parple; Secretary, C. H. Pfahler; as assistant secretary, Wm. Pedrick.

The Columbia fire company will hold its ball in the armory to-night. The Shawnee ball will be held at the same place to-morrow night. Both will be big affairs.

Personal. Mr. James Kiscandell, recently injured by being thrown from a buggy, is about to attend to his duty again.

Mr. Thomas P. Lundy, the victim of an accident, which occurred on the Pennsylvania railway at Philadelphia several weeks ago, returned here on Saturday afternoon, accompanied by Dr. Frank Robinson, of the Presbyterian hospital, Philadelphia. Since his return he has been called upon by hosts of warm friends who tendered their congratulations upon his return.

The death record. Miss Sarah Bradley died yesterday of droupy. The funeral will be held from her late residence on Fourth street to-morrow at 3 o'clock, p. m.

Mrs. Samuel Taylor, who died of pneumonia at her home at Chestnut Hill, yesterday, will be buried to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral services will be held at her late residence.

Accidental. Mr. Thomas Davish and lady were thrown from a sleigh at 7th and Chestnut streets yesterday as the horse rounded a corner. The animal ran away, but was soon recaptured. No person was hurt.

The snow and ice which fell from the roofs of many houses yesterday in several instances narrowly missed falling upon persons. Any person struck would have been seriously injured, as the masses were large and heavy.

Henry Rieder was struck by a P. R. R. engine in the west yards here on Saturday afternoon. The pilot knocked him from the track, his head was cut and broken in several places. Commusion of the brain set in slightly. He is now resting comfortably. The accident occurred while he was walking on the track.

Borough summary. The river rose a little last night. The pavements are coated with ice and walking is dangerous. The ice on the river has been weakened by the late warm weather.

"Nick of the Weather" and "The Galley Slave" will not be presented at the opera house.

In a short time the report of the Columbia public ground company will be published.

Market was held this afternoon. To-morrow being New Year's day made the change.

The Columbia wrecking crew yesterday cleared away the remains of the late wreck down the Columbia and Port Deposit railroad.
