UNITED FOR LIFE.

A COLORED KNOT FASHIONABLY TIED.

An Attractive Wedding that Guaranteed a Successful Futurer in the Best Colored Circles of the City.

A wedding that created considerable stir among the upper circles of colored society took place last evening at the Africa Club. The bride was Miss Mary Wilson, the principal was Mr. David Wilson, a muscular, pleasant faced Ethiopian, with a skin as dark as Erebus, and Miss Laura Brown, a dusky damsel of chocolate brown complexion. The church was packed long before the time fixed for the ceremony, 7:30 o'clock, with an expectant Afro-Caucasian assemblage. Every race, color and previous condition of servitude were noticeable in the Africa portion of the crowd, while a few white faces in the rear, made a pretty silver lining to the dark cloud in the forward portion of the church.

Promptly at the appointed time the bridal procession appeared at the door of the church and, after exchanging some difficulty in pushing through the crowd gathered on the sidewalk, entered the sacred edifice. Polly Henry and Charles Wilson, youthful relatives of the high contracting parties, headed the procession. Next came Mr. Frank Dean, sporting a custom breasted, and Miss Bella Savington, followed by Mr. William Wilson, whose arm was heavily handicapped with a substantial looking maiden, Miss Martha Thomas. All this time the organ was merrily playing a wedding march, to which the bride and groom, who brought up the rear of the procession, kept close rate step.

The bride was robed in flossy white garments with a long white tulle veil, and her shapely head was crowned with a wreath of orange blossoms. She presented a strikingly beautiful sight, her ebony face peering out of her white apparel, like a lump of coal in a bed of white carnations. The twin were quickly pronounced one by Rev. A. A. Robinson of Philadelphia, who presided at the bridal party and their friends repaired to Love and Charity hall, on Low street, where a handsome reception was in waiting. The bride and groom took their station in the forward portion of the hall and, after exchanging some congratulations. In the rear standing in every conceivable position, and arrayed in white veils, white ties, and every variety of high silk hats, was a motley crew of colored men who stared at everything within their range of vision, as if at the time of the wedding, they were the bitter end of envy over their brothers good fortune.

For their bridal tour the happy pair walked to the residence of the bride's parents, on Church street, which they will make their future home. Among the many children of Ham who were present some were of more than ordinary prominence in colored society circles. Among these, George Burton, the dapper porter of the Stevens house, whose curly hair and eyes were as black as the night, and whose white satin tie and glistering shirt boom made him at once the envy and admiration of all beholders. It is said that he carried on his person $500 worth of diamonds and jewelry.

Caught in the Act. John Williams, colored man, was caught yesterday in the act of stealing a small box of shoes from in front of the store of Michael L. Hirsch on West King street. A son of the man, who saw the man take the shoes and he had Officer Pyle arrest him. The property was returned and Williams was held by Alderman Spurrier for a hearing to-morrow afternoon.

Good Skating. The skating is very good at nearly all points on the Conestoga and large crowds are enjoying in to-day; especially is there a large attendance at Graeff's landing.

Two Vagrants. Business was all quiet at the station this morning. The mayor had but two cases and they were vagrants, who were discharged.
