WHEELER'S REMEDIES.

And Women know ere this that of the many discusses and derangements of the body each has a separate cause or origin, and that each needs a different method of treatment in orier to effect a care, and a moment's reflection must convince that any of the quack nostrums foisted upon the public claiming to cure all of a number of diametrically different discusses must prove fallures, even if we do not call them humbugs,

POOR PEOPLE

And people of moderate means, and even people well-to-do or wealthy, find that the enormous charges of practising physicians are a serious burden to them, and also find that after paying themselves poor that no benefit has accrued to them, that in fact they have thrown their money away. To overcome these evils we offer Wheeler's No. 28 sure Remedies to the sick and suffering one Remedy for each discuss, without for a moment claiming that one remedy will cure any other disease than the one claimed for it, and as these remedies have stood the test of years without a single failure, we agree to refund the money paid in every finstance where a cure is not positively effected. The remedies are entirely vegotable, can do no harm, and will positively cure every disease for which they are prescribed.

RHEUMATISM,

RHBUMATISM,
Gout, Lameness of Joints, Sciatica and Neuralgia are relieved atoncound positively cured by the use of Whooler's No. 96 Kheumatic Remedy. We say boldly that in the worst of Cases of no matter how long standing, how serious, or how painful, we can not only give relief but positively care for all time. Falling to do this we will positively refind the money paid for the treatment, and if your sufferings are not positively stopped for all time you have not thrown your money away as you would on any other than these guaranteed remedies. The price of Wheeler's No. 96 Kheumatic Remedy is only 50 cents, obtainable from any druggists, or sent free by mail on receipt of price. Stamps taken.

SUFFERING WOMEN. Many a lady, endowed by nature with a pretty face, beautiful figure, faultiess complexion, as well as the sweetest of tempers and faultiess mental qualities grows prematurely old, gray and wrinkled, her form loses its perfect contour, the complexion becomes sallow, the brightness leaves the eye, a feeling of languor takes the place of the once buoyant spirits, an irritable nervous fractiousness makes life a burden, things that once were trifles worry her until life becomes unbearable. All this being caused by the physical derangements so common to women, which the innate modesty of teminine nature prevents their making being caused by the physical derangements so common to women, which the innate modesty of teminine nature prevents their making known, and of which the ignorance of the medical profession prevents a cure. Lady Reader, pause and consider, 'tis a duty you owe yourselt, your lamity and your foot, that you should cure yourself of these troubles and once more teel the glow of perfect health and spirits that nature intended for you. Wheeler's No. St Prescriptions are pleasant and palatable to take, contain nothing of an injurious nature, and may be taken by all ages, at a times and in all conditions, without possibility of til effects, and will positively cureany of the peculiar diseases to which females are subject. Failing to produce a perfect cure the proprietors will refund the money paid for the treatment. If you have a sallow complexion, constant or intermittant headache, back-ache, restlessness, loss of appetite, suppressions of monthly flow, or irregularities thereof accompanied by headaches, hervousness, hysteria and similar symptoms, Wheelers No. 36 Prescription" B" will positively restore you to health. If you have a sensation of heat and throbbing in the back, frequent fainting spells, Leucorrhea or white discharge, paintul or scalding sensation in urinating, reddish or white deposit in urine, hot and dry skin. Wheeler's No. 36 Prescriptions "C" will give immediate and lasting relief. The price of Wheeler's No. 36 Prescriptions "C" will give immediate and lasting relief. And a Family Made Happy.

Mr. Philip Moore, of West Webster, Monroe County, N. Y., says: "My daughter, now eighteen years old, has, for the past eighteen months, ben afflicted with rheumatism in a ben afflicted with rheumatism in a very severe form. One year ago it settled in the knee, since which time she has been unable to touch her toot to the floor or move her imb without suffering the most exeruciating pain. Her limb was fast growing out of shape, although we were doing for herali we could, having used all the remedies we could hear of and that were recommended for rheumatism, none of which benfitted her in the least. Her case was pronounced incurable by the physician and by our neighbors, and all believed that she would be a cripple all her days, and that her limb would believed that she would be a cripple all her days, and that her limb would never be restored to its original shape. But I am happy to say that to-day my daughter is entirely free from all rheumatic pains, and that she can walk with perfect case, having thrown aside her crutches, and her limb seems as strong and per fect as ever; all from the use of your wonderful medicine "Kheumatic Syrup," which we consider one of the best medicines ever introduced for purifying the blood, and I only regret that all others who are afflicted with rheumatism can not knew of its superior merits. You are at liberty to use my name if it will do you any good, and I shall be only too gladic tell any and everyone what it has done for my daughter."

HIGHSPIRE'S MISERS

A THREE BUSHEL BAG FULL OF COLS The Husband Finding $20,000 Hidden in the Old Shanty After his Wite's Death —Tortured by Robbers into Giv.

tog $1,000. Highspire is a settlement six miles east of Harrisburg, where in addition to a rather sporadic cluster of tumbledown houses, there is a distillery which manufactures the now celebrated Highspire whisky. One mile from that place an aged couple, Michael Ulrich and his wife, have lived so long that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. Nobody remembers when they began to grow old, They have always lived in a manner sug gestive of poverty and destitution. They were industrious, and early and late they toiled on the little farm which came to them by inheritance. They complained to their neighbors. For many years they have been the subject of sympathe-tic comments when the cold winds whistled through the trees and sent a chill into houses much better provided against such visitations, but they paid no regard to this, if they ever became aware of it. The approach of old age caused no relaxation of their labor on the farm, though there was the same absence of any signs of improvement in their condition. Then the sympathetic gossip changed to whisperings of hoarded wealth. The U1 made good crops, and marketed them with zealous regard to the highest profits. They came regularly, winter and summer, to market in Harrisburg. Though six miles separated them from the stall in which they were regularly found twice a week, they were among the first to offer their truck to the morning buyers, and soon, by the excellence of their articles, they secured the patronage of the most liberal consumers. After disposing of their stock they would trudge home in an pared for the next market day. What they did with their money no one could conjecture. The whispers of hoarded wealth spread, and, instead of pitying glances, the eyes of cupidity were turned on the old couple. Two years ago this winter, one night when a driving snow storm prevailed, several masked men entered the old shanty and, before the sleeping inmates knew of their presence, the men had entered their bedroom with revolvers leveled at their heads. The robbers demanded money, and were answered with a pitiful plea of poverty and protestations that there was no money in the house. The robbers dragged the couple out of bed, tortured them in various ways, and finally put the old woman's naked feet in the wood fire and roasted them. This brought a of the money would be disclosed.

The old man, who was about to be treated to the same barbarous pun ishment led them to an outhouse, where they found $1,000. He assured them that that constituted the whole of their savings, and they believed him. Two after baving used doctors' prescriptions and months ago Mrs. Ulrich died. After her many of the so-called cures without getting death the aged widower appeared at the counter of the Farmers' bank of Middletown. The old market wagon which had self and wife had been greatly benefited by its so often carried the proceeds of their industry to Harrisburg containing a three bushel bag well filled with gold and silver soins the aggrette amount of which was coins, the aggreate amount of which was a few doses of 1; the pains in my back were many thousands of dollars. This, he sup old wagon, drawn by a feeble old horse, to resume their work in order to be pre-

posed, constituted the entire heard, and peared at the bank. This time he had a large roll of bank notes, some of which were old and musty and bore evidence of having been hidden away for many years. This second deposit represented an aggregate equal to the first, and brought the grand total to about $15,000. A day or two ago he made the third visit to the bank. He said that when last there he had supposed that every dollar about the with it. premises had been transferred to the bank, but in examining the house subsequently he found nooks and crevices all through the building all stuffed full of bank notes, These notes were of large denominations, being all tens, twenties and fifties. They aggregate nearly $5,000. Mr. Ulrich says that he knew nothing of the hiding places of the money. He only knew in a general way that the old lady was saying money, but how or where he neither knew nor inquired. He said to an officer of the bank that on the night that the robbers were misled and satisfied with the $1,000 in an outhouse, there was fully $15,000 in an house and several thousands in the out-In the Andrews murder trial a year a; of Mrs. Ulrich was the principal witness against the prisoner, and on her evidence he was convicted. Her appearance in the court at the time excited general commiseration. Old, decrepit and paralytic, her meagre clothing gave impressions of the greatest poverty. The discovery of the fabulous sums of hidden wealth causes the greatest surprise. A new trial has been granted to Andrews since her death, and his friends now believe that he will at least escape the death penalty. AN OVATION FOR JAMES NUTT. Popular Approval of the Killing of Dukes Made Mauliest.

Pittsburg Telegram to the Tribune. Young James Nutt, who killed Dukes, is now in the Allegheny county jail. He left Uniontown at 6:40 on Saturday morning in charge of Sheriff Sterling, of Fayette county, and urrived at 9:40 a. m. At Dunbar, sixty miles from the city, John Heenan, a ruddy facel young Irishman, burg morning paper, containing a telegram to the effect that Frederick Joyce, a cham-pion dreamer of Youngstown, O., claimed to have dreamed a couple of nights ago of his trial, the vision carrying him clear though the case. The trial he says, will last two weeks, will be full of sensations and altogether will be one of the most noteworthy murder trials on record. The pleas on either side will be the finest ever deliered by man; the charge of the judge will be evenly balanced and the jury will go out, while scores of ladies will pray aloud for the prisoner. In just forty five minutes after the jury retires a verdict of

'not guilty" will be rendered. There wil then be great manifestations of joy in Pittsburg and young Nutt will be feted, dined and loaded with presents. He will acquittal and will then return home. Young Nutt smiled when he had finished reading and said : "That young chap must have been a dreamer."

At West Newton three young women boarded the train and presented Nutt with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. An immense throng was in waiting at the depot and there was much disappointment when the train arrived and it was found that Sheriff Sterling and his charge had left the train just before it entered the yards. A rush was made for the jail, but too late. Nutt was searched immediately upon his arrival at the jail and was then placed in his cell.

Where a Rabbit's Foot Sells for $2, vannah News, A certain book agent from an adjacent county spent Christmas in southwest Georgia. After selling an old darkey a Bible he crossed his back with a rabbit's foot and told him that he could never now no one, and never asked assistance from be conjured or harmed. The negro expressed great gratitude and wanted to buy the foot. "No, I can't sell this," was the reply, "for it is worth $10,000 to any one. It is the left hind foot of a rabbit that was shot in a graveyard at Tuscaloosa, Ala., and possesses peculiar virtues; but I am looking for a fresh supply from there in a few days and will perhaps sell you one. On going into the country next day he shot two rabbits and cut off all their feet. When he returned the gentleman found the darkies wild with excitement, and as fast as he could receive the money sold out bis stock of rabbit's feet at $2 each.

This life is too full of work, of duty, and of pleasure to be wasted. But everybody don't think so, or they would not trifle with a cold, or a cough, when Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the only reliable remedy, can be procured for 25 cents.

A WOMAN'S AFFAIR. MRS. N. H. SMALL, the wife of the popular deputy sheriff and assessor of Topsham, Me., writes us on May 15, 1883; "That she had been severely afflicted during several years with kidney and liver disease, accompanied with severe pains and headache. Having tried many so called cures, and medicines, and doc tor's prescription's, without receiving any benefit, and while seeking for a cure, she noticed the advertisement of Hunt's Remedy and decided to try it. Having bought a bottle at It with such flattering results that she continit its use, and after using only five bottler the Improvement in her health is so marked manner to know of this most valuable and reitable medicine; and she most cheerfully re commends Hunt's Remedy to all, and espect plaints peculiar to the sex."

Under date of May 10, 1883, we have received ombard, of 18 Charles street, Portland, Me, Mr. Lombard says: "For several years past I have been troubled with severe backache and pains in the side, and when I would lie down I could not rest well, as it seemed impossible for me to get into an easy position; and my aches and pains increased constantly to such an extent that I became convinced that I had a disease of the kidneys fastened to me, and uses, and many others of our acquaintances relieved, and after taking three bottles my posed, constituted the entire hoard, and sideache and lame back are cured, and I can after making the deposit he returned and truly testily that Hunt's Remedy is an article A few days later Mr. Ulrich again ap tor it, and I know of many other people in Portland who have tound a cure in Hunt's Remedy after all others falled to do any good, and I recommend it to all who have kidney or liver disease, hoping that this may be the means of relieving some sufferer who does not know of the merits of Hunt's Remedy. A Baptist Minister's Experience. "I am a Baptist Minister, and before I ever thought of being a clergyman, I graduated in medicine, but left a locative practice for my Heenan, a ruddy faced young Irishman, boarded the train and approaching the prisoner clasped his hand and exclaimed:

"Bless my soul, Jimmy, but I'm glad to see you. You'll be better off in Pittsburg jail than you were in the hog pen up there. I hope you will prosper in your trial."

Nuttreplied: "I want change. I think it will do me good." The Irishman, who had a few days before finished a term of imprisonment in the Uniontown jail, then leaped from the train and at his signal a crowd of laborers and furnace men who had gathered at the station sent up a mighty cheer.

At every station along the Baltimore and Ohio railroad crowds of people were waiting and as the train passed by men cheered and women waved handkerchiefs. At Connellsville young Nutt secured a Pittsburg morning paper, containing a telegram to the effect that Frederick Joyce, a champion dreamer of Youngstown, O., claimed to have dreamed a couple of nights ago of MAUHINERY. Having Dissolved Parthership and petmanently closed the Chestnut street Iron Works, I desire to Inform my old patrons and the public generally, that I am still in the business, being located in the Fenn Iron Company's Works, North Flum street, where I am making Iron and Brass Castings of every destription, and will be pleased to serve all who may favor me with their patronsage. From 40 years experience in the business and using the best material and employing the best mechanics, I am satisfied I can guarantee entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more remained entire satisfaction. Castings made from a mixture of iron and steel which are more reliable for strength and derability than the best cast from known. V teeth roll pinions, rolls and rolling mill work a specialty. Castings made of very sort from, and brass castings of every description. I have all the patters at the well and fayorably known Mowrer Corn and Geb Crusher, refitted and improved. Also on hand, mills completely fitted up or in parts, to replace old ones which have been in use for years, guaranteeing them to give a lataction.
