

GRAVE GHOULS.

ATTEMPT TO STEAL A BISHOP'S BODY.

Surprising Discovery Made by a Sexton in a Wheeling, W. Va., Cemetery—The Robbers After Flounder. Wheeling was thrown into great excitement on Sunday by the fact being made public that on Thursday night or Friday morning a desperate attempt had been made by a quartette of body snatchers to remove and carry off the remains of Right Rev. R. V. Waelan, late Catholic bishop of that diocese.

The outer doors of the chapel were forced open with a jimmy, and work was systematically begun. The large inscribed marble slab inserted in the floor over the vault was broken and removed, but the heavy stone archway resisted all efforts to penetrate it.

The sexton happened to visit the building Friday afternoon, and, discovering the work of the ghouls, at once gave the alarm. Bishop Kain was notified, but decided not to give the matter publicity and placed a guard of men, armed with rifles, around the building.

The sexton, however, decided to visit the building Friday afternoon, and, discovering the work of the ghouls, at once gave the alarm.

A rolling stone gathers no moss? But it may get an advertisement for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup allowed to it.

That a good deal of the suffering in this world can be avoided by purchasing Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and using it as directed.

An Excellent Remedy. Hon. Jos. G. Goodridge, of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes this: "I cannot express myself in sufficiently high terms of the efficacy of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and using it as directed."

Do You Believe It. That in this town there are scores of persons passing our store every day whose lives are made miserable by indigestion, dyspepsia, sour and distressed stomach, liver complaint, constipation, etc.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

Healthy People sometimes Laugh.

At the sufferings of dyspeptics, and say that their pains and distresses are imaginary. This is not meant for cruelty, but it is cruelly, all the same. A person who has a crooked foot, or a wounded hand, or a slight eye, calls forth sympathy by the exhibition of the defective member. If the dyspeptic sufferer's stomach could be placed on exhibition, the cause of his distress would be apparent.

The man with a troublesome stomach often suffers quite as much as the man with a broken leg, and is far less likely to receive sympathy.

Sympathy is good for sufferers, as far as it goes. But Brown's Iron Bitters is better, for it strikes at the root of the trouble and cures disease. Disappointed dyspeptics, weary of having tried many experiments in seeking cure, will do well to make one fair trial of Brown's Iron Bitters and report the result. That this well tried, family medicine will thus diminish the quantity of human suffering is an established fact.

BENSON'S SKIN CURE. [From Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.] A LADY SAID. "These Horrid Pimples! No, I cannot be. Please! Please! My Excuse."

Probably two-thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skin diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives. Then she would have instead of a disfigured and marred countenance, one that would be handsome, or at least good looking, for any woman with clear, pure skin, no matter what the cut of her features, has a certain amount of good looks which attract everybody. As it is now, she imagines every one sees and talks about "those freckles," "those horrid pimples," and other blemishes with which she is afflicted, but this is true of either sex.

To improve this appearance great risks are taken, arsenic, mercury, or high-sound titled named articles containing these death-dealing drugs, are taken in hopes of getting rid of all these troubles. In many cases death is the result. No safe and reliable remedy, heating, itching and inflammation is given. All troubles with Eczema (salt rheum), Tetter, Humors, Inflammation, Rough Scaly Eruptions of any kind, eruptions of the face and scalp, Scrofula, Ulcers, Pimples, or Tender Itchings on any part of the body should know that there is hope for them in a safe, perfect and elegant remedy, known as "Dr. Benson's Skin Cure." It makes the skin white, soft and smooth; removes tan and freckles, and is the BEST toilet dressing IN THE WORLD. It is elegantly put up, TWO bottles for 50c, containing the most perfect internal and external treatment. Our readers should be sure to get this and not some old remedy, resuscitated on the shelves of Dr. Benson's new advertisement as "The Best of Skin Cures." There is only one—it bears the name, picture and is for sale by all druggists, 10c per package.

Price, 50 cents per box, 100 for $1, six for $5.00 by mail, postage free.—Dr. C. W. Benson, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists. Sole Agent for Dr. C. W. Benson's Remedies, J. B.
