

THE PEOPLE'S MONEY.

From Our Regular Correspondent. A great deal of suffering exists among the poor.

Every minister in town will preach on temperance next Sunday evening. A masquerade and fancy dress ball are to be held here on no distant day.

The ladies of town are now forming a relief society, and several accidents have been caused thereby within a few days past.

The crossing at the Harrisburg turnpike and Pennsylvania railroad, in the north-western part of the city is in a very dangerous condition.
