DI'MOND DICK'S LARIAT.

A COW-BOY POEM OF THE PLAINS.

Any more stories of Di'mond Dick
Besides that yarn of the wolves at bay?
Why, bless your gizzard, they crowd so thick
That I might rattle them off all day.

What was the mooniest thing he done?
Well, Richard wasn't a moony man:
Kept his wits handy, every one,
Struck pay-dirt without wasting a pan.

They called him rash, but he wasn't that—
Cool he was as a gob of lead,
And under that flopping yaller hat
He carried a wonderful level head.

You've been down there on the Rio Grand,
Where they've built the Espanola bridge,
That skutes across the alkali sand
And over the water to the ridge?

Well, five years since the bridge wasn't there,
The Denver and Rio didn't run,
There was only sand and river and air,
And a 'dobe pueblo flat in the sun.

Dick and I were herding it then
For Sancho Jiminy—rot his hide!
Three hundred steers, and only two men,
On a ranch six miles and a quarter wide.

The gramma skirted the edge of the dunes
And the river ran six miles away;
I tell you, boys, we had lively time
Driving to water twice a day.

Those wide-horn brutes were an ugly lot:
Couldn't head them, we let them run,
And the way they swooped, when the day was hot,
Down to the river, was lots of fun.

They were sloshing along one scorchy day,
Like wild bull-buffalos, over the sand,
When we saw a baby right in their way.
Fast asleep on the edge of the Grand.

I knew it meant death; my heart flipflopped,
I spurrred to turn them, but, true's I'm born,
Those Mexican steers would never have stopped
If I'd been Gabriel tooting his horn.

What did Dick do? His spurs dug deep,
His broncho flew, and I saw him wheel,
With his lariat whirling the daisiest sweep,
His teeth set tight and his eyes like steel.

The loop swung out thirty feet away,
Hovered, and settled down on the sand,
Making a noose where the baby lay,
And then Dick reeled in, hand over hand.

And yanked up the child and rode like steam,
As the cattle rushed on, hot and thick:
And the baby woke with a healthy scream,
Safe in the arms of Di'mond Dick.

Well, it was only a Pueblo brat,
A p'ison Mexican-Indian snake—
But Di'mond Dick didn't think of that,
He'd saved a life, with his own at stake.

And I somehow thought, with a choky wheeze,
Of Christ's own promise by Galilee—
"As you have done to the least of these,
To a little child, you have done to Me."

—Bill Y. Buttes, the Colorado Cow-boy.

Something for all the Preachers.

Rev. H. H. Fairall, D. D., editor of the Iowa Methodist, says editorially, in the November (1883) number of his paper: "We have tested the merits of Ely's Cream Balm, and believe that, by a thorough course of treatment, it will cure almost every case of catarrh. Ministers, as a class, are afflicted with head and throat troubles, and catarrh seems more prevalent than ever. We cannot recommend Ely's Cream Balm too highly." Not a liquid nor a snuff. Letter from Dr. Serre.

18 WEST 35TH STREET,
NEW YORK, June 1, 1883.

I have been a sufferer in the past with Malaria, which finally became Chills and Fever. Treatment by my physician failed to help me. I used BRANDRETH'S PILLS and was cured. Thirteen months have elapsed since then and I have had no recurrence. Other members of my family used them for the same trouble, with the same good result.

I cheerfully endorse them for this illness, and also a pleasant laxative or purgative, according to the number taken. They are now a household remedy with me and I am never without them. I would gladly give the details of the foregoing to any who might choose to call upon me for them.

Mothers! Mothers! Mothers

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the exruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle.

MEDICAL.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

Worn, Weary and Wretched.

"As weak as a cat" is an expression frequently used by debilitated sufferers who are trying to tell how forlorn they feel. It is an incorrect expression, for a cat is one of the most agile and vigorous animals in existence. It would be more correct to say, "as weak as a limp old rag," for that gives the idea of utter inability to hold one's self up. The weary person who feels thus is generally worn, worried, woeful and wretched.

Sometimes it is a case of overwork, and sometimes of imperfect nourishment. The blood in the system of a person who is "as weak as a rag" is in a wretchedly thin condition. It needs iron, to impart richness, redness, and strength. This is to be had by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, the only safe and proper preparation of iron in connection with gentle and powerful tonics. The physician and the druggist can tell the worn and weary how valuable a remedy BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been found in actual every-day use.

BENSON'S SKIN CURE.

[From Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.]

A LADY SAID.

"Those Horrid Pimples: No, I Cannot Go. Please Present My Excuses."

Probably two-thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skin diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives. Then she would have instead of a disfigured and marred countenance, one that would be handsome, or at least good looking, for any one with a clear, pure skin, no matter what the cut of her features are, has a certain amount of good looks which attract everybody. As it is now, she imagines every one sees and talks about "those freckles," "those horrid pimples," and other blemishes with which she is afflicted, but this is true of either sex.

To improve this appearance great risks are taken; arsenic, mercury, or high-sound titled named articles containing these death dealing drugs, are taken in hopes of getting rid of all these troubles. In many cases death is the result. No alleviation of the burning, heating, itching and inflammation is given. All troubled with Eczema (salt rheum) Tetters, Humors, Inflammation, Rough Scaly Eruptions of any kind, Diseases of the Hair and Scalp, Scrofula, Ulcers, Pimples or Tender Itchings on any part of the body should know that there is hope for them in a sure, perfect and elegant remedy, known as "Dr. C. W. Benson's Skin Cure." It makes the skin white, soft and smooth; removes tan and freckles, and is the BEST toilet dressing IN THE WORLD. It is elegantly put up, TWO bottles in one package, consisting of both internal and external treatment. Our readers should be sure to get this and not some old remedy resuscitated on the success of Dr. Benson's and now advertised as "The Great Skin Cure." There is only one—it bears the doctor's picture and is for sale by all druggists, $1 per package.

SPECIAL

31 DAY SALE

Was reached on Saturday, the 26th, and if the downward half should prove as satisfactory to us as the former has been we shall have accomplished more than we anticipated. Many persons are under the impression that we are holding an Auction Sale. Why they should think so we cannot tell. For the information (of the few) let us state we have

NO AUCTION SALE,

although the prices at which we are selling the goods perhaps are lower than Auction Prices in general.
